In Dedication To...

Mr. Peters

Mr. Peters came to Gorham High School in 1987 after spending many years as a field biologist, which included time spent as a marine fisheries inspector in Alaska. After his tenure as a field biologist, Mr. Peters decided it was time to share his love of learning and his knowledge of biology with others and became a classroom teacher. His great love of the outdoors has always been woven into his classroom teaching.

A lasting impact of Mr. Peter's tenure at GHS is a commitment to excellence and enduring curiosity about the natural world. The most common recollection from former students is: "That class was hard, but boy did I learn a lot.... and Peters can play a heck of a banjo." As a teacher this is the highest praise, and Mr. Peters consistently receives this review from his students. A tour of Mr. Peter's classroom reveals his curiosity and love of learning. To this day it is not uncommon to see many biology projects going on in his classroom. Fresh and saltwater fish tanks, terrariums and insect collections were among the many interests and projects pursued in his classes through the years. The constant innovation has maintained a vigor that will be hard for anyone to match.

Mr. Peters, you will be missed by students and colleagues alike. We wish you the best in your future adventures.

Sincerely,
John Caterina and Aaron Landry

Mrs. Cummings

Most people will agree that being a high school guidance counselor responsible for over 250 teenagers for four years isn't exactly a stress-free occupation... But Ms. Cummings embraces this challenge every day, as she has every year she has been at Gorham High School. Whether it's helping seniors with their college decisions and deadlines, or talking with a stressed out freshman who's having trouble adjusting to high school life, Ms. Cummings' warm presence is always felt throughout the student body and staff. I feel very fortunate to have known Ms. Cummings and can't say enough about how she has helped me through my four years, and I'm sure many other high school students feel the same way. We'd like to dedicate this yearbook to Ms. Cummings for all of her hard work and dedication to the education and development of students for the past 26 years.

Sincerely,
Carter Bowers

Mrs. Wallace

Kathy will be leaving us this year after seven years in Gorham High School and twelve years in the Gorham school district. She has been a wonderful teacher, confidante and friend. Her indomitable sense of humor and endless patience have benefitted both her co-workers and students alike!

She has been a guiding light for many students who have passed through this school. She will be sorely missed by both staff and students.

Sincerely,
Debbie Stirling and Mary Lysaght

In Memory of...

Stephen Bouchard

Stephen...

A young man who loved life. He loved snowboarding, sports, the beach, his friends and family. His real passion was riding his dirt bike and just being outside.

He had a great sense of humor and his laugh was contagious. His smile bright.

Stephen was fortunate that on his journey he accomplished many things and through the challenges he faced he never gave up.

He would be proud to be with all of you at graduation to continue into his adult journey.

Love and live in the moment... that is how he lived, never looking ahead or looking back.

Just one day at a time to do the things he loved the most.

He is in the hands of God but he will be with you at this special time. He was lucky to have all of the class of 2012 in his life.

Dear Gorham High School,

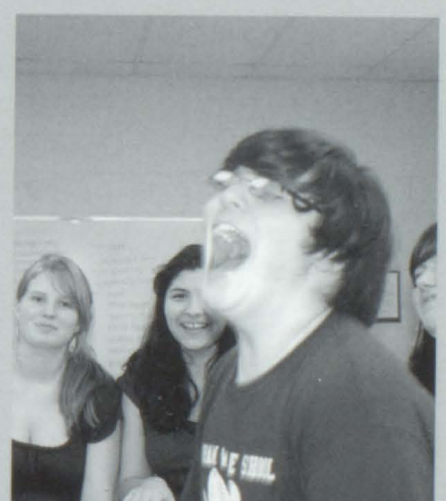

We have made it through another year! This year has been filled with excitement, laughter, and plenty of stress. I believe that this yearbook really captures the year 2012. I have poured my heart and soul into this book and I really hope all of you enjoy it. Some things may have changed from last years book and we may have made a few mistakes, but I hope that you guys realize that nobody is perfect. I know that this book means a lot to all the people who worked on it this year.

