Yearbook Staff

Although the yearbook committee got off to a rough start, we really pulled together to create an amazing yearbook for you. We hope that through these pictures, we were able to capture your memories of 2003-2004 at Gorham High School.

I would like to thank Mr. Wojtal and Mrs. Cuffey for agreeing to be our advisors, and all of the members of the yearbook staff for all their help. This yearbook could never have been done without your determination and commitment.

Teacher Dedication

---

Fred Adams

" All my students are my favorite, I try to spoil you all " -Mr. Adams

---

This year the yearbook is dedicated to one of the most inspirational science teachers ever known. His joyful personality put a smile on every person's face. He taught many students that science is not only an asset but also is a delight. Whether it was listening to lectures or working on projects, Mr. Adams made it more interesting. No matter what kind of day it was you knew that when you got to his class you would leave with a grin. Mr. Adams is not your ordinary science teacher, he will show up to class with his newest experiment and tell you how it works. He will make sure you understand the concept of projects that we do. During his 45 minute class you learn something new and exciting everyday. Even if he was having the worst day, he makes sure that he has his gracious smile on.

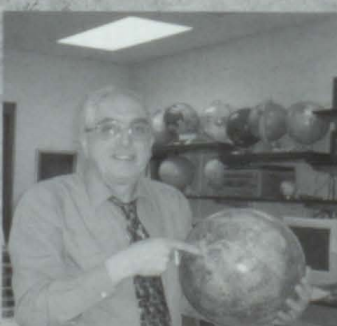

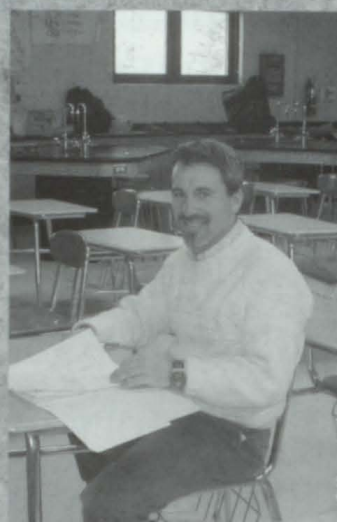

This teacher has taught at Gorham High School for five years. Since then we have known him as the most heartfelt teacher ever in the history of our school. Whenever his wife made those cookies for the holiday parties, Mr. Adams would donate many goodies to decorate them with, even though he told us to bring stuff in ourselves.

He is the most deserving teacher for this dedication because of his sincerity with both students and faculty. It is an honor to present this dedication in the 2004 yearbook to the smart, kind, caring Mr. Adams

We love you Mr. Adams!

Sandra Colburn

Sandra Colburn

Sandra Colburn has taught Biology at Gorham High School for 39 years. She started her teaching career at Gorham fresh out of college. Mrs. Colburn has instilled in her students not only the knowledge of biology, but also a love for science. Several of her former students have continued on to major in the biological sciences in college and follow career paths in the field of science and education. Mrs. Colburn served several years as the Science Department head and has played an active role in the Gorham Teachers Association. Mrs. Colburn's contributions will be sorely missed at Gorham High School. We wish her only the best as she now gets to spend more of her time with her two grown children and, especially, her grandchildren.

Chuck Peters

Jean Davis

In the 30+ years Mrs. Davis has taught at Gorham High School, many things have changed: clothing styles, music styles and even the building layout. One thing that has remained consistent, however, is the superior quality of her teaching. Mrs. Davis has been a true professional, totally devoted to her job. She maintained high standards in her classroom and willingly invested time before, during, and after school to help her students succeed. She is a teacher who cared and who has positively impacted the lives of many of her students. Best wishes for an enjoyable and well earned retirement, Mrs. Davis.

Pam Daniels

Charlie Sendzik

Mr. Charlie Sendzik is retiring after 36 years at Gorham High School. He has touched the lives of literally thousands of students, teachers, administrators, and parents along the way. Mr. Sendzik's professionalism, knowledge, and friendship will be irreplaceable as will his uncanny ability to forecast a snow day several days in advance. It is truly amazing how he continues to bring such an enthusiasm for teaching into the classroom each and every day. Mr. Sendzik will be dearly missed by the Gorham school community. We all wish him and his family the best. Enjoy your retirement!

Tim King

Cindy Smith

Cindy Smith leaves us as more than just a colleague. She brought to Gorham High School her talents as an artist, her passion for her profession, and high expectations for all students. Cindy's classroom has consistently produced art of the highest quality as evidenced by the many displays of student talent throughout the school and the awards won by many of her students at the local and state levels. Her cares and concerns about everyday life at GHS has shown her to be a professional in every way. A Russell Chair recipient, successful track coach, and Senior Olympian, Cindy brought to our staff and the Art Department integrity at its highest level...a great reflection of a great lady.

Ray Mathieu

Jim Silcox

Many remember Mr. Silcox as a principal at the middle school, as an advisor for the yearbook, in homeroom or on endless duty. Professionally, always current on educational methods, he was an advocate for cooperative learning and integrated learning before they were in vogue. He has taught both science and math for many years in the Gorham system at the middle school and at the high school. He has represented the teachers, schools, and his students on many, many committees over the years. Those students who were fortunate to have had him as a teacher know that he loves to help people learn, to explore and ultimately to define their own knowledge. His style was laid back, but his expectations were high; be responsible for your own learning, ask questions and think. Gorham students have discovered math concepts for years in Mr. Silcox's classroom. He believes students need to "do" math to understand. The activities in his room involve measuring and constructing, drawing and analyzing. He has encouraged hundreds of students to do their best and get involved in their learning. Learning is not a spectator sport in Mr. Silcox's classroom.

