*Early in the evening,
Reluctant the dawn;
Once there was a summer;
Sudden it was gone.
It fell like a leaf;
Whirled downstream.
Was there ever summer,
Or only a dream?*

Ogden Nash

but sometimes its hard to remember ... we just see the beauty ...

Vietnam still goes on . . .

. . . and we did our best to ease a heartache . . .

... an historic moratorium showed the feelings of a nation ...

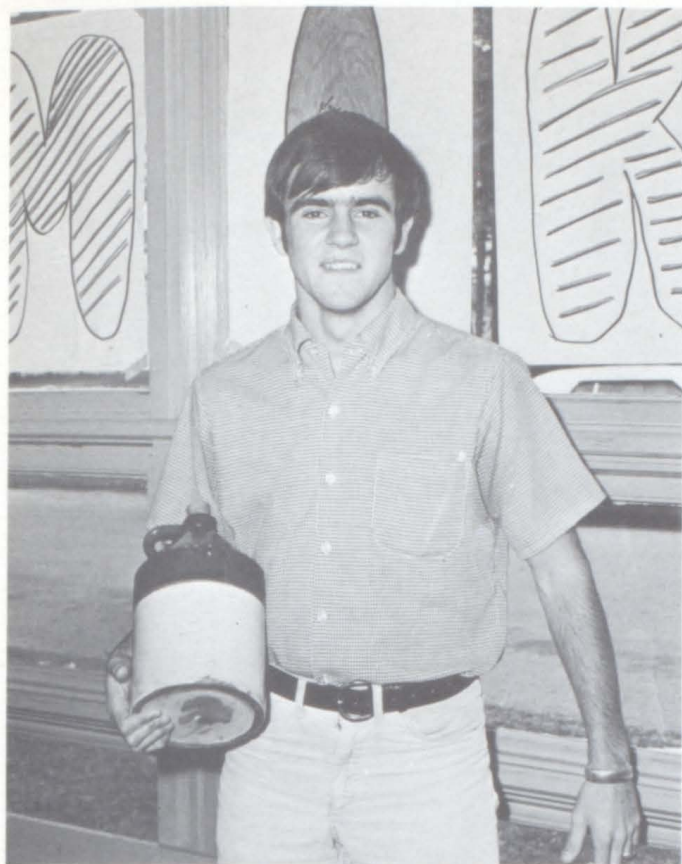

... while Charlie showed the feelings of a dream ...