I want to say thank you so much to all of the yearbook staff. Without all of you I truly don't know how I could have made it through this year. All of you were dedicated and hard working and I really appreciate that. Also thank you to our Jostens rep Ellen Wing. She made the bumps in the road easier and also brought us laughter when we needed it the most. Last but definitely not least, Mrs. AW. I swear you are a saint. I know you had so many other things going on in your life this year but you always put in your all when it came to this yearbook. Thank you for always being there when I had a question or needed to talk. I know some people may say that your voice can get a little bit loud sometimes but I wouldn't have it any other way; without your loud projectile voice the halls would feel too quiet and empty. I will miss you so much next year so plan for many visits.

Congratulations to the class of 2012! Good luck in the future and see you guys at the reunion. To the underclassmen, enjoy the time you have in high school. You will always remember all the memories and friends you make here. Good luck to next years editor. This job can be hard and stressful at times but I can honestly say that in the end it is worth it.

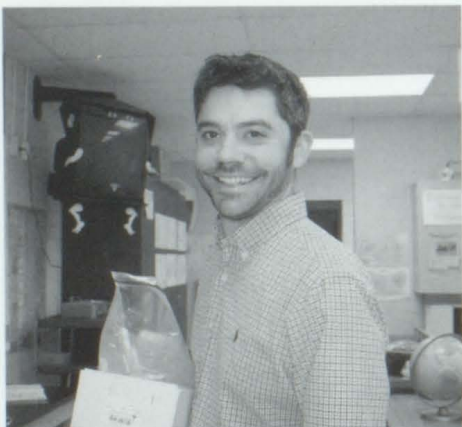

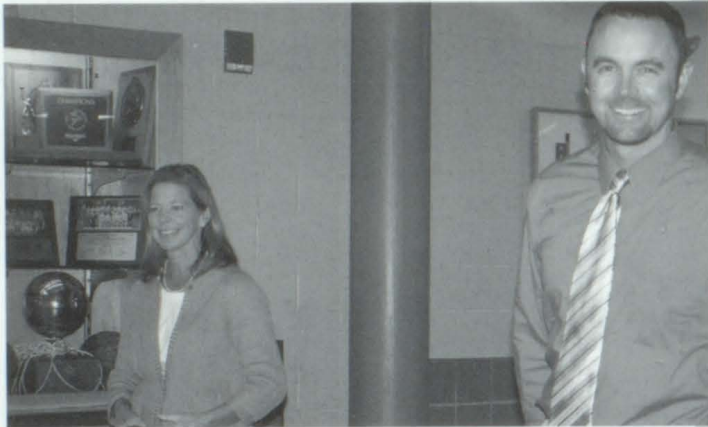

Thanks and Good luck,

Abbey Dean (Yearbook Editor 2012)

Advisor's Messages

Dear Class of 2012,

Although I have only been your advisor for this year, I have come to know your class as motivated, fun, caring, and respectful. However, I already knew that to be true because I had many of you in my class during your sophomore year! Your class officers and Ms. Smith have worked so hard since you were freshmen to ensure that you will have a great senior week and memorable graduation...I hope you enjoy it!

As you prepare to leave GHS, I want you to know that I am proud of your effort and commitment to get to this point in your school career. For some of you it has been a piece of cake, but I know that most of you have had to overcome many obstacles along the way...and it hasn't been easy. Whether those obstacles were in school or outside school, you managed to do what it takes in order to walk across that stage at Merrill Auditorium in a few days. That's determination - and that's what you're going to need out there in the "big world" to be successful. Nothing is going to be easy or go the way you think it's going to, but you have proven that you can handle it through the hard work and focus it took to graduate!

My best wishes to you, Class of 2012,
Ms. Mulrey

To the Class of 2012,

I feel lucky to have known all of you during your time here at Gorham High School. You have often made me laugh but you have never made me cry, thank you for that. Seriously, you are all really cool individuals and I am cooler for having spent time with you. So what big words of wisdom do I have for you as you head out into the world?

1. Find a job you love. This comes from loving what you do rather than how much money you make.

2. Judge how successful your life is by the positive change you affect. Spend your time making the world a better place and you will be successful.

3. Always be kind to others. I tell my children that every night when I tuck them in. At the end of the day it is what people will remember about you.

4. Martin Luther King Jr. said "In the End, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends." Silence is the most powerful tool for evil on the face of the earth. Do not be afraid to stand up for your beliefs and let your voice be heard. You may find that you change the world in the process.

