1967 SCHOLA

GORHAM HIGH SCHOOL
GORHAM, MAINE

*I am being driven forward
Into an unknown land.
The pass grows steeper,
The air colder and sharper.
A wind from my unknown goal
Stirs the strings
Of expectation.*

*Still the question:
Shall I ever get there?
There where life resounds,
A clear pure note
In the silence.*

—Dag Hammerskjold

*The youth of today is aware, aware of the world around him, and conscious of the fact that he is an integral part of the world, as much a part of it as are our greatest statesmen. The late Dag Hammerskjold was one of these, a statesman who made known his prayers, fears, and innermost reflections in his published diary, Markings. Several quotations from this book have been included in the 1967 Schola, for we feel that Mr. Hammerskjold has observed many extremely valid concepts by which we should all live.*

Message from the Principal

In "the Good Old Days"

Today we still witness the perpetuation of the myth that teenagers are deficient in the fundamental principles which the former generation, according to its members, displayed so abundantly. Yet I am convinced that comparison of the present student body of Gorham High School with that of several decades ago would reveal that the present group excel their predecessors in personal attractiveness, intellectual achievement, moral integrity, and civic responsibility. The majority are successfully meeting the increasing demands of schools, colleges, industry, and public service and valiantly facing, with steadfastness, compassion, and idealism, the pressures of national confusion and international chaos, their legacy from previous generations.

Before we join, accept, or permit the detraction of our youth, we should ponder Corneille's axiom: "Valor does not wait on years," which Goethe affirms: "We must be young to do great things." Better still, we should take a closer look at our boys and girls with our hearts and minds, as well as our eyes, understanding attuned to assess them in their proper perspective. Then to the question "What was really so good about 'the good old days'?" we might answer honestly: "Chiefly, perhaps, fond memory, its reality blurred by unconscious self-deception and softened by kindly time."

SENIORS

Never measure the height of a mountain until you have reached the top. Then you will see how low it was.

Barbara Howard, secretary; Erick Sawtelle, president; Sharon Caruthers, treasurer; James Good, vice-president.

Senior Class

The Senior Class elected its new officers at the first class meeting in September. The following were elected: Erick Sawtelle, president; Jim Good, vice-president; Barbara Howard, secretary; and Sharon Caruthers, treasurer. Our new Student Council members were Mike D'Arcangelo and Henry Bachelder, who joined Kevin Thurston, Debby Bridges, Lance Merrifield, Janice Dix, Alysan Martin, Julie Stearns, Erick Sawtelle, Jim Good and Chris Weisman. Kevin Thurston was elected president of the Student Council by a popular vote among the students.

Although a senior wasn't chosen Miss Page One, we had four fine representatives: Julie Colpitts, Bonnie Faunce, Julie Stearns, and Jane Cobb. Our Mayor candidates were Mike D'Arcangelo and Peter Larrabee. Mike was elected Mayor at the Mayor Dance.

We have been busy making arrangements for graduation — buying pictures and class announcements, but we have had time to sponsor some bottle and paper drives.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Do not look back. And do not dream about the future, either. It will neither give you back the past, nor satisfy your other daydreams. Your duty, your reward — your destiny — are here and now.

Russell Outhuse, president; Matthew Rines, vice-president; Irene Costa, treasurer; Claire Giguere, secretary.

Junior Class

Through a series of bottle and paper drives and car washes, the Junior Class has supplemented its treasury. In addition, we sponsored the Hunters' Breakfast in November and held a dance. Our officers are the following: president, Russell Outhuse; vice-president, Matthew Rines; secretary, Claire Giguere; and treasurer, Irene Costa.

The Student Council is benefited through the membership of juniors Jim Richards, Paul Young, Bernie Wood, Paula Allen, Neil Libby, Charles Noble, and Russ Outhuse. We campaigned for Jim Richards and Dennis Bernier for Mayor, and for Brenda Belyea, Joanne Ivers, Linda Galipeau, and Irene Costa for Miss Page One. For the first time in years, a junior, Brenda Belyea, was chosen Miss Page One; and naturally we boasted about our victory to the seniors for days.

Sophomore Class

Our class of 1969, the largest in the history of Gorham High School, was led this year by president, Paul Willis; vice-president, John Emerson; secretary, Linda Harriman; and treasurer, Jeanette Good. Patti O'Donnell and Anne Woodbrey joined Jane Philbrick and Paul Willis as the class representatives to the Student Council. As the year got under way Jane Larrabee, Jeanette Good, Anne Woodbrey and Linda Harriman competed for the Miss Page One title. Next came the mayor election in which our class proudly named Gary Noyes and Linda Brooks as candidates.

Some of the fund raising projects for the year included the Halloween Ghost-a-Go-Go Dance, followed by a calendar drive in December. In the spring a series of food sales and bottle and paper drives were held.

Freshman Class

For our first year here at Gorham High we elected as class officers David Ott, president; Christopher Johnson, vice-president; Jeanne McLaughlin, secretary; and Pamela Seal, treasurer. Elected to the Student Council were Susan Ott and Roger O'Donnell, and our Miss Page One candidates were Mary Martin, Debra Lopez, Pamela Seal, and Deborah Morse.