Robert Bond

"A man who takes away another man's freedom is a prisoner of hatred, he is locked behind the bars of prejudice and narrow-mindedness. -- The oppressed and the oppressor alike are robbed of their humanity." - Nelson Mandela

Judge each person you meet as an individual and an equal that way you will not limit the possibilities for friendship and learning. Treating everyone with respect is what is good for you. The fact that it is good for others is life's greatest bonus.

"It is amazing what you can accomplish if you do not care who gets the credit."
- Harry Truman

Work for what you believe in because it is your passion and it is right.

To the class of 2004:

Your charm and good nature make you truly special. As a group you have been a delight to know and an honor to teach. I wish you all the best - it is what you will most assurdly earn.

Take care,

Class History of 2004

"Never let the future disturb you. You will meet it, if you have to, with the same weapons of reason which today arm you against the present." -Marcus Aurelius

We, the Class of 2004, take a long, hard look at our past, and realize that our final year at Gorham High School is approaching its end. Now we must follow our own path, and see where it leads us. It has been long, but now we are at our journey's end, only to be left with a larger one ahead of us. Though we may leave this high school with a sigh of relief or an exulting laugh, we will never forget the memories that we have all shared here: the pep rallies, the dances, our teachers, our friends, and the experiences that will follow us for the rest of our lives. This is not the end, it is the beginning.

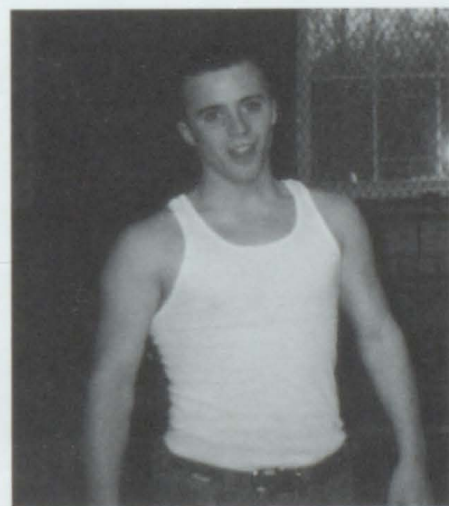

Help! It's the MEA's! No wait! It's the MEA's, the SAT's, the British Author Paper, the I-Search, Henry David Thoreau, and our Driving Test!!! Ah good times... or not. It is a nice feeling to have them done and over with, though we weren't thinking about that when we were forced to do those assignments.

Charles C. Shaw Middle School. Getting used to an eight period day, different teachers every hour, and no recess made junior high school most unbearable - but that was the way it was going to be, and we adapted. We said goodbye to Shaw School our eighth grade year, and waved farewell to the chipping paint, leaking ceiling tiles and glue sticks pegged horizontally to the walls.

Now here we are, the diploma is finally ours, all four years crammed into that small paper. We go our separate ways now, either to more schooling or straight into the working world - it does not matter which one we chose, because our memories of Gorham High School will be with us for the rest of our lives.

-James Hebert

Well Seniors, we have finally made it. I just want to recognize those who have helped me get through these past four years. Dee, no matter what happens after graduation, you will always be my best friend. Chantelle, I will miss having breakfast with you every morning. Christina, we will always have shot put. Jody, if you ever need a ride, give me a call. Justin, you still give the best hugs. Mom, you have seen me through everything and I will always love you no matter what happens in our crazy lives.

Thanks to all the people who have been here and have supported me throughout high school. Thanks for understanding that I'm misunderstood, or that I am - understood that is. If I felt at all inclined I would write about people who were important to me, but you know who you are. It's been nice. "Dude, that alien thing is stupid."

I love you all so much and you're all going to be missed while I'm down at BMT. It has been a very wild life time since I've been in gorham. I remember a good number of you all, k-12. Those memories are going to stick with me forever. No matter where I'm headed, whether I'm fixing F-15s, shipped off across seas to fight for our rights and freedoms, or whether I'm getting myself through ROTC, I'll remember where I came from. That's right! Go Rams! I hope your happy. I used up a whole line just to type that. But I think that it's well justified. Well, while I am at basic, I'd love you folks to write me. Other than that I leave you with the best of wishes and good luck, Whatever you do. Be safe. Bye :-)

This is where I, a senior, one who has ventured into the gauntlet of the Gorham school system, and came out alive, says something that is supposed to be helpful. I really can't sit here and say what will be helpful to you, but I can say that your time here is yours', it's your time to define yourself. I'm not saying "Get good grades or the rest of your life will be horrible", I'm saying that this time should be spent making yourself as a person. Don't be hindered by social stigma and feel you're not going to be important, become something don't just do something.

What do you do on Sunday afternoons? I asked. She sat on her porch. The boys went by on bicycles and stopped to chat. What do you do on warm summers night. She sat on the porch. She watched the cars in the road. She and her mother made popcorn. What does your brother do on a summers night? He rides around on his bicycle, he hangs out in front of the soda fountain. What is he aching to do, what are we all aching to do what do we want? She didn't know. She yawned. She was sleepy and it was too much. Nobody would tell Nobody would ever tell. It was all over. She was 18 and most lovely and lost.