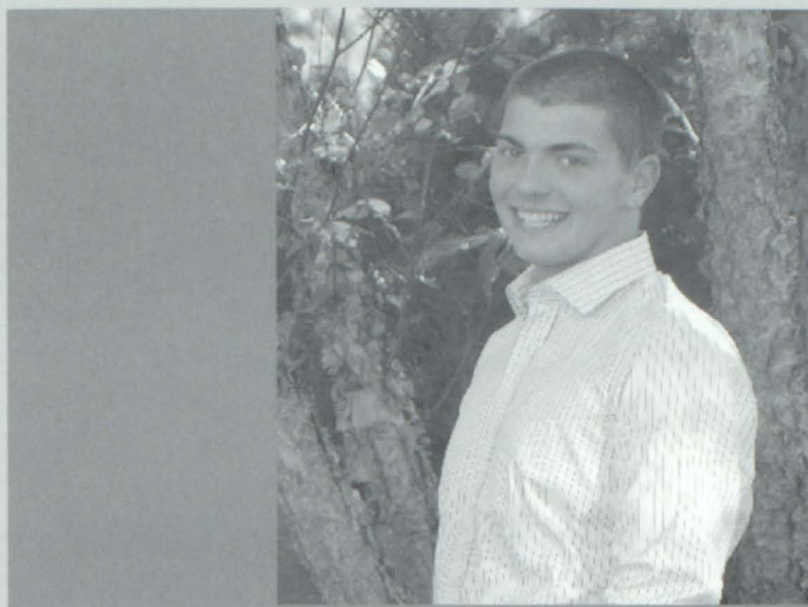

5. I will end this as I end my class. Stay out of the gully and don't bite your friends.

When you come back from the "real world" stop by and say hi.

Mrs. Smith

There's a rule in life. You're either growing or you're dying. A tree is either growing, or it's dying. So does a business, so does a class, so does a person. The Gorham High School Class of 2012 is growing. In the fourth grade, two separate schools were joined to make one class. It was an awkward time at first. In a town so spread out, one would not figure that a class joined so late would bond so closely and smoothly. One would be wrong. The class of 2012 did just that. Lifelong friendships were formed and though the economic necessities may carry many of us away from Gorham, these friendships will endure.

Every member of this class had the potential to play a major role in the future to come. I have no doubt that in some way we will all play a role and not settle for second best when the best is within our grasp. There is no comparison, at least in my eyes, between any graduating class past, present and future. We are a unique class graduating during a unique time. The economic and social adversities of the era and of this area could have put a strain on the class of 2012. It has not. I am proud to graduate among these fine men and women. Had I been born a different year, and joined another class, I would have missed knowing some of the finest people I will ever meet. I hope that none of us will lose sight of just how great this experience has been. One might ask, is the Class of 2012 the last great class? Maybe.

We are faced with the undeniable fact that we must move on, like it or not. Many will go on to college or join the work force or military. I know that wherever we go we are, and will always be the class of 2012. This class was born to greatness. Greatness that cannot be measured by wealth, popularity or looks of any of the false qualities that our society gives value to. True greatness comes from and is measured from within. It is a greatness that I see everyday in my classmates and it is that greatness that is growing and will continue to grow.

It's been a pleasure knowing each of you.

Sincerely, your friend, Troy A. Lawrence

Advice From the Older and Wiser

- Learn proper etiquette for walking in the halls to avoid the wrath of upperclassmen
  - Don't worry what others say about you. Be you and do what you think is right.
  - The stereotype "it's cool to fail" died out in the 80's so try in school.
  - Don't be afraid to talk to teachers when you need help.
  - High School goes by faster than you think so take every opportunity to join something.
  - If you fail a test don't stress about it just try to do better next time.
  - Don't overwhelm your schedule.... you will regret it.
  - Live it up and have the time of your life. High School only happens once in your life.
  - Take every opportunity you can! Join clubs, do a show, play a sport, but do something!

I'm excited to be moving on to the next chapter in my life and I owe the opportunities that are now in front of me to the support of my family and friends and to the education resources of GHS. Life, with all of its ups and downs has been the best teacher for me so far. From the dinner table to the soccer field, I give thanks to everyone who has been a part of that process

Congrats to class of 2012!