In the fall our dance was a success, for we had one of WLOB's disc jockeys. Throughout the year we participated in numerous school activities, including a rally for Scarborough. Our great moment of triumph came when we won the magazine drive over the seniors. In the spring we held a series of paper and bottle drives.

Gorham Track Team Goes Undefeated to Win The Triple-C Trophy

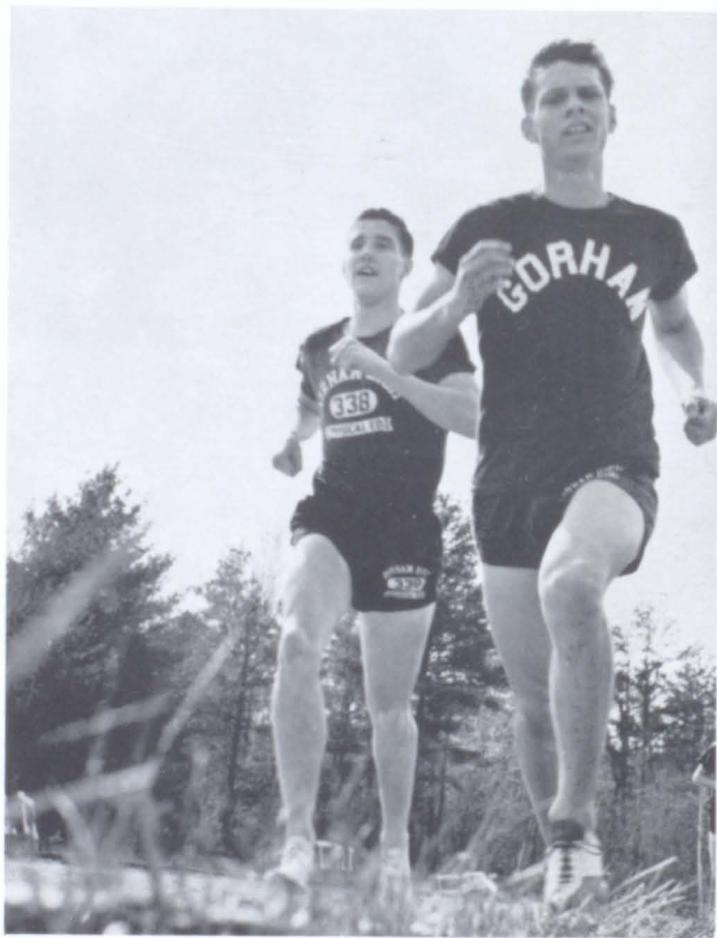

Mr. Swierzynski admires the reward for a spring of hard work, the Triple-C Track Trophy.

The 1966 track team had a brilliantly successful year. The team was undefeated in the regular season league meets, and we also won in a meet with Westbrook. Gorham High School was number one in Triple-C and was awarded the league trophy. As is customary with a championship team, this one was led by a nucleus of outstanding athletes. The running honors were usually shared by Jim Good, Jon Peterson, Bernie Wood, Gary Miller, and Dave Deas. Henry Bachelder had a fine year in the broad jump and further proved his worth in several running events. Bond Farrington, along with Roger Minard, were the big guns in the weight contests. Other members such as Ray Wyman, Erick Sawtelle, and Peter Larrabee were big assets for the team.

Henry Bachelder, holder of the Triple-C broad jumping event, strains at the end of a race to beat a pressing opponent.

Row 1: Manager C. Noble, R. Wagner, J. Peterson, B. Wood, P. Spencer, B. Farrington, Mr. Swierzynski, R. Pride. Row 2: P. Young, D. Doucette, P. Loveitt, H. Bachelder, J. Good, E. Finnerty, G. Feaux de la Croix, J. Emerson, Mr. Pettingill. Row 3: E. Sawtelle, L. Merrifield, D. Sawyer, G. Noyes, S. Williams, D. Deas, R. Wyman, P. Larrabee, A. Brann.

John Emerson leads the way as Jim Good struggles to keep up.

Dennis Morton, a senior, clears the bar in the high jump event.

Ralph Pride and John Emerson are neck and neck as they race down the back stretch.

Paul Young shows promising form as he attempts a high jump.

Roger Minard, a senior standout in the weight events, heaves the discus.

Dave Deas starts to tear as Jim Good passes him the baton.

Peter Larrabee clears the bar in fine form as the crowd watches.

Gorham Finishes 2nd In Division Play

Row 1: A. Burnell, J. Bright, J. Ray, M. Walker, M. Magnusson, D. Sprague, T. Hadlock, P. Hooper, A. Boothby, D. Parker, R. Leonhardt. Row 2: Mr. Beedy, R. Emery, A. Magnusson, D. Smith, R. Rickards, D. Libby, D. Stearns, R. Willey, E. Kennie, M. D'Arcangelo.

The 1966 baseball team, led by co-captains Terry Hadlock and Dave Sprague, had one of its finest seasons. The team won 11 and lost 2 in overall division play, and won 6 and lost 2 in the Triple-C League. The team was led by an excellent nucleus of seniors. Terry Hadlock set two records: (1) Stolen Bases — 16, and (2) Slugging Average — .756. Marty Magnusson led in RBI's with 23. Dave Sprague led the team in hitting with .465 average. The team's leading pitcher was Richard Leonhardt, who won 4 game and didn't drop a decision. Jim Bright and Peter Hooper were also two big guns in the pitching department. Peter Hooper had 3 saves to his credit and along the way picked up 40 strike-outs. Jim Bright pitched good ball for the team and ended the season with an earned run average of 1.35.