Timothy Mason-Osann

Hi my name is Tim Mason-Osann. Some people call me T.G. Liam for fun. On the weekend I like to wear tu-tu's. Once I drank a bottle of dirt water. Right after I ate gum off the bottoms of the seats in the auditorium. I got sauce in my eye and was rushed to the hospital. I love pepperoni on pizza. Dude, where's my car? I am a true Zealandmanfan. "Chris quit hogging the fan!" "Yeah, well, quit hogging all the ugly!" So one day I tan out into the street with these flesh-eating weasels all over my face waving my arms all around and just running like a constipated weiner dog. As luck would have it that's exactly when I ran into the girl of my dreams. Ten, going to ask Becky out Friday? Cecelia wat to go. When the shirt hits the fan.

Dear reader,

One of the few things that means the most to me in my life, currently and probably always will, is school, "my full-time job" (-Dad).

School, my home away from home. The home I wanted to run away from so many times. To dogmatic faculty, impertinent students, perfidious work ethics, and lame excuses; I just wanted to inform you that you did teach me something: how to do it better!

To Dad, Kathy, Ben, Derek, Mom, friends, fam, ARA staff, WRVC, and Ick* especially: Thank-you for putting a lil' light in my life.

Love, Diana

"For I dipt into the future, far as the human eye could see, saw the Vision of the World, and all the wonder that could be." Now that all is said and done, I must say my last 18 years in Gorham have been prosperous, meaningful, and interesting. Now is the time I leave and start a new life, a life where I have learned from the regrets from my years here. Mom and Papa; thanks for your love and guidance. My friends may you all live long and prosper. MJ, I shall remember you as the caring person you really are. Abner and Charlie, you are the best pets. My Jeep is the best vehicle ever!

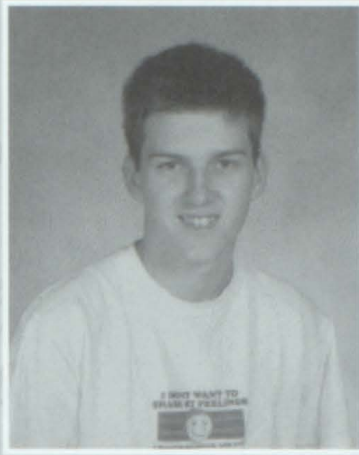

Kristin E. Slipp

Thanks and love to everyone who made these years special. The fam: your unyielding devotion and sacrifices are never forgotten.

"There is never any end. There are always new sounds to imagine; new feelings to get at. And always, there is the need to keep purifying these feelings and sounds so that we can really see what we've discovered in its pure state. So that we can see more and more clearly what we are. In that way, we can give to those who listen the essence, the best of what we are. But to do that at each stage, we have to keep on cleaning the mirror." (John Coltrane)

There is no right or wrong theres only popular opinion. Conscience is the f ear that someone is watching. Every year I feel I've changed a lot. Everything is in an unending state of change. But so far I've learned that comfort is of extreme importance. One must be comfortable with oneself and not wallow in self-pity or self-loathing that stems from the pressures & expectations of others. All that matters is one's own thoughts & opinions. Knowing this makes it easier to live life contentedly. emotions blind logic. To rule your emotions can help you to maintain a constant state of reason, but is not worth it as I have learned. 'Tis better to let logic go at times and allow yourse lf to feel, to fall in love.

The past 4 years have been hard at times and easy at times. The easy part usually takes place in summer vacation. There are many people I'd like to thank and such, but I will narrow it down to a select few. Katie Brown- thanks for keeping my head above water, I love you. Joe Cerny- there are way to many memories to list, I can't remember them all. Nate Doyle- Thanks for going to shows with me and creating positive memories. To all the other guys and girls that I consider friends thanks for being rad. Thanks to my family and Calvin the dog. "so often we let our dreams fall away, but not this time"

Boys Volleyball

Boys Volleyball took a hard hit this year by losing nine seniors and a coach from last season. However, soon before the season was to start we gained a new coach, Greg Hoerr, and three seniors, who were major contributors to the team. Led by junior captain Tom Pike and senior captain Mike Maniscalco, the Rams went out fighting this season by winning their last two matches in the end of the year Penkerton Tournament. With many new faces to volleyball, Gorham is in store for much improvement and dedication for seasons to come.

Girls Volleyball

Photos provided by Martha Harris

The Lady Rams had an outstanding year, ending the regular season with a record of 12-2. We had a high of beating the undefeated Woodland team, which helped set up our improbable march past Calais in the post season. Everyone has really come together and played as a team this season and the senior captains wish the underclassmen the best of luck as they continue the new tradition of Gorham Volleyball next season.

Fall Cheering

This season has been a lot of fun for us. We have a great new coach and the teams have done an awesome job. Throughout the season we cheered for field hockey, girls and boys soccer and football. All of the teams have had excellent seasons. Our squad had the opportunity to introduce news segments and even show some of our material. We're looking forward to a great competition season with our new coach! We hope that we will get the same support from the fans in our winter season.

19000 Cross Country

The Cross Country Team had an "enjoyable" and successful season. Both teams placed well during the regular season meets. Everyone worked hard during practices to improve their times. Sarah Popovics and Isaac Worrall moved onto the state meet. Team dinners and the CAMPOUT added to the extreme level of fun we had this season.

