GORHAM, MAINE

Seventy-Fifth Anniversary

This year marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of Gorham High School.

Looking back over this three-quarters of a century, one can see many changes—methods of education, styles, way of life.

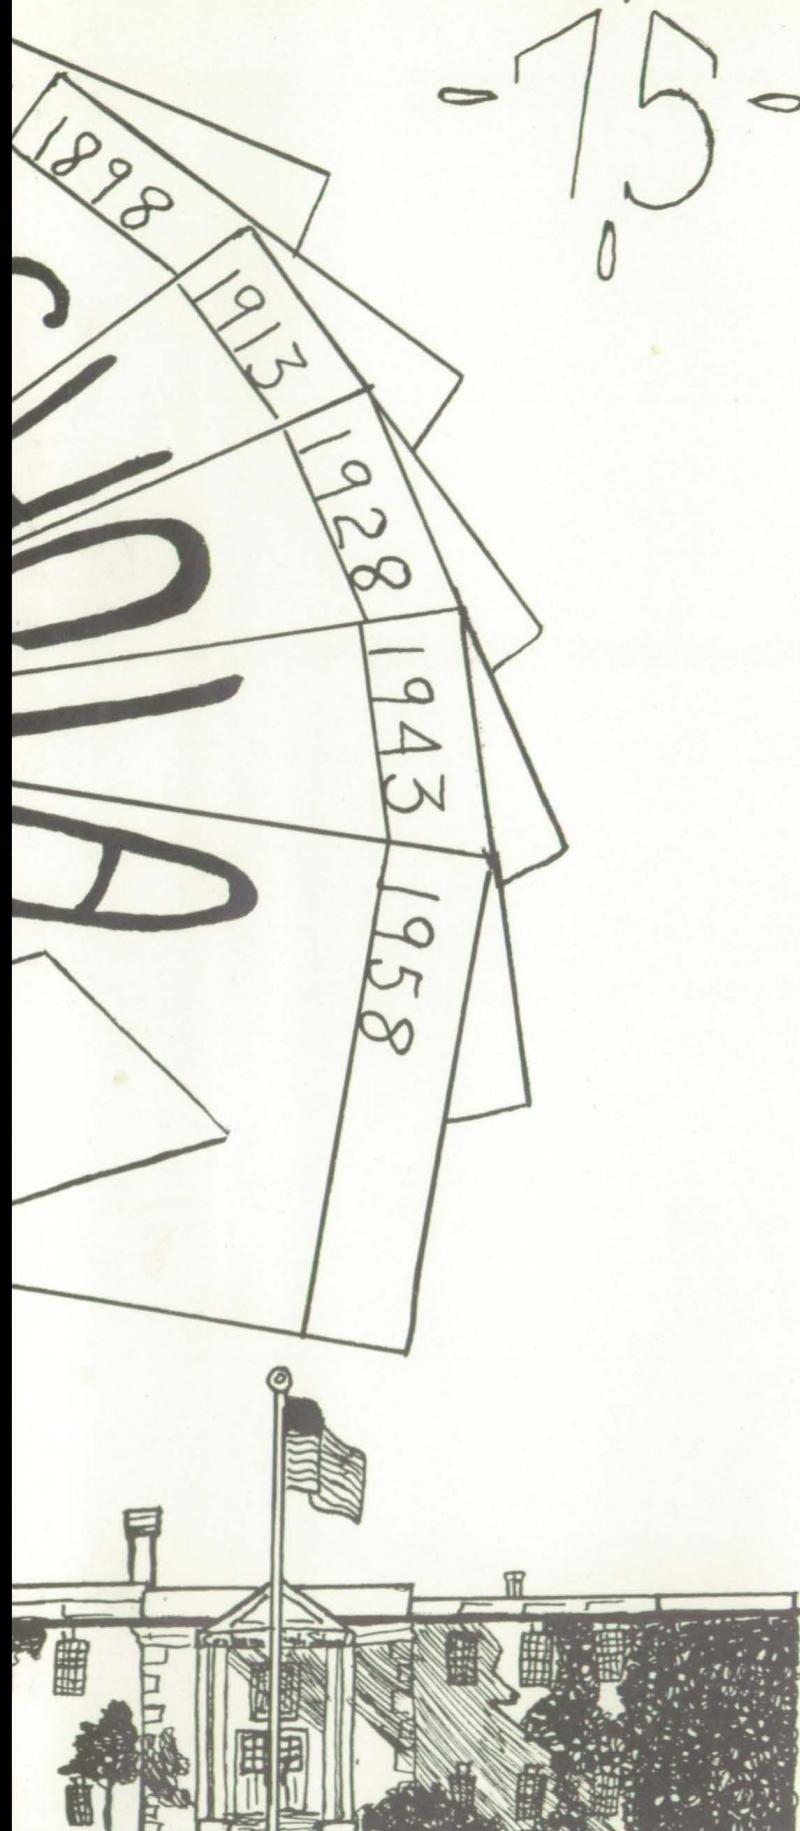

Gorham High School has kept pace with these changes. At the same time it has held steadfastly to the principle that its youth be prepared to meet the challenge of adulthood and to take their places as good citizens.