Marty Magnusson appears to be in trouble as he tears down the first base line.

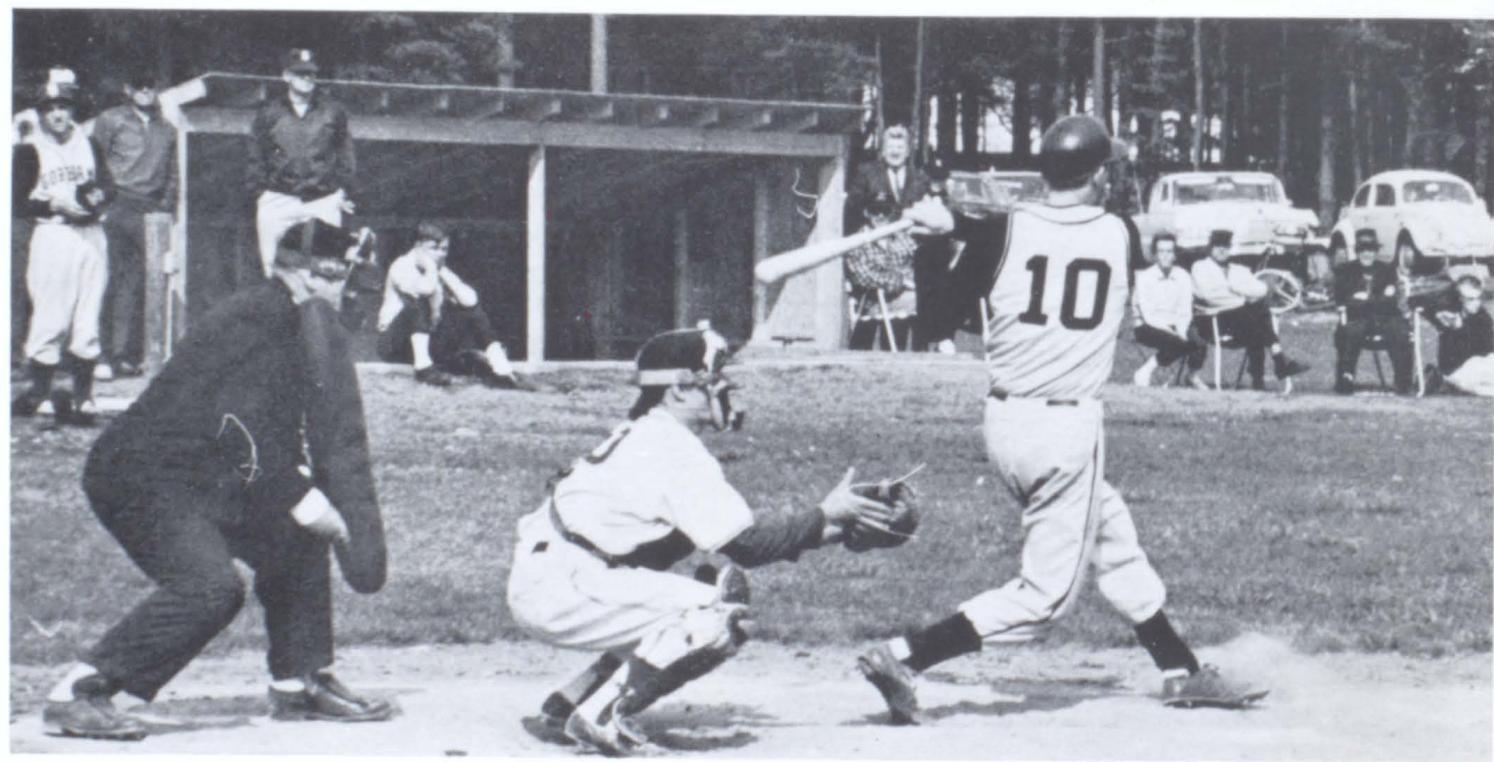

Ellis Kennie, a junior, and starter at third base, takes a healthy cut at the ball.

Terry Hadlock attempts to run down an opponent who has been caught off base.

The girls' softball team, coached by Mrs. Ann Distant, had a 6-4 record at the end of the 1966 season. Although hit hard by the loss of good members through graduation, the team came through with striking success. The girls defeated Scarborough, Yarmouth, Greely, Freeport, and Cape Elizabeth by large margins; and lost only by a few runs to Bonny Eagle, Windham, Falmouth, and Gray-New Gloucester.

Soccer Men Post 3-win, 7-loss Record

The Gorham Rams had a disappointing season in soccer although the defense stood out as one of the better ones in the Triple-C League. Our defense was led by our relatively inexperienced goalie Lance Merrifield, who was considered to be a real "find" for Mr. Stevenson. The rest of the team was composed of Ray Wyman and Mason Scammon, fullbacks; and Art Boothby, Gilbert Labrecque, and Wesley Wright, who all put in fine games in the halfback position.

The team's front line, which supposedly lacked scoring punch, never played badly, but the team just couldn't seem to get the ball into the net. Erick Sawtelle at wing had a few good games along with Danny Stearns at center forward and Peter Larrabee at inside.