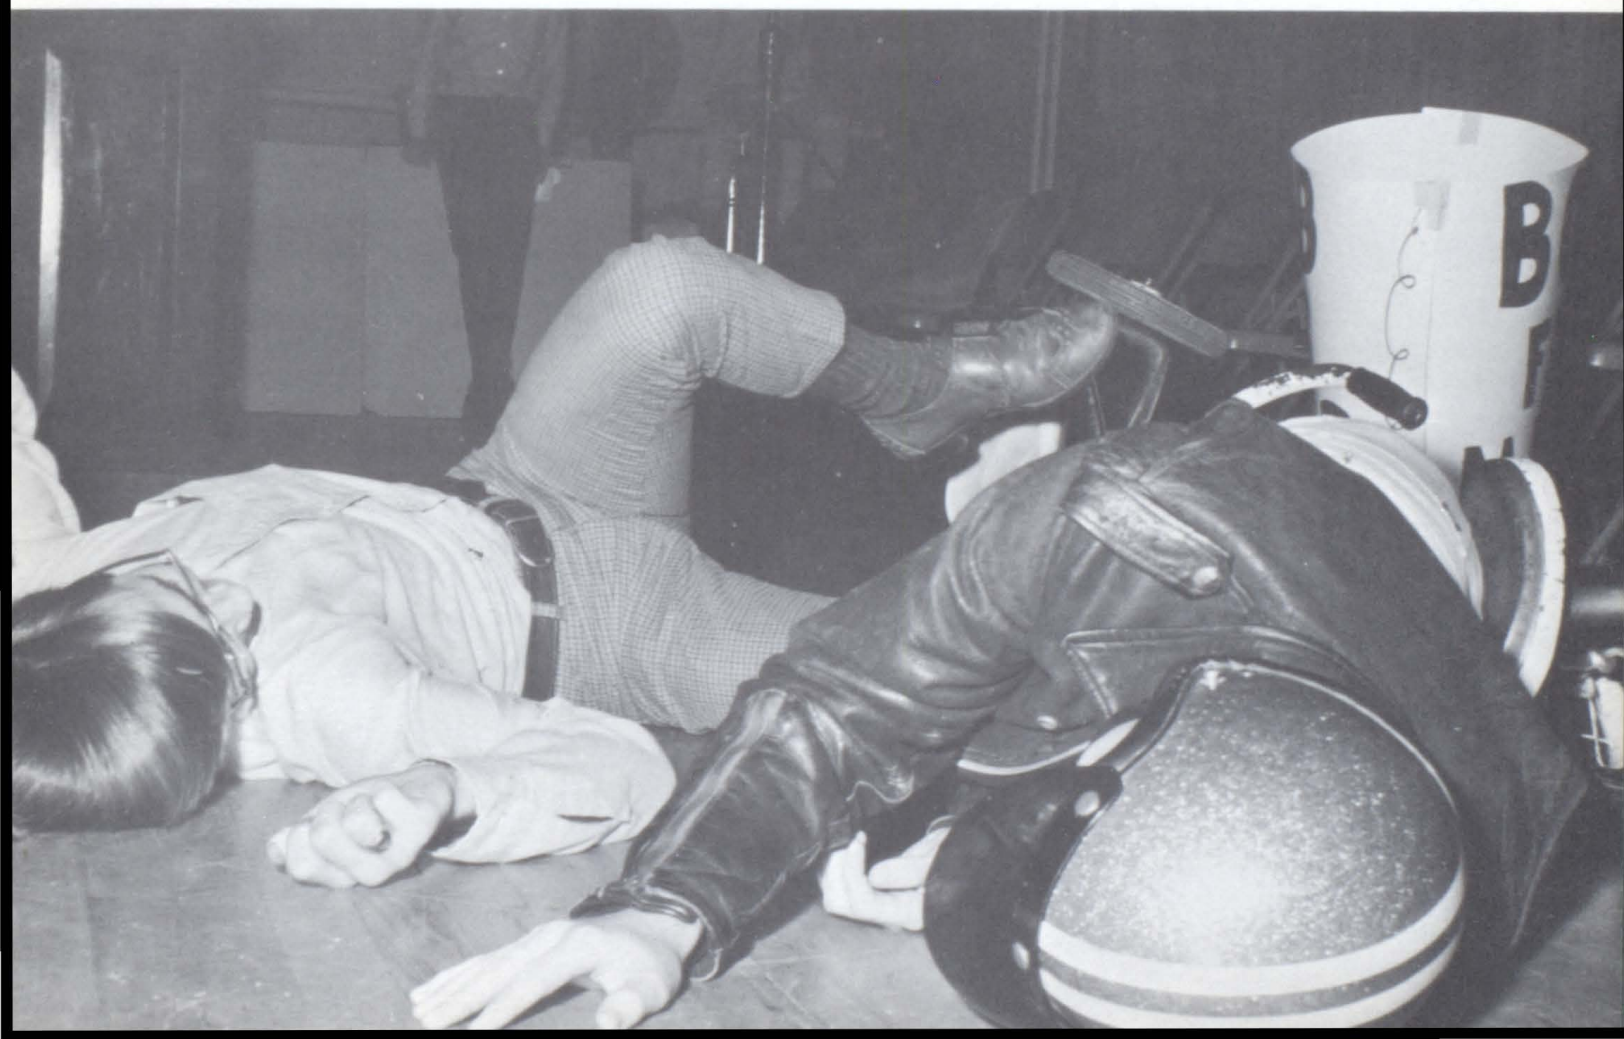

... One perturbed player and a winning team

... A skit, a jug, a dance step and Mike Smith is mayor ... fake violence ... and the promise of real fighting ...