1958 CLASS ODE

Tune: Moments to Remember

The time has come, and we must say;
Oh, Gorham High we part today.
We'll have many moments to remember.
The many years we spent with you
Will all come back in mem'ries true.
We'll have many moments to remember.
As we go on our pathways,
Though they be gay or sad;
We'll praise you, Alma Mater,
For the good times we have had.
So as we all must say good-by,
We'll also keep our courage high,
And have many moments to remember.

ACTIVITIES

Diary '58

SEPTEMBER

School days finally began as everybody came back after the warm, free days of summer. Happy sounds echoed through the school as the pupils greeted a favorite teacher, Mr. Delano, as the new principal.

Our activities went into full swing with the election of Gwen Shiers, Richard Shiers, Dave Kreiton, and Jim Greenwood as class presidents.

With Gwen Shiers as Editor-in-Chief and Miss McCauley and Mr. Holden as able advisors, the yearbook staff started work on the 1958 SCHOLA.

The Freshman Reception once again hailed in high school life for the newcomers.

OCTOBER

October was an important month for the Cross Country boys. They ran in many meets, including the one held at the University of Maine where they did an excellent job.

This year we once again held a Mayor Dance at which Jim Greenwood was elected honorable mayor.

NOVEMBER

We had an assembly which proved too much for some of us. It entailed Sears and Roebuck catalogues and a man with a good memory. —Remember?

The F.F.A. boys had their big dance of the year. Nat Sweetser and Pete Andersen were crowned reigning royalties.

This month the art club was formed under the able guidance of Miss Lee. Their colorful calendars, which greeted everyone upon entering the school, certainly brightened things up.

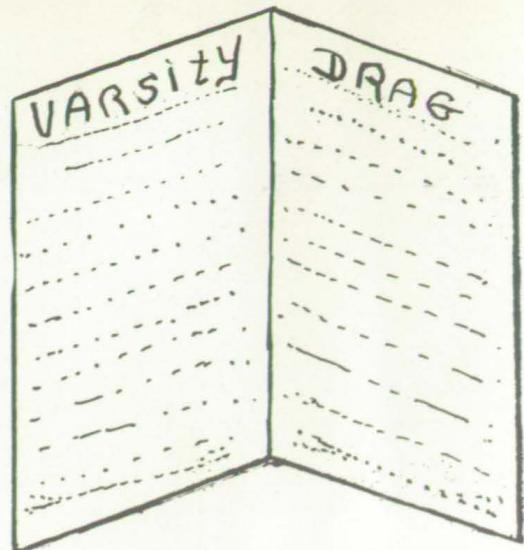

The basketball season officially began with Mr. Evans as coach of the varsity boys. A popular newcomer, Mr. Tracy, coached the junior varsity boys; and Miss Mitchell was once again the capable coach of the girls' teams.

DECEMBER

One of the double-headers of this month was the day of the Dave Astor Show followed by the Seniors' Holly Hop in the evening.

The Sophomore Class was a hive of busy bees as they planned the Sno-Ball Dance.

Once again the F.F.A. boys held a successful sale of Christmas wreaths and candles.

JANUARY

The new year came in with a bang! Hurray! We did it! After nine years of rugged battles we finally beat Cape by a nine-point difference.

We were all "buried under" with mid-year exams. (Teachers included.) Luckily we didn't record any fatalities.

FEBRUARY

Congratulations to the Aggie boys for their accomplishments at the district meet held in Buxton.

The '57-'58 basketball season came to an end with the Triple "C" Tournament at Westbrook. We had good reason to be proud of our boys.

Miss Mitchell and the Girls' Basketball Team deserve lots of credit for completing the season undefeated.

The annual D.A.R. Award went to Gwen Shiers who well deserved the honor.

MARCH

Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, THE GONDOLIERS, was a striking success under the supervision of Mrs. Bailey. Congratulations!

Norma Willis, the girls' foul shooting champion, represented G.H.S. at the "shoot-off" which was held at the University of Maine in Portland.

Diary '58

APRIL

A small but enthusiastic group of seniors headed south for Washington. What memories!

A few members of the orchestra and choruses represented the school at the All-State Festival in Augusta. A fine time was had by all.