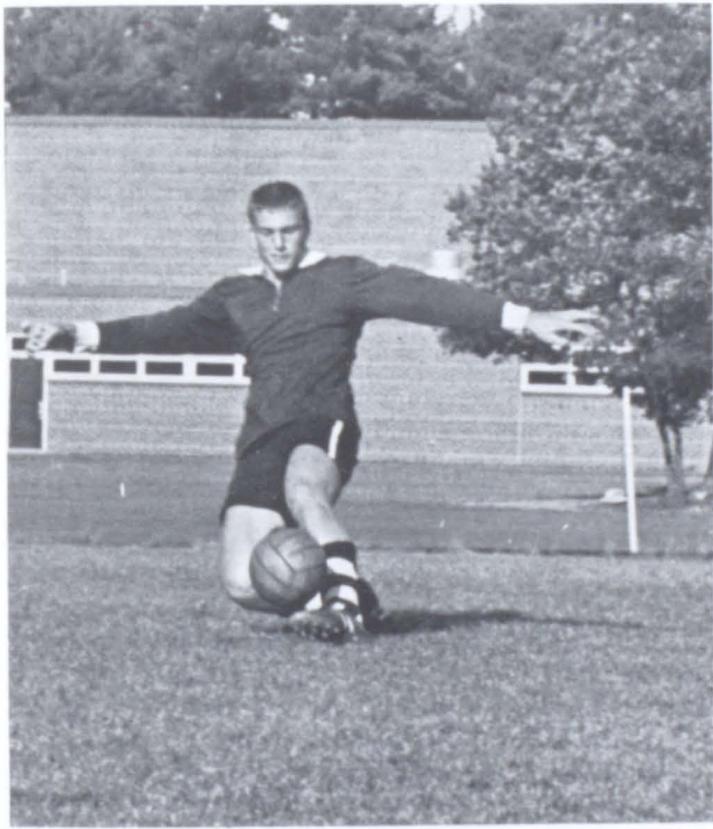

It looks as though Mr. Stevenson will have to wait another year for the Triple-C trophy.

Gorham 1st in Triple-C, 4th in Southwestern

Jim Good, ankles taped, strains to keep up the pace.

The cross country team, led by John Peterson and John Emerson, had an outstanding season. The team won the Triple-C race and came in fourth in the Southwestern. The team was undefeated in regular season meets with Gould Academy, Bowdoin freshmen, Cape Elizabeth, Windham, Falmouth, and Bonny Eagle.

Paul Young, Jim Good, Mitch Walker and Bernie Wood all had good seasons as they ran fine races. Mike Smith, a freshman, showed great potential while he ran with the varsity much of the season.

Coach Evans checks the statistics at the Southwestern meet.

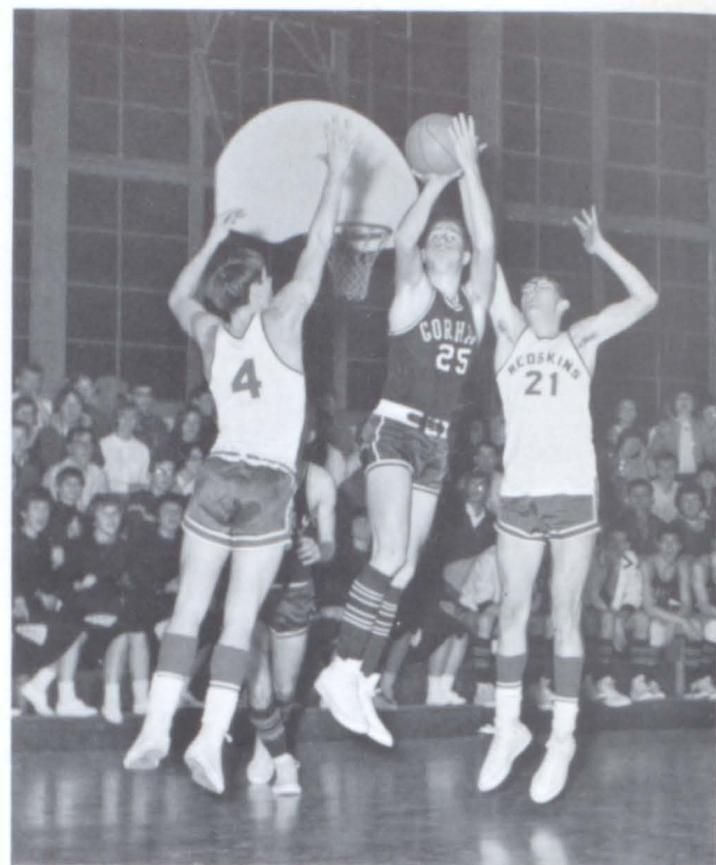

Paul Young nears the finish line of the big Southwestern race.

Bernie Wood, a junior, shows the strain of a long race as he is followed closely by Mike Smith.

The Gorham High varsity carved out a respectable 10-6 seasonal record this year in overall league play. They defeated such teams as Cape Elizabeth, Bonny Eagle, and Scarboro, while they lost two extremely tight games to Falmouth. We lost by two points on our home court to Windham in a real thriller that shocked the Gorham fans for hours after the game.