Summing up all that needs to be said about my four years at GHS into such a small space isn't exactly easy, but here it goes. Thanks not only to my friends, but to anyone who's been there to help me out over what seemed like such a short time. (If you were thinking to yourself "haha, what friends!?" while you were reading the sentence before this, you're a genuinely hilarious person.) People can say whatever they want about Gorham, and they may be right, but I can't think of anywhere I'd rather have spent my high school years attending. Most of you looked down on me as an outcast with odd views and looks, but I was just showing me. I was sick of falling into different titles. I decided to just be me for the final two years here. I hope everyone finds their true selves in the coming years.
Congrats and good luck everyone, even if we were on opposing sides of debates in classes or fights in the halls. Thanks to MR, RE, NS, AS, MJ, TC, and Mr. Roy.
A huge thanks to Amanda and George, and a big I miss you to my mum. :)

Reeve Anderson

Just want to thank everyone who has helped me over the years. Mom, I don't know what I will do without you next year, thank you so much, I love you! Dad, thanks for all the support, I love you. Teachers, every single teacher I have spoken with in this building has something to offer, thanks. Special thanks to Mr. Caulfield, stay in touch! Mrs. Slipp, best principal ever, you saved me, thank you so much. Samantha, you have made the past year the best time of my life. I don't know how to thank you for everything you have done. What a four years it has been. I want to thank my parents for supporting me through the highs and the lows. All of my siblings, especially Nicole for helping during my first couple of years of high school. All of my friends for some great memories that I will never forget. And lastly my teachers and coaches for helping me along the journey. Well class of 2012, good luck.

Peace GHS.

Ian Barber

Well Gorham High School, this is it I'd like to say that it was all fun and games, like a magical Robot Unicorn world. But sadly that would be a lie, and I cannot tell a lie. Unless of course I am in Tryder's office. If I had to do it all over, I may consider playing the game a bit differently, do all my homework, be a respectful student. Nah, that just wouldn't be as entertaining. As far as education goes I mean I guess I got learned pretty good at GHS. The group of teachers I would like to thank most are my English teachers for sustaining my desire to write. Lastly thank you to my friends who made block periods at least somewhat bearable. Goodbye. That is all.

Samuel Barr

Umm....Don't know what to say, lol. But I will say that I had fun in High School. Best of Luck to everyone!!!

It would seem that time has passed me by. Gone is the relaxation of childhood. All I can think about is college paperwork, paying for college, going to college. All I want to think about are the places, the events, and the people which have made my time in high school so memorable. To Mr.

Patterson, for drilling the words "juxtaposition" and "threshold" into my mind forever. To Mr. Caulfield, for being the best and most dedicated mentor I have ever had the pleasure of being educated by. To my parents, whose love, trust, and support means the absolute world to me. To my friends for not being imaginary. To my house, for letting me live in you. You seem much better than a dorm room.

Carter Bowers

Thanks to my teachers, coaches, and friends. You've made the last 4 years a blast.

Coach K, O, C, C, thank you. Friends, I'm not going to list you out like a girl.

Life brings tears, smiles & memories. The tears will dry, the smiles will fade, but the memories will last forever. These past four years at Jolly GHS have been quite the adventure. Thanks Mom and Dad, for always being there for me, and supporting me along the way. I love you guys. We've had some rough times, but I don't know where I would be without you. Thanks Jesse, Kim, Luke, Ty, Brady, Jd, Tess, and Soph, I'm lucky to have such a great family. Thanks to all my friends-we have shared some good times, and made many unforgettable memories. A.R, A.B, K.S, B.C, H.T, J.B. I am lucky to have you in my life. Congrats to the class of 2012, we finally made it!

Nicholas Chabot

Wow! That's all I have to say. It has been a long and exciting four years. Which I didn't think would ever end, but where there's an end there is always a new beginning. Thanks Mom and Dad for being there and supporting me for whatever I was doing.

Daily fishing in North Gorham Pond, hanging out with the Robbins (my other family), Bon Fires, cigars, Birthday Tatoo, Joey bag of doughnuts, 101, can you say community service?, holy walls, Petty - it's not allowed, Thanks Robbie & Anthony, Love you Mom.

The last few years have been kind of hard on us, but we're still here. Thank you mom for always being there for me and listening when I need to talk. You're the best mother I could ask for and you inspire me to be better at everything I do. Daddy I miss you so much. I want you to know how proud I am to be your daughter. Thank you for always being there for me as well and for everything you taught me. Ashley, you're my best friend. You've been there with me through it all and even though we have our moments I wouldn't trade you or Veronica for the world. Veronica, thank you for putting up with your big sis. I know I can be a pain sometimes but you never give up on me. I love you all so much.