... dead or alive? ... "Come Together" ... songs of peace...

... Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid ... Easy Rider
... Midnight Cowboy ... Me, Natalie ... Sterile Cuckoo

. . . are you planning to catch that in your mouth, Godfrey? . . .

... all together now ... yeah team ...

and Gorham classrooms hash it ...

... meanwhile a staff tries to piece it all together ...

... Black Panthers ... violence ... "We want the same things King wanted. Our tactics are different"... January 15 ...

Martin Luther King Day ...
a provocative assembly ...
an outstanding man ...
"I have a dream" ...

... turning to affairs of Maine ... our own TV setup ...

... student revolutionists ... far away
from our small existence? ...

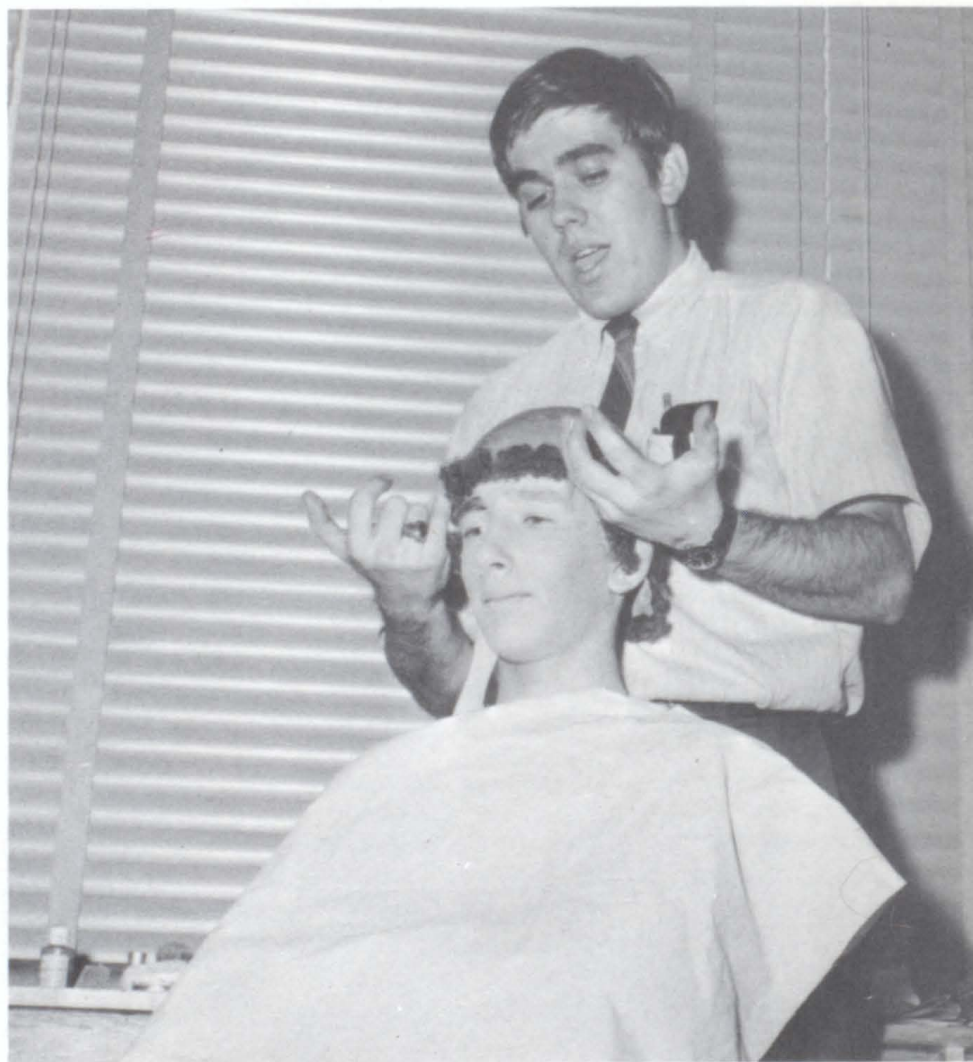

... the Chicago 7 ... and the rest of the country ...