The team was well balanced and had many talents. Russ Outhuse could be counted on for rebounds and his share of points near the basket, and Henry Bachelder and Jim Good were the big guns from outside. Paul Young and Jim Bright helped out in both the scoring and rebounding. Sophomore guards Karl Frank and Art Boothby both saw lots of action and helped the team win several games.

The Rams made the tournaments, but were defeated by Cape Elizabeth in the first game at the Lewiston Armory. Gorham came from behind in the fourth quarter and finally tied the score at 52 all on a basket by Russ Outhuse, but Cape pulled away and won.

Close Decisions As They

Compile 3-10 Record

This year's junior varsity team managed to win only three out of thirteen games, but their record does not give a true indication of their worth. They dropped two 1-point decision games, along with several others which were lost by only one or two baskets. The games dropped by one point were: Gorham 59, Windham 60; and Gorham 62, Falmouth 63. Other close games included: Gorham 57, Falmouth 62; and Gorham 39, Freeport 43. Led by John Emerson, the Gorham five showed potential in several games where the passing was quick and accurate. Andy Magnusson and Steve Brown were regular starters, as were Jason Tucker and Mike Washburn. Subs Danny Stearns, Jack Fitch, and Paul Willis also saw much action in their efforts to aid the team.

Foul Shot in Last Seconds Defeats Scots 35-34

This year's season proved to be filled with competition as well as fun for the Girls' Varsity Team under the supervision of Coach Ann Distant. The girls added Portland and Gray-New Gloucester to their schedules and ended with a 5 wins, 4 losses, and 2 cancellations record.

The Bonny Eagle game was one of the most exciting ones as Gorham finally won by Jeanne Kimball's foul shot in the last few seconds of play. The Ramettes defeated Falmouth by a score of 51-34. Our victory was attributed to Nancy Day's 25 points, Cindy Grovo's 16, and Margaret Martin's assistance. The Ramettes also defeated Portland by 21 points, as Jeanette Good let the scoring with 22 points, and beat Scarborough by 22 points.

The team met its matches in the teams of Gray-New Gloucester and Windham where the Ramettes were defeated.

High Scorer for the season is Nancy Day with a total of 119 points. Rosie Fernandez won the Girls' Foul Shooting Contest by sinking 26 out of 35 shots.

Faye Nicholson was the Manager, and Marlene Bell and Linda MacBeth were timer and scorer. Other important members include: Mary Honan, one of the team's best guards; Judy Kimball, Judy Rollins, Karen Conway, Sharon Kennie, and Anne Woodbury.

Cindy "Gunner" Grovo connects for another two points.

J.V.'s End Season With 6-3 Record

Mary Martin and Cheryl Riley are ready for anything Windham has to offer.

The Girls' Junior Varsity team finished the season with an excellent 6 wins, 3 losses, and 2 cancellations record. The girls lost only to Gray-New Gloucester 7-12, Bonny Eagle 17-25, and Windham 8-17, but defeated Portland 22-9, Scarborough 23-16, Gray-New Gloucester 12-9, Scarborough 27-22, Portland 23-15, and Falmouth 21-13.

The high scorer for the J.V. team is Mary Martin with a total of 60 points. Mary also came in second in the foul shooting contest by sinking 25 out of 35 shots.

Mary Jane Mitsmenn and Jan Kramlich were timer and scorer. The team was led to victory by the good sportsmanship and fine playing of co-captains Mary Martin and Cheryl Riley, Jackie Gerrish, Jane Philbrick, Dianna Shaw, Sally Bonney, Kathy Emmertz, Jane Galipeau, Beverly Herrick, Diane Johnson, Coleen Kennie, Cathy Libby, Dottie Oullette, Pam Riley, Barbara Welch, and Donna Wood.

4-7 Record

The Gorham High freshmen, led by Coach Stevenson, were able to win four of eleven games this season. There were also several close games which would have been victories had the Rams been given a few breaks.

The big gun for the Rams was Roger O'Donnell, who maintained a fourteen point per game average. The other starters included David Ott, Richard Marsh, Mike Lurvey, and Steve Ernest. Frank Siciliano and Eugene Loveitt also saw much rugged action.

Roger O'Donnell adds two more points via an easy lay-up.

Row 1: M. Lurvey, R. Marsh, R. O'Donnell, D. Ott, F. Siciliano. Row 2: J. Files, C. Gagnon, E. Loveitt, S. Ernest, D. Stiles, J. Caruthers, C. Knight, J. Wood, Mr. Stevenson.

Mr. Stevenson discusses strategy during a time out.

STUDENT LIFE

What you have to attempt — to be yourself. What you have to pray for — to become a mirror in which, according to the degree of purity of heart you have attained, the greatness of life will be reflected.

Ben Kreiton takes a breather.

Denny Morton and Jo Furman were among those who "could have danced all night."

The Grand March was led by Margaret Taylor, Dale Mitchell, Diane Eliot, and class president Walter Libby.

However, all good things must come to an end, and Pam Mills, Emily Lyle, and Denny Parker look as if they've just about had it.

"Blue Velvet"

Chris Weisman, Julie Stearns, and Debby Bridges helped get ready for the big night, May 20.

Graduation - 1966

On Thursday evening, June 16, 1966, the 125 members of the senior class were graduated from Gorham High School. The address was given by Walter S. Schoenberger, an associate professor from the University of Maine, who spoke about "Vigah."

The finale — end of months of preparation.