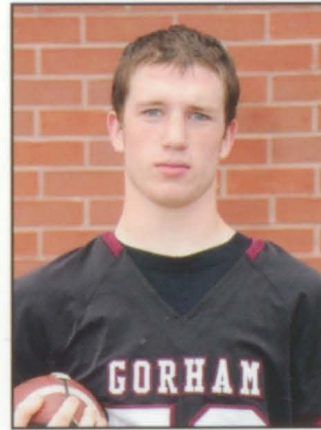

For those of you who have made me smile through the years: AD, SD, LW. I'm so lucky to have you 3 by my side to make me laugh and to always keep me grounded. For my parents: thanks for always pushing me further when I didn't have confidence in myself. I love you for showing me my full potential. For Sista girl, Claud, and Helaine: thanks for making my life exciting & worthwhile. I will always be there for all of u. For Aaron: thanks for showing unconditional love & bringing me so much happiness. I love you guys w/ all my heart. W/o you, I would not be who I am today. Class of 2012, it's been amazing. Now go out & do extraordinary things!

I thank God for the 4 years I had here at GHS. Best wishes to all of my classmates wherever you may end up.

At the beginning of my freshman year I remember my Mom saying "Cherish the next four years because they will fly by before you know it." To be honest, at that time I didn't believe her one bit, but now I do 100%. Sadly, these four years have flown by but I know greater things are to come! Mom and Dad: I truly couldn't have done it without you guys. I love you both very much! Nana: R.I.P, I miss and love you! Aunt Wendy: Thanks 4 everything! Ly! Eric: Thanks for putting up with me! To all my friends: You guys know who you are! I couldn't have done it without you! Thanks for making these last four years unforgettable! Love you guys! Good luck and congrats class of 2012! We did it! :)

The past four years have been full of laughter. Senior year came so fast. I couldn't have asked for better friends to get me through it. Linds, Aud, Amelia, thanks for always being there. Mom and Dad, thanks for always believing in me and I'll never forget what you've taught me. I can't forget the three giants I call brothers, although you may drive me crazy, you are still the best. I love you all.

We made it! Let the journey begin. Good Luck, Class of 2012!

Is it over yet? The last few years have been good and bad at the same time. Many things and people have changed in these few years. It all seems like we'd never be out of high school, now it feels like everything is happening so fast. It's almost the end and I want to thank my parents for making my schedule and few years here so much easier and my friends as well.

They said these years would go by like that, and they weren't kidding! Middle school now seems like a dream, high school a memory, the future a terrifying plunge. And as I stand at the edge, ready to jump into the unknown, I have so many to thank for getting me to where and who I am:
To Mom and Dad,
I love and thank you for everything
To my best friends
Alyssa, Lisa, Abbey and Kirsten,
I'll never forget our millions of memories, to the teachers who went out of their way for me, I can't thank you enough
To my baby brother, good luck!

There are a lot of people I want to thank-
I want to thank my friends for all the good times we had, and I hope we'll still have
I want to thank all the teachers - Ms. Tucker, Mrs. Smith, and the others who put up with me these past four years
I want to thank everyone at PATHS, especially Ms. Manzi, for helping me get to where I am today
And, finally, I want to thank my family for being excessively supportive and just plain great.
Good luck, everyone in the class of 2012! Let's hope, come December, the world's still intact - we're just getting started.

William Eldridge

The time has come so fast. It seems like we were just freshman. I have so many good memories and have made so many good friends. Thank you Mom and Dad for all your support and help. Good luck Tyler with the rest of high school. Thank you Kara for being there for me and to my friends for the good memories
Good luck class of 2012.

2012, wow I can't believe we made it
The past four years have been fun, not the best, and I can't say I'm completely sad that it's going to be over. But hey, Everything I have learned here has prepared me to go out into the real world and make something of myself. I want to thank my best friend, my mom for being there for me from day one. My dad for always giving me the best advice
To my little sister Erin, I can't wait to see the young woman you'll become. I couldn't have made it this far without you all. As for my friends, you know who you are. 44lyfe<3
Peace Out GHS, I won't be back.
The pen is in our hands now, and the rest is still unwritten <3

It finally hit me that I won't be seeing the same people next to me that I've been with for 12+ years after this year. I'll miss it, but I'm excited to move on.