... February ... Valentine's Day ... and love ... and marriage for Miss Urquhart and Mr. Colburn ...

huh, Mr. Dugas ...

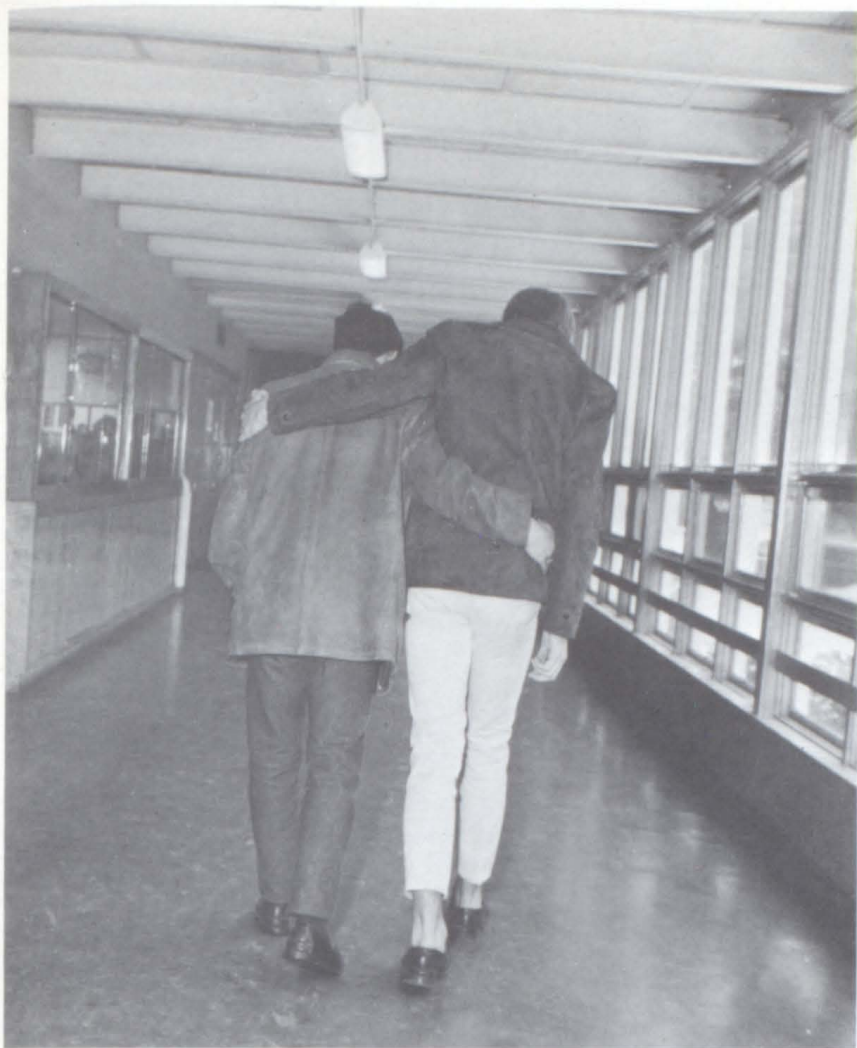

Busy people . . . people with promise . . .

. . . producing effects . . . of new lockers . . . and a glorious prom . . .

. . . while others watch with mixed emotions. . .

And then it's June . . . the end of a year . . . the promise of new friends, new hopes, new plans, . . .

. . . a beginning . . .