Bruce Williams as Nanki-Poo almost makes Suzanne Bineau forget her lines.

Suzanne Bineau, "Yum-Yum," thinks dark Japanese thoughts.

"The Mikado"

Ben Kreiton, Tom Emery, and Stanley Keelwhetter — "we are gentlemen of Japan."

Miss Hanson and Mrs. Bailey open the gifts they were given on their retirement.

Alan Burnell receives a trophy from Mr. Stevenson at the athletic assembly.

Bea Ward pins a corsage on Miss Hanson at the assembly in her honor.

Awards Assemblies

Gorham Students Take Active Part in AFS

There were two American Field Service students living with Gorham families and attending Gorham High School this year. Rosa Maria Fernandez, from Trinidad, Bolivia, lived with the Philip Honans of Fort Hill Road. She was an outstanding member of the varsity girls basketball team during her year here, as was her American sister, Mary Honan.

Mario Caro transferred from Cedar Cliff High School in Pennsylvania to Gorham during Christmas vacation. He lived with the C. Senter Shaws of Lower Main Street for the remainder of the year. Mario's home is Bogata, the capital of Columbia.

A Gorham High School student, Deborah Bridges, visited the Philippines under the program during the summer of 1966. She spent two months with the family of Dr. and Mrs. Ricardo Olaes, attending school in Bacolod City, Negros Occidental, for six weeks.

Last year's AFS representative was Guy Feaux de la Croix. He also lived with the C. Senter Shaws on Main Street. After his year in Gorham, Guy returned to his home in Bonn, the Federal Republic of Germany.

Debby Bridges, Rosie Fernandez, and Mario Caro pose beneath the portraits of Gorham's former AFS'ers Guy, Arleta, Stig, and Coco.

Guy (r.) is honored at a party given for him by his friends after his return to Bonn.

Debby Bridges and her Filipino family: from l. to r., Pa, Rickie (11), Debby, Tess (18), Ma, and Mila (19).

Miss Page One

Sixteen candidates, representing all four classes, made the choice of Miss Page One a difficult one. From seven semi-finalists, determined by a popular vote among the student body, Brenda Belyea was chosen Miss Page One by a panel of judges at the Miss Page One Ball in September. The other candidates were: seniors, Julie Colpitts, Jane Cobb, Bonnie Faunce, and Julie Stearns; juniors, Irene Costa, Linda Galipeau, and Joanne Ivers; sophomores, Jeanette Good, Anne Woodbrey, Linda Harriman, and Jane Larrabee; and freshmen, Pamela Seal, Deborah Morse, Mary Martin, and Debra Lopez.

Mayor Campaign

"How long do I have to wear this stupid hat, anyway?" whispers Mike.

"Emma" seems to have stronger political convictions after absorbing some of the campaign literature. With him are Mrs. Leighton and Betsy Arthur.

Brenda bestows a congratulatory kiss on Mike D'Arcangelo, a dumbfounded mayor.

"Awright, you guys!" Mike executes one of his new duties.

A disappointment to the student body this year was the elimination of the candidates' skits during the mayor campaign. Posters were plastered all over the walls as usual, and groups of students campaigned zealously for their choices. The following were candidates chosen by their respective classes: seniors, Mike D'Arcangelo and Peter Larrabee; juniors, Jim Rickards and Dennis Bernier; sophomores, Linda Brooks and Gary Noyes; and freshmen, Mike Lurvey and Frank Siciliano. Mike D'Arcangelo was elected by a secret ballot vote of the students.

"Isn't someone missing?" — onstage for the final scene.

Mrs. Loveitt and Jan Kramlich settle some last minute difficulties.

"You Can't Take It With You"

Jon Zax makes his point — Russian style.

Ann Loveitt and Susan Alden — "While you're up get me a Grants."

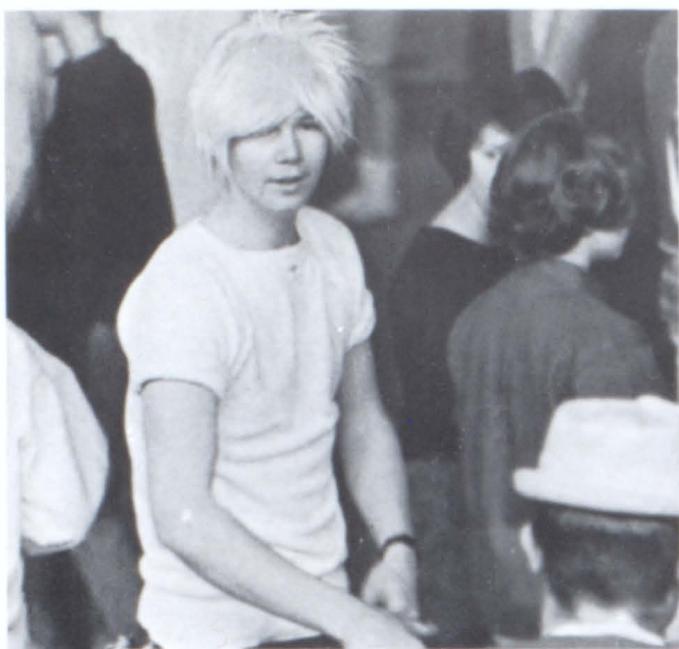

"... so then he asked me if we really have to go home early to milk the cows." Steve Cobb, Roberta Bachelder, Beverly Mann, Rodney Strout.