Varsity Boys Soccer

The Boys team had a great season this year finishing 8-5-1 and finishing third in the conference. We started the season going 1-4-1, and then finished the season going 7-1. That included a 4 game winning streak against teams ranked above us, Freeport, Wells, Greely, and Yarmouth. We finished the season with a victory at Yarmouth and ended our postseason with a tough loss to Yarmouth in the play-offs. This was one of the best years Gorham soccer has seen, not only on the field, but off the field as well. We thank Coach King, Coach Bond, and Coach Benjamin for an excellent season.

Varsity Girls Soccer

Gorham girls soccer had a great season, with an 8-6 record. Highlights of the season were beating Falmouth, Cape Elizabeth and winning the Westbrook tournament. Good memories are team dinners at Ashley's, Kate's and Courtney's and having Smarties before every game. We overcame numerous injuries on the team to come out fifth in the playoffs. Thank you to our seniors who got us through the year. To our underclassmen: we look forward to an awesome season next year!

Varsity Field Hockey

The Gorham Field Hockey team had another fun and successful year, finishing the regular season with a record of 12-1-1, their only loss suffered to the state champion. Under head coach Amber Hatch and assistant Becky Mason, the team continued many of their traditions and started some new ones. Some highlights of the season included a pre-season canoeing trip and campout, an exciting season opener against Greely, and a strong finish to the season at Cape, breaking the curse the field had held for years. The team gained momentum as it went into tournament defeating Lake Region 4-1 in the quarterfinals before being upset by York 2-1. The seniors would like to thank the coaches for everything they have done, and wish the girls good luck next year, we love you! SHINE!

Football

What time is it? Game Time! The Rams football team had a great season. A lot of hard work went into this season from two-a-days during the summer to the fine tuning in pregame practices. Through all the hard work, this season would not have been possible without the determination and support of our coaches, parents, and fans. We thank you for supporting us through the thick and thin of our 2003 season. RESPECT ALL FEAR NONE.

Golf

The Gorham Golf team had a great year. We had a 6-3 record, and finished 10th in the state for teams in Class A. This was a big step for our team because this was the first time that this team had been involved in this kind of match. We also had two individuals place among the top 15 players in the state at the individual state championship. In our first match of the year, playing against OOB, we set a team record at an away course shooting a team 189. We had an old team this year consisting of 6 seniors.

Winter Cheering

The 2004 winter cheerleading season was the most motivating in the history of cheering at Gorham High School. Not only did we gain a terrific coach, we also achieved the Western Maine runner-up position and the State competition runner-up position. Our coach taught us to work together, and show the best qualities of our talent to the public. We proved to ourselves that we could make the season the best that it could be. We accomplished our goals and the squad has grown closer together. Losing four seniors will be tough, but Gorham cheering will always be ready for what the next year brings.

Varsity Boys Basketball

The Gorham Boys Basketball team had an amazing year entering the playoffs with a record of 16-2 and third in the final standings. They ended the regular season by defeating their rivals, Falmouth, and avenging an earlier loss. Defeating Fryburg in the quarter-finals, the team then beat Mountain Valley in a re-match of last year's semi-finals. In the Western Maine Championship the team knocked off an overtime win to clinch Gorham's fourth Western Maine Tournament in five years. The state championship game will be an exciting battle against a very tough Erskine Academy team. The players would like to thank the coaches and community for their support and wish to congratulate Mr. Jenkins on over 300 wins and his 20th year of coaching.

Varsity Girls Basketball

The Gorham Girls Basketball team has had an excellent season, led by seniors Jen Willis, Eileen Jenkins, Emily Beagle, Elizabeth Beagle, Debi Drown, Laura Popovics, Lindsay Dearborn and our manager, Lydia Willis. Continued dedication and teamwork has brought us to the stunning record of 16-5. We were the Western Maine runners up and the proud recipients of the distinguished Sportsmanship Award. We would like to thank the community and our coaches for their ongoing motivation and support.

Boys Indoor Track

Led by captains Dave Baker, Andrew Loveitt, Tyson Nason and Jimmy Sawyer the Boys Indoor Track team capped off an undefeated regular season by claiming both the Western Maine and State Class B Championship titles. The team will be losing eight seniors this year but have demonstrated great depth in all areas and should remain State Contenders for years to come.

Girls Indoor Track

The girls track team had a great season, dominating the regular season and claiming the State Class B runner-up position. The team was led by their senior captains Laura Carlson, Ashley Freeman, Christina McKinney, Abby Difazio, and Melissa Giroux. We would like to thank our many fans for coming to the meets and supporting the athletes.

Girls Ice Hockey

This years girls hockey team has come leaps and bounds. Due to the number of players, there was an A and B team formed. The A team finished with a regular season of 5-7-3, while the B team finished undefeated! This years seniors are the last of the original players when the team started their freshman year. They will be greatly missed and have brought the team far. A special thanks goes out to our volunteer coaches Dan Wallach, Mike Mayo, Nat Germond, Jeanna Leclerc and Gary Webber. Great season girls.

Skiing

This was a year of firsts for Gorham skiing; the boys had a full team to compete with and it was the debut season for the Gorham Girls Ski Team. With help from the first ever Gorham ski coach, Rick Tole, the team had many great finishes throughout the season. We would like to thank the few dedicated fans that braved the bitter cold and long drive to support us and we hope that there will be a continued interest in Gorham skiing for years to come.