MAY

More music. The choruses, Madrigal Singers, and orchestra took part in the Western Maine Audition Festival held in Portland.

Next came the social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. It was a night to remember.

JUNE

Counting the days. Senior Class Day started the breaking up of a routine of four joyous years.

June twelfth, Graduation Day. With mixed emotions the class of '58 received their diplomas and started their long journey through life.

"Thank you, gallant Gondolieri."

"We're called Gondolieri."

"Are you peeping? Can you see, Sir?"

The Gondoliers

ACT I. Two popular and carefree gondoliers, Marco and Giuseppe Palmieri, chose Gianetta and Tessa as their brides and join the company of peasant girls and gondoliers in gay songs before leaving to prepare for their weddings. The Duke of Plaza-Toro—at the moment in somewhat straitened circumstances—arrives in Venice with the Duchess, their daughter, Casilda, and their “suite,” the drummer Luiz, in search of the heir to the throne of Barataria, to whom Casilda is informed she was married by proxy when a baby. The infant prince had been taken from his heretic father by Don Alhambra del Boleño, the Grand Inquisitor of Spain, brought to Venice and placed in the care of a gondolier. Though the gondolier—now dead—had brought the prince up with his own son and never could tell which was which, Don Alhambra assures the Duke that there is no doubt whatever that the prince is either Marco or Giuseppe. The happiness of the two gondoliers and their young wives is disturbed by Don Alhambra’s announcement that one of them is the King of Barataria and that since the former monarch and his court have been killed in an insurrection, both gondoliers must leave their wives and go to take up the reins of government jointly until it can be determined which one is king. Marco and Giuseppe explain that they abhor kings and class distinctions and that all men will be equal in their kingdom.

"Gondola with the fringe on top."

"... as one individual."

The Gondoliers

ACT II. Marco and Giuseppe and their gondolier friends are now enjoying life in their monarchy "tempered with Republican Equality," but are delighted when Gianetta, Tessa and the other contadine arrive. Don Alhambra is shocked at the unconventional changes in the court. The monarchs in turn are shocked to learn that one of them is an unintentional bigamist, having been married in infancy to Casilda. The Duke—his fortune now repaired—arrives with the Duchess to present Casilda to her husband, meanwhile seizing the opportunity to give Marco and Giuseppe a lesson in proper deportment. The identity of the king remains a mysterious and complicating factor until the appearance of Inez who was the prince's nurse in his infancy and who is able to solve the dilemma to the satisfaction of all.

"Jimp, isn't she?"

"Terry" and "Liz."

Several members took leading parts in the opera, which was presented in March.

William Key

The artistic talents of the group were often tested as each month an appropriate theme was chosen and the idea carefully developed. With no Art Department in the school curriculum the Art Club has served both as a means of encouraging those interested in art and of developing the talent which otherwise might remain unused. Interest has remained high and the group looks forward to widening its scope in future years.

After this they rallied and won the rest of their meets and went on to win the Triple "C" championship. The team also took eighth place in competition with the schools of Southwestern Maine, thus making the season a successful one.

Dick Shiers captured individual honors.

Despite heavy graduation losses from last year's team, Coach Evans did a good job with the team in its third year.

This was the first year that Gorham High entered the Triple "C" swimming meet. Dana Morton was the only team member to succeed in the elimination heats and qualify for the finals.

The team was hampered by the lack of experience, but we look forward to more success next year.

We wish to thank Mr. Tracy, our coach, for his help.

Varsity Basketball

Gorham High's Varsity Team had a fairly successful season considering that they had an entirely new starting team.

The boys proved that they were capable of playing good basketball when they beat Cape Elizabeth for the first time since 1949. They also upset Porter High and became the only team to defeat the 1958 Class "S" state champions.

The team showed a marked improvement throughout the season under the fine coaching of Mr. Evans.

Will it, or won't it?

Unlucky number?

Varsity Cheerleading

The Gorham High spirit was carried on very capably at the games by seven cheerleaders. The girls were helpful in supporting the boys and leading the spectators in many enthusiastic cheers.

Our thanks and appreciation go to Miss Trethewey for her help and encouragement throughout the season.

We hope that the '58-'59 season will be as enjoyable as this one has been.

Go-o-o Rams!

All set? You bet!

Second row: Coach Tracy, D. Knapton, M. Flight, R. Bailey, D. Brofee, J. Marsh.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The J.V. team had a successful year under the leadership of Mr. Tracy. At the close of the season they had a record of eleven wins and seven losses.

Sophomores, Denny Nelson and Bill Turner, led the scoring.

Many freshmen and sophomores got valuable experience which will prove helpful in future seasons.

Hey, Bill, Stan's got it.

Now's your chance, Denny!