The Dave Astor Show

The juniors and seniors make their television debut by helping out on the chorus of . . . "Stardust?"

"Does she or doesn't she?" Ralph Clark is asked.

Norman Chapman shows off his athletic prowess for Mr. Schmidt at an assembly held in February.

Peter Loveitt maintains that his shirt tail is tucked in, anyway.

As usual, the student body of Gorham High School enthusiastically turned out for the observance of Sloppy Thursday last spring. We gave the faculty a glimpse of our out-of-school attire, and many voiced their opinions accordingly.

At an assembly for the encouragement of physical fitness, Mr. Otto Schmidt entertained us with a gymnastic and trampoline performance. A native of Austria, he has appeared on the Ed Sullivan television show, and runs a school for gymnastics and cheerleading in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Martha Giguere taps an appreciative Kevin Thurston at the induction ceremony of the National Honor Society last spring.

The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was held last spring, and deserving students were tapped for membership on the bases of character, scholarship, leadership, and service to their school. At the same assembly, three Gorham High alumni, William Moberg, David Graham, and Michael McDade, were presented the Abraxus Cup from Bowdoin College for their academic achievement there.

Ben Kreiton is presented a rose by Ramona Dunnells after his induction.

Kevin Thurston is bid a hearty farewell by Cris Gates, Lynda Metayer, Mary Fogg, and Nancy Rickards before embarking on his trip to the British Isles.

The recipient of the Young Columbus Award, presented by the editors of Parade Magazine, was Kevin Thurston. Kevin, a carrier for the Guy Gannett Publishing Company, was chosen on the basis of his service to that company, as well as for his other achievements. His prize was a trip to Ireland, Scotland, and Great Britain.

Testing the lungs for the big game.

Rallies

"On the street" with Lynn Murchie and Roberta Bachelder.

Mr. Evans recognizes a familiar figure as the rest of the faculty sympathize.

Correspondent D'Arcangelo is on the scene at the disaster area.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATES

Last summer, nine members of the senior class represented Gorham High at Dirigo Boys' State at the University of Maine and Dirigo Girls' State at Colby College. The students who participated were Sharon Caruthers, Martha Giguere, Deirdre Godfrey, Kevin Thurston, Joseph Kendall, Michael D'Arcangelo, Erick Sawtelle, Henry Bachelder, and James Good. All three girls ran for the office of state senator, but only Martha was elected. Kevin was a candidate for governor at Boys' State, but was defeated.

A.F.S. CLUB

With Mr. Gallagher as its advisor, the AFS Club has the following officers: President, Debby Bridges; Vice President, Rosanne Holman; Secretary, Dotty Wentworth; and Treasurer, Julie Stearns. The club has undertaken many projects to encourage the foreign exchange program of the American Field Service; in addition to the annual AFS Fair, held in April, the club also sponsored a dance and hayride last fall to which area AFS'ers were invited, along with their American brothers and sisters.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Gorham's Dramatics Club produced "You Can't Take It With You" last fall under the direction of Mrs. Loveitt. The lead parts included those played by William Libby, Jonathan Zax, Cindy Cole, Rosanne Holman, Ann Loveitt, Stephen Grant, William McGrath, Thomas Emery, Carlton Kidder, Susan Alden, Melinda Sawyer, Charles Gagnon, and Bridget Godfrey.

This spring, Gorham's entry into the annual One Act Play Contest was "Women Who Wait," made up of a cast of junior and senior girls.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club this year had over seventy enthusiastic members. The group made two all-day trips to Sunday River in Bethel. The officers for the year were: Peter Loveitt, President; Julie Stearns, Vice President; Chris Weisman, Secretary; and Becky Van Voorhis, Treasurer.

"G" CLUB

The "G" Club is an organization to which anyone who has earned a varsity letter in sports or a letter in either chorus or band may belong. There are certain requirements which must be met before an athlete or a member of chorus or band is eligible for membership.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Miss Pence is the advisor for the Quill and Scroll Society, an honorary organization for high school journalists. The officers include Sharon Caruthers, President; Deirdre Godfrey, Vice President; and Becky Van Voorhis, Secretary-Treasurer. The only activity of the society during the year was the annual Quill and Scroll Banquet in the spring, at which new members were inducted and outstanding members of the high school's publications honored.

RAMSTER

Gorham High School's newspaper, the Ramster, was headed this year by Christine Hewes. Becky Van Voorhis was the Assistant Editor; Julie Colpitts, Editorial Editor; Ronald Letarte, and Stephen Cobb, Photographers. The annual Miss Page One Dance, sponsored by the Ramster staff, was held on September 23, at which junior Brenda Belyea was chosen Miss Page One by the vote of the student body and the evaluation of three judges. Miss Pence was the faculty advisor for the newspaper.

THE LITERARY MAGAZINE

Gorham High School's first literary magazine was published this year under the direction of Mrs. Blake. An Editorial Board was set up to choose material for publication. The Board included Becky Van Voorhis, chairman; Anne Loveitt, Michelle Smith, Daniel Doucette, and Betsy Arthur. The Art Committee was headed by Dorothy Wentworth, Publicity by Kathy Bridges, Copy Reading by Idella Harter, Typing by Carol Landry, and Sales by Paul Doucette. The magazine published work of the students including poetry, movie and book reviews, short stories, and essays.