Parent Messages

Ian Stuart

Ian, Watching you grow has been watching a fledgling hawk learn to fly over a swift river, then seeing you soar into the clouds. We are so very proud of your flight. Souls are one day tender, one day tough; just like you, just like your parents, just like life. Remember; build your house on a strong foundation and it will never fall. We love you. Mom, Dad, Char, and of course, Calvin the dog.

And a man said, Speak to us of Self-Knowledge. And he answered, saying:

Say not "I have found the truth," but rather, "I have found a truth." Say not, "I have found the path of the soul." Say rather, "I have met a soul walking upon my path." For the soul walks upon all paths. The soul walks not upon a line, neither does it grow like a reed.

The soul unfolds itself, like a lotus of countless petals.

From: The Prophet, by Kahlil Gibran

Our Wishes for you:

We wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright
We wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun

We wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive and well
We wish you enough struggles to appreciate the joys in life

We hope you travel enough to appreciate the comfort and love waiting for you at home

We hope you will always remember that God is on your side, give your hardest struggles to him and he will guide you.

Don't ever lose your faith in God or mankind

Remember - you can ALWAYS come home to our loving arms.

We are so proud of the person you are.
We look forward to seeing all the future holds for you.
Don't forget "you get what you give"

you have given us great joy!
Love - Mom, Dad & Madi

Casey - You are my sunshine!

I love you forever; I like you for always
As long as I'm living my baby you'll be.

You are my best friend - Mom

Diana Richardson

Dearest Diana,

My how the years have flown and how you've blossomed into the beautiful young woman that you've become. I just want you to know how very proud of you that I am! You have always been energetic and independent and now have to choose the path to your future. You have always been dedicated and loyal to both school and work, qualities that I've always admired. You have had to deal with some adversity, but were a real trooper! You have worked hard to get to where you are and now everything will fall into place and help you to move forward toward your goal. I also want to recognize you for your achievements with DECA. You really shined here! Your brother Derek and I want to congratulate you on your upcoming graduation and wish you well on your future path to success. We love you very much and wish only the best for you. Derek and I will always be here to give you both love and support. Auntie Sheila & Uncle Richard also send their love and wish you the best in the future.
Love, Mom & Derek :)

Oh, the Places You'll Go!
Excerpt from the book by Dr. Suess

Congratulations!
Today is your day.

You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away.

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

Andrew,

We are so proud of the person that you have become and of the accomplishments you have made. Whatever path you choose and decisions you make, we will be your biggest supporters.

Never lose sight of your goals, follow your heart and ALWAYS keep your sense of humor.

We love you!

Mom & Ron, Dad & Debbie and Kate & Shawn

Joshua Wing

Josh,

The "growing up" years have been filled with so many good times- summers at camp with family playing volleyball, swimming, tubing, waterskiing, and hours of playing "63". Also the many years of watching you play rec sports- soccer, basketball, baseball...

When you set your mind on a goal, you really worked hard for it!! Remember your first new bike, and then your dirt bike, your four wheelers and finally, your truck. We are so proud that you worked so hard toward your goals!

There are so many fond memories of playing board games, pass in the backyard, and reading books together (with Mom). Dad remembers helping to coach your teams and all the hours on the slopes with you and Seth.

Our family has so many memories of wonderful times with you. Always keep your smile and your sense of humor. Remember that we love you and are so very proud of you always. Look forward to your future of great things!

Mom, Dad, and Seth

David Baker

David,

What a delight it's been to watch your growth over these 17 years. Although some interests have changed, your creative passion, quiet determination, and integrity have remained constant. You realized your hard work led to mastery... Zelda, academics, hurdles, composing... anything. Keep taking risks and let others get to know what a great guy you are.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Joss

Daniel Gniadek

Dan,

Congratulations on all you've accomplished. We are so proud of you! As you start this new chapter in your life, remember to follow your dreams and shoot for the stars! May you always shine brightly! We love you very much and will always be there for you!

Love, Mom and Steve

Courtney Clark

Courtney,

Congratulations! I am so very proud of you. May the future bring you only the best in all that you do!

Much love, Dad

Kayla Barstow

To Kayla,

Congratulations on completing one chapter of your life and beginning another. We are very proud of your accomplishments and love you for who you are, and who you will become. Always know that in good and bad times, your family is always there for you.

Eric Allan Day

Eric

Congratulations! You did it. We could not have asked for a better son than you. You make us very proud. You have grown into a wonderful young man with a warm smile and witty sense of humor. You can do anything you set your mind to. Pursue your dreams, turn them into reality, and enjoy life in whatever venture you choose. You will succeed! Remember- We will always be here for you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Ashley Freeman

To our Sunshine,

It's hard to believe you have come so far. You have kept us so busy. Your world is just beginning, grab it and make the best of it. You deserve everything you get.

You are a great girl and a wonderful person. We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Believe in yourself. Be true to yourself.

Love always, Mom & Dad

Ashley Amber Freeman

Daughter, sister, scholar, athlete, pride of the family, occasional pain in the butt, oldest of several grandchildren and setting a high mark of achievement for the others to aim for. Will be a great asset to any college or university she decides to attend. But I am still hoping for one of the military academies.

Best in the future Babes.