Thank you teachers, classmates, and friends for helping me to be the person that I am today. Thank you Mom and Dad (Dave) for guiding me up to this point. It's been a ride.

Guys, this is it. It's our senior year, and it's gonna fly by so fast. I know a lot of people say that but you never believe it till it happens. This has been a tough and stressful four years for me, and probably for most of us, but be proud that you got through it and you're almost done. I know I'm gonna miss all my friends and teachers who I've become close with. Lastly, I'd like to thank everyone who helped me get through these tough four years, and to everyone who thought I wouldn't make it.. HA!

believe in the beauty of their dreams."
Good luck everyone!!
Ps. My sweatshirt says Fitch :)

Four years has come and gone, and now it's time to graduate. I am a new me thanks to my family and friends. My never ending family, thanks for the patience and love throughout the years, and the occasional bone crushing hugs when life got stressful. To my friends, with a million and one memories of laughing till we cry, and eating too much ice cream. Now I am ready to run and jump into the pool of life and hopefully make a big splash.
Love you Manda.

"Wow, I can't believe four years have already gone by," says everyone. But in all honesty I can remember walking through Gorham High School's hallways as a freshman. My backpack filled with as many books as I could carry. It was an interesting experience, these last few years, and I wouldn't have made it without a few key people. Mom, Dad, Forest, love you guys, thank you for your love and support. To all my friends, I love you guys, you have helped me more than you'll ever know. And to the one whose smile speaks volumes, I love you hun. Finally I would like to thank Michael Lawrenson, whose advice and outstanding personality has made me realize my potential as a student.

To my parents-thank you for always pushing me to be my best. Jay-enjoy it, it goes by fast, remember
I'll always be right beside you, love
you. Kayli-You've always been there, and never failed to make me laugh
when I needed it most thank you, love
you. To all my friends, thank you for sticking by me, I'll never forget the times we've had.
Lacrosse team-good luck girls, I'll miss you. Best of luck class of 2012!

I have enjoyed my years at GHS and will miss everyone, including the teachers! I loved performing in the musicals and singing my heart out. Playing on the tennis team has been cool too. My hobbies include jewelry making and every type of craft. Maybe you'll see my creations on the home shopping channel someday! In the summer I can be found with my family at our camp and in the lake. I hope to use my skills obtained from Culinary Arts in the workforce. Good luck to everyone and I hope to see you around town!

I would like to thank Ms. Rohbracher here at Gorham and Mr. Divinsky at PATHS for helping me learn how to cook and run the grill. I'll remember all my friends at Gorham High School and at PATHS forever! To the CBE Class, I love you guys and will miss you after I graduate. To the staff in CBE, you're the greatest! Thanks for all your help.

Nicole Gile

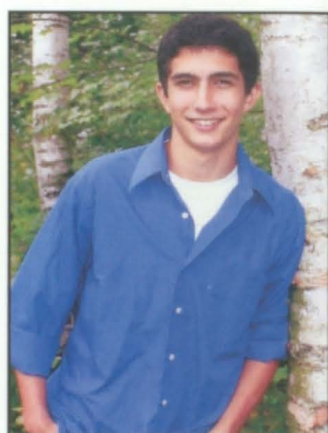

I owe everything to my family, friends, and teachers. So in turn I want to thank them. Thank you to the teachers and staff of GHS who have challenged me, and made me discover who I am as a learner. Thank you to my friends, you guys always make me laugh, and I love all of you with all my heart. I am truly lucky to have such amazing friends, and I will miss all of you! I want to thank my Dad for being such a funny science nerd, and my mother, who is the most loving Mom in the entire world, I love you both! It seemed like just yesterday I moved to Gorham, and started high school. I still can't believe how fast time flew by the past four years. Wherever life takes me, I'll remember everyone at GHS. The journey certainly wasn't perfect, but I made it. A huge thanks to my mom and dad, I couldn't have made it through these long years without you two. A big thanks to my papa and meme who were practically second parents to me all of my life. I'll miss everyone at GHS, but it can only get better from here. Watch out for the Class of 2012, we are taking over! See you in the real world everyone.