BAND

The band was everywhere — a welcome addition at rallies, assemblies, and basketball games, as well as an annual feature of the Memorial Day Parade. In the spring, the band co-sponsored a Pops Concert with the chorus, two months after its "Shamrock Shuffle," on March 17th. One striking change was the raise from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to 1 point value for each band student. This year's officers: Steve Cobb, President; Beverly Mann, Vice President; and Rosanne Holman, Secretary-Treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, typically among the most active of organizations, voted to make its 1966-67 President Kevin Thurston. Other officers included Jim Good, Vice President; Gilbert Labrecque, Treasurer, and Debby Bridges, Secretary. The Student Council sponsored numerous activities: the Freshman Reception, the annual magazine drive, the dances after basketball games, and Gorham High School's first Winter Carnival. Visits were exchanged with representatives from Cape Elizabeth and Falmouth, and representatives Paula Allen, Gilbert Labrecque, and Paul Willis were sent to a state-wide Student Council Convention.

JUNIOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

Sophomore, junior, and senior boys are eligible for membership in the Junior Fire Department. Twelve boys from these classes were selected for this organization this year, and they were trained to fight all types of fire. Although the work is sometimes long and hard, these students provide a valuable service to Gorham and its people. The Captain this year was Ron Letarte; First Lieutenant was Allyn Caruso; Second Lieutenant, Richard Murray; and Secretary-Treasurer, Steven Keene.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

This year's officers in FHA are as follows: Nancy Day, President; Patty Wood, First Vice President; Mary Carpenter, Second Vice President; Phyllis Frost, Secretary; Lucille Loveitt, Treasurer; Evelyn Austin, Recorder-Historian; Carol Landry, Parliamentarian; and Donna Wood, Songleader. Under the direction of Mrs. Boyle, the club has sponsored many activities this year, including a car wash, a candy sale, making Christmas gifts for needy children, and a Parents' Night. The area FHA convention was held here in November, and members of the Gorham High FHA attended the State Convention in the spring.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The FTA has sponsored three field trips this year: to the Augusta State Hospital, to the Baxter School for the Deaf, and to the Maine School for the Blind. The members have been privileged to hear several lecturers this year, among them Mr. Melvin Boutelier, who spoke on special education; and Mrs. Faith Sawyer, on team teaching. The officers are President, Doreen Doyle; Vice President, Mary Honan; and Secretary-Treasurer, Linda Harriman; the Advisor is Mr. Estes.

PROJECTIONISTS

The projectionists, under the direction of Mr. Hoskin, performed a valuable function — running the projectors for movies and films in different classes.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

Under the guidance of Mrs. Stickney, the study librarians were of assistance presiding over the library and performing various duties in the library during their study halls.

CHORUS

The chorus, under the new direction of Miss Espling, has participated in many activities this year, including a joint pops concert on May 6 with the band. Several members attended the Western Maine Concert Festival in Scarborough, and the entire chorus auditioned at the Western Maine Music Festival in the spring. Several students were accepted for All-State, and the annual Christmas concert, band and chorus combined, was held on December 18.

STUDENT SECRETARIES

The student secretaries are chosen from the senior secretarial classes for office work on a rotating basis. They type and run off tests and anything else needed by the faculty. There are twenty-two who assist in the office, also on a rotating basis.

MEDICAL CAREERS CLUB

The Medical Careers Club this year was headed by Christine Weisman. Barbara Howard was Vice President; Jean McGlinchey, Secretary; and Jil Fitch, Treasurer. The club sold food at basketball games, and purchased charms for members. They visited Portland City Hospital and planned several films. Mrs. Getty is the advisor for the club.

KEY CLUB

Henry Bachelder was the President of the Key Club this year, with Neil Libby, Vice President; Erick Sawtelle, Treasurer; and Kevin Thurston, Secretary. They sponsored two dances, a paper drive, and helped the Kiwanis Club with the Horse Show in the summer. Scholarships were given at graduation by the Key Club, and a boy was sponsored for attendance at Boys' State.

LIONETTES

The Lionettes were a particularly active group at Gorham High School this year, under the direction of Nina Cole. At Christmas they sent toys to the Pine-land Hospital and brownies to soldiers in Viet Nam. They also washed planes at the Portland Airport as a means of making money. Susan B. Mills was Vice President; Barbara Howard, Secretary; and Sally Benson, Treasurer. Miss Urquhart was the faculty advisor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

At the initial meeting of the National Honor Society last autumn, the following officers were elected: President, Sharon Caruthers; Vice President, Russell Outhuse, Secretary, Dorothy Wentworth, and Treasurer, Deirdre Godfrey. Under the direction of Mrs. McDade, delegates attended the state convention in Eliot, Maine, sponsored a dance in the spring, and conducted the annual induction ceremony.

ESSENCE

*And A Stranger will come to me on an unknown street
in an alien world.
I will have to meet him;
and he will become my friend.*

*And some new Authority will tell me all that my parents told me in scarcely different words.
I will have to obey it;
and it will become my friend.*

*And my Work will enfold me in its depth, and the unattainable will become mine.
I will find myself in it;
and I will become my friend.*

Rebecca Van Voorhis