Love, Gramps

Ashley,

Congratulations- you did it! The best of luck with all your future plans.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Today is your day!
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!

Diana,

We are so proud of you! You have grown so much over the past year into a beautiful, confident, strong, determined, amazing young woman. We know you will succeed no matter what path you take because you never give up.

Don't ever let anyone tell you that you can't!
Focus on your goals and take one step toward them every day.
There is no set path, just follow your heart.
Always be yourself and it will serve you well.
Remember, we are always here for you, cheering you on.
Don't forget- "Do Your Job!"

And if the sun doesn't shine, wear a red hat!

Love, Gram

Diana,

You have done nothing but shock me and the rest of the world with your imagination and creativeness. You are not afraid to express your opinions and thoughts. Don't ever lose that. Your words and actions are going to take you where you want to go. I hope that I can be there with you while you do it. you've been there for me so I want to be there for you. You've got a beautiful outlook on life and a personality to match. Your smile and glow make anybody's mood change instantly. We have memories together I wouldn't trade for the world, because you are the world to me.

Love Derick (aka Ick)

Brian and Philip Schools

Dear Brian and Phil,

Wow, has it been 18 years already? It seems like yesterday that we brought you home from the hospital. The two of you have always kept us on our toes, we would not change a thing. We have enjoyed watching you grow up. Two peas in a pod, but ooooh, so different. We are very proud of the fine young men you have become, and of your accomplishments in academics and baseball, but more importantly, your accomplishments in life. May you continue to achieve your dreams and goals throughout your lives. Be happy wherever or whatever you do. Remember you are loved, and we are here to help guide you in whatever you do.

Imagine there is life after twins.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Bethany...

You may not know all that the world has to offer...
but we know that the world will be a better place because of what you have to offer it.

You may not know which path
you should follow... but we know that you will listen to your own heart, for it will never lie.

You may question what you have already accomplished... but we know you will never doubt what you can do.

As all of your tomorrows
open themselves to you, never forget how proud we are of you

and how much we love you...

Mary-Cecelia Michaud

Mary-Cecelia you have always been our special flower in the garden of life, and it's a joy to see what a lovely lady you have blossomed into. You are also our Fussy Little Princess living in an imperfect world, but like Miss Rumphius you have already made the world more beautiful(or should we say pulchritudinous)? You have a winning smile (bonus' of giggles and dimples) a wonderful sense of humor, a great fascination for words, a love of nature and kindness to animals, great work ethics, and you take your responsibilities seriously.

May you continue to make the world a more beautiful place to live, and NEVER forget Philippians 4:13 and ALWAYS remember #13. Oops! or is it #30? We're so very proud of you, and will love you always.

Melissa Bailey

Mel:

It seems like only yesterday I was watching you get on the bus for the first time. It was difficult to watch you from the outside as you looked for a seat. I wanted to help then, and I have continued to want to help for the 12 years since then. Of course we both know, you didn't want help... you wanted to do things your way. There's just a bit of independence flowing through your blood!

I'm proud of you for reaching this major milestone in life... and I love you. Remember, I'll always be there to throw you a life-line whenever you need me.

Where have the years gone? It seems like just yesterday you were running and playing and asking "Daddy, when do I start school?" Now look at you!

You have grown into such a beautiful young lady, with a generous heart and a strong sense of who you are. We are so PROUD of you.

Love,

Dad, Jackie, Alyson,
Ben, Onyx & Millie

Emma Wojtal

Emma- From the moment you arrived, eyes wide open, you were always curious, lively, and willing to embrace the world. The Snuggli was not for you, as you could not see around you, and that would not do. A scientist's instinct from the first.

In Gym and Swim, Mom had to hold on tight to keep you from plunging into the water, despite the fact that you could not yet swim. At three, swearing "I don't like fimadum" and urging the car in front of us to "Get a move- on buddy" (a harbinger of future driving habits?) you were so definite about everything. Your career choice was "helicopter washer." (We lived near the airport.) From your first day at nursery school, armed with PP&F, through Girl Scouts, riding, plays and dance competitions, it has all gone by in a flash. How did that happen? How did the minutes and hours and days turn into years? How did we get older too? We are in awe of you and your abilities. You will be exceptional wherever you go and whatever you do. You already are. All our love forever, Mom, Dad and Andrew

Jen Willis

Your every step has been our joyous adventure.
Watching you grow and bloom has been a gift.

We love your smile, your passion and your caring.

James Patterson

The past 18 years have flown by faster than you by us on the slopes. In that time, we have come to love and respect the man you have become. As life hands you challenges, we are sure you will ride through them like the jump you soar over on your bike. Remember to share your talents with others and keep your eyes on the horizon: it will come at you faster than you ever imagined.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Sally

Tyler Spiller

Tye,

To our baby boy. How does one describe the impact you have had on our lives for the past 18 years. You have brought every possible emotion out of all who have loved you. When you were young, you brought total frustration to your brothers. They didn't have one moment of peace. You bugged poor Dustin to the brink of insanity! How boring their lives would have been. And now they have so much respect for you, as we all do. Your caring heart and compassion goes out to all who need it.

Your talents have not been seen by many, for they have not had the opportunity to witness all you can do, as we have. Strive to achieve confidence and the world will be at your feet. We are all blessed for having shared this part of your life.

Forever our baby Tye Tye,

Love,

I've Watched You Grow

From the Moment they told me I was having a child, I was excited, happy and proud.

The days went by quickly and before I knew it they placed you in my arms. Would I know what to do, would I make the right choices to carry you through? The nerves of having my first child.

It didn't matter at all if I knew what to do, the love that I felt would carry me through.

That love that I speak of between a mother and a child, there's no bond stronger for any to find.

That love has been tested there is no doubt in that. Through it all we have grown closer and stronger in many ways.

I am so proud of you each and every day. Your choices are many and God only knows.

My prayers are daily for you and have been for years "please lord be with her in every way she needs, guide her, protect her in choices she must make."

My baby is now a young lady you see and her choices are hers now and she's on the way. I did what I was to do until now love her and guide her until this day.

Doesn't stop there oh believe me NO NO the love will continue till my dying day. The love only grows stronger because of my pride in you.

You have come along way and through more than most. Shannon you are my first child, my daughter but above more than that you are my BEST FRIEND I love you for that.

That bond of love that I spoke of at first is full and over flowing and ready to burst. You did it you made it now what to do? Ask God for guidance he'll know what to do he's brought you this far believe me it's true. Without him I would have never known the wisdom the knowledge of what to do with this gift that he gave me 18 years ago that would be you.

I love you! Mom

Mom & Dad

Amanda Burek

Amanda, watching you grow throughout the years has been a joy to us. Your positive attitude and your drive to be your best and be yourself has made us very proud. Follow your dreams and continue to enjoy life.

Congratulations, Amanda!

Love, Mom, Dad & Sarah

Nichole Thomas

Nick,

You swept into our lives without a moments warning. What to do... I hope we brought something meaningful to your life. You did learn to share...somewhat. And we learned from you. We have enjoyed the experience of having a girl around and the boys have learned how to love and hate a little sister. You've given us worry, stress, laughs, and love in the past couple of years. Isn't that what families do? Keep writing. It shows what's truly in your heart. You have a big one. Let it shine through. You and Riley will always hold a special place in our Hearts, Memories and Family.

Forever with love,

M&D Spiller and The Spiller Boys

Benjamin Shepard

Ben, where did the time go? We are so proud of the young man you've become. You are kind, compassionate, extremely intelligent, and have a wonderful sense of humor. We know that you will become a successful architect because you have always had a passion for designing. When you were growing up, the kids in the neighborhood would be out playing, but you would be inside hard at work creating a whole city in the basement. We know that you will succeed in life because of your hard work, integrity, and talent. You have been the perfect child and we are proud and fortunate to have grown with you. Remember that we will always be here for you.

Love you always, Mom & Dad

Emery Sawyer

CONGRATULATIONS, EMERY! We are so very proud of you. We wish happiness, success and all the best for you as you continue on your life journey. May you believe in yourself and follow your dreams.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Ashlee and Jenna

Michael Maniscalco

Michael,
Twenty years from now, you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover. -Mark Twain
Congratulations. Always believe in yourself. Life is what you make it. All our love, Mom, Dad, Jon & Leigh

Courtney Neelon

Dearest Courtney,
There are no words to tell you how much we love you. You have grown into a beautiful and loving young lady. We could not be more proud of you and all you have brought to our lives. Though we are sad to see this chapter come to a close, we are excited for the new adventures that await you. Always believe in yourself and dare to experience life. No matter where you go or what you do, you have our love and support. Remember to keep that incredible sense of humor - it will make your journey that much more fun!

Love you always,
Mom, Dad and Corey

P.S. Don't ever forget who was your best dance partner ever!

Katy Leeper

Katy,

The time has come for which you have waited so long. While the wait may have felt like an eternity, for us, it has come and gone in a flash and a blur.

The past years have been filled with wonderful things...dolls and dollhouses, candles and crayons, friends and sleepovers, late night projects, puppies, kittens and all creatures great and small. The years ahead are also filled with wonderful things. As your parents, we wish you: Health... to allow you to enjoy what the future holds. Happiness... to keep your spirit alive. Success... to make you proud.

And finally, we wish that you may come to know the love and joy of having a daughter such as you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Ashlee Rogers

To my Ash-Pittily-Pie!

Wow 18 already! Where did the time go? I'm so proud you made it!! I just don't know where to begin, Let's see..... It can only get better from here, you have a whole life in front of you, you can be, or do anything you want, the sky's the limit!

I just want you to know how much you truly light up my life, I am so lucky to have a daughter, who considers me a friend, as well as a Mom! You have always listened to my advice, took it sometimes... and sometimes, NOT.... But you have always been a wonderful kid, you haven't given me an ounce of trouble, Thank you for that!!

Think of all the fun we have had together.... Like the time I really messed up your hair with that bad dye job we tried to do, you had to miss a day from school, cause it came out so bad!! That was kind of fun!!! (Again I'm really sorry about that) And what about all the times at camp, for Christmas and Thanksgiving... That was fun, And when you were little, we would go to Story Land, and put you on that Carousel and you would get dizzy and couldn't stand for a few minutes, I think that thing did about 30 MPH!!!! More fun. And when we would have supper with Great Papa, every Saturday before he died, His favorite was (Sheep Herders Pie!!!) Shepard's Pie, to most of us! How about when I do the "Silly Dance" for you? And you tell me how weird I am? (Ok, that's not fun for you, but I like it!) Last but not least, you probably thought i wouldn't mention this, but, i have to.... The Grand Funk Railroad Dance??????? That was fun too!!!!!! ( I think you should perform this at your Graduation:-)

We are all so proud of you, you will never know! We love you Ash....

Mom and Dad

Out of The Nest By Hope Rogers

The birth of a daughter,
Is a joy to behold....

I said I'd raise you
To be beatiful and bold
I said you'd be kind,
Loving and sweet....

Of all of these things,
My aspects you meet...

I said she'll be funny,
Also brave and true...

All of these things dear,
They all, are you...

I said she'll be able to make her own way,
I watch you go stronger, with each passing day...

The day is drawing near,
From my nest you must fly...

And when that day comes, love,
I'll try not to cry...

For you have a spirit, that no one can touch,
And this is why, I love you so much.....
Mom

Ashlee,

You are the greatest daughter anyone could have. Success is when you reach a goal, I've met one of my goals, watching you grow to be a fun, happy and loving girl! I know you will be successful because you want to be! I'm very proud of you and most of all, I love you very much!

Congratulations
Dad

Megan Elizabeth O'Brien

Megan Elizabeth,

It seems like yesterday...

You were digging for worms and chasing frogs, playing Barbies and American dolls, making movies and going on "adventures"

Today...

We are so proud of the caring, compassionate person you have become. Your smile has lit up our lives and you have given us many wonderful memories to cherish. You will have many more adventures, may they all be successful. Live each day to the fullest, always be true to yourself, and always know how much we love you.

It is unbelievable how fast time has gone by. Thinking of the day we brought you home from the hospital to your pending graduation from high school and all the ups and downs in between. You have brought such joy and happiness into our lives, you have made me laugh at myself and the way that you helped us look at your world view. Playing with your food, birthday parties, swimming in Grammy & Papa's pool, dressing up Cody and all our cats so you could play doll. Putting all your "trinkets" in one spot at your grandparents houses and coaxing Meme to play with you in the stream. My heart swelled with pride watching you perform in the ballet recitals and how wonderful and at ease you were with being on stage and gliding across the floor. With each right of passage, there was anxiety yet the knowledge that it was your time to move forward. Bringing you to get your driver's license and watching you drive away, not knowing if you would pass or fail - and as you walked towards us with a blank look and then -- that smile that lights up a room when you walk into it and knowing you accomplished another step towards adulthood. You love to try different things - like riding those wild & crazy amusement park rides (just like your dad) all over New England and Florida, to watching you water-ski and tube over the waves of Sebago Lake behind our boat named after you.

From all these different moments, a lifetime of memories have been created and our hope for more to come.

We are very proud of the young lady you have become. Remember to take charge of your own happiness, choose right over wrong, good over bad, keep your mind open to new insights and thoughts, and lead your life with the highest of integrity and gratitude for all that you have and will receive as well as what you have accomplished on your own.

We wish all the best for you, be safe and remember you will always be a part of us no matter how far away you go. Never forget, how much you are loved.

Congratulations Sweetie
We love you,

"Work like you do not need the money. Dance like no one is watching you. Love like you have never been hurt,"

Dear Amy,

When you were born, we said that you were a gift from God. You continue to be so. As you grew, your sense of independence and your openness to the world, gave us the knowledge that you were intended to do great things. Congratulations as you end this step in your journey with Him and begin a new one that you have done in school, in dance, at church and in your personal life. You are a mature, responsible young woman and we are proud to say to anyone that you are our daughter. God Bless you on your future journey called life and all that you do.

Love, Mom and Dad

My Boo,

"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

You are the best friend I could ever ask for, and you have taught me much more than I could have ever learned from anyone else. For you are one of the smartest, strongest, happiest, funniest and carefree people I have ever know. (And because you know what floats in water...)

The path you have followed with God has made you a trailblazer among all who have come into contact with you, and they - like myself - are blessed to have been there for the adventure.

A wise woman once said "To have a loving relationship with a sister is not simply to have a buddy or a confidant - it is to have a soul mate for life."

Good luck in all you do - I know you will far surpass all our expectations!!

Love ~ Elisa

Whitney Flanagan

My dear sweet daughter,
I knew when you were a year and a half, sitting alone on the stairs in Brewer "just thinking" that you were one smart little girl, but I had no way of knowing that you would excel beyond my wildest dreams. I am so very proud of your hard work and determination. I am in awe of what a beautiful person you have turned out to be. You are a thoughtful friend, a nice sister, a helpful mentor, a daring adventurer, a great student, an amazing daughter and a stalwart liberal feminist. The world is waiting for you, Whitney... go out and find your happiness wherever it may take you. I love you, Mom

It was just yesterday when you slept quietly on my chest and I was a god. I never imagined then what a wonderful person you would grow to become. I am so proud. Now you're off to start you own life, and live your own adventures. You know who you are, but you've come to that knowledge in a pretty controlled enviroment, which means a lot of "you" is still untested. Now it's time to get out on your own and spread your wings, a few years, a decade, more - to each her own growing pace - and get used to yourself. And sick of yourself too. Get blindsided, and devastated, and thoughtful, and better, and confident, and repeat. Then turn 19. Count on that experience, and your gut, to help you judge, not whether your decisions are truly right, since that just isn't an end in itself, but whether your decisions are truly right for you. That's the truly you want. In they meantime, go, feel what you feel, experience all you can, enjoy it. And remember, you'll always be my little girl. Love, Dad.