Well, I don't want to be just like everyone else with my senior write up. So here goes nothing. Senior year has come and gone. I'll never forget all the memories. From four wheeling in the Buxton poll lines to just hanging out around bonfires on Fridays nights. It's been a blast. I want to thank all my friends that have stayed by my side all these year; AGR, NAM, CLM, RVL & more. I won't miss you because we will keep in touch. I want to also thank my family for what they have done to help me all these years. To those of you who didn't believe I would make it here.. What do you think now? See ya GHS.

Brittany Grant

To the family that has been there, thank you for everything. I love you for turning me into who I am today. And to the best friends anyone could ask for, Taylor and Annie, I love you more than life itself.

To my friends: you know who you are. You guys have been the best cohorts I've ever had. I don't want to leave anyone out so here are some initials I chose at random. Pretend they are your own: RV, QX, GZ, YT, PP, UF. Now you are immortalized forever in a yearbook. Congratulations. To my family: you know who you are. I hope. I better have left an impression in all these years. I love you. To my teachers: good job teaching. Goodbye to all these great groups I've been a part of: CS, EtD, theater, Slam, and many others. Music is awesome. Don't you ever forget it. Guitar and voice are cool too. Keep your eyes open for the Moosical. Mary! Chonny! Chicago! Be happy, be smart, be good.

High school has your best and worst times. It teaches you who you are, who you want to be, & who stays with you through even your worst moments. I can't imagine going through these past 4 years without my friends. Without you guys, I don't think I would be sane. My parents are the reason I am where I am & I can't imagine life without you. Ryan you've guided me more than you know, & Joey I can't wait to see the little man you become. I don't mind being stuck in between you two knuckleheads, as dad would say. Don't take moments for granted, take every opportunity & don't let other people knock you down.

Thanks to all the teachers who helped me through the years, both at GHS and WRVC. To Chef for the great times in culinary, Mrs. Mickelson for caring about me and helping me get through the hard work, Mrs. Soveral for helping me grow as a person, and Mrs. Emery for helping whenever I had problems. Also, thanks to my friends Tori and Sam for the great memories, and to my mom and dad and grandparents for all their awesome love and support.

First I would like to thank my Friends who have supported me
 Through the years: MSR, MSD, ELV,
 DSP, EDV, KB
 I wouldn't be here without you,
 You are all the best
 Next thank you to my judo

Thank you parents. You have been extremely supportive and reliable over the past 18 years. Thank you brothers. Colin for forging the path and Mikey for keeping me on it. Thank you coach. You are the reason we play so hard. And last but not most certainly not least, thank you friends.

I just want to thank everyone who was there for me these past years. My parents, brother, sister, girlfriend, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and teachers, thank you all! Thank you Mr. Paradis for everything you've done to help me these past four years. And thank you Kelly for your constant love, and support. I cannot begin to express how thankful I am for everything. Classmates, I wish you the best, and I hope you all succeed in whatever your passion may be. Boston, here I come.

Mom, thanks for being my secret keeper; Dad you've always been my number one fan; and Ash, my first best friend and greatest ally. I love the three of you more than anything! To my friends- thanks for making me laugh until I cry. I don't know what I would have done without you!

It may not have been perfect, but I know I'll look back, laugh, and say it was worth it.

High school has come and past. It seems like just yesterday we were playing kickball and playing tag, now we have to go to college? For all my friends and peers, you are what have shaped me into the person I am today, good luck with all you choose to pursue. Mom and Dad, thanks for all the time, care, and love you put in even through all my stubbornness. Jim, Ben, and Danielle, you have terrorized me for 17 long years, but what doesn't kill me, makes me stronger, or so I hope. "Change is the law of life. I want to thank my mom and dad for being there for me always. I want to thank my friends for making high school a more entertaining experience. Finally I want to thank the teachers for coming in and giving their all everyday to help prepare me and the rest of the class of 2012 for the rest of their lives. With that I bid you adieu. Good night, and good luck, GHS and the class of 2012.

I'm going to skip thanking my friends and family. You all know who you are. But if you're too much of an Egderp, here you go: MR, AL, AA, RB, NH, MF, TB, RE, EE, CL, MT, and SL. If you think you belong here then that's fine too. Except for you. Thanks for all the laughs and troll antics throughout the years. So, all of you do one thing for me: Have a fantastic life. You are all fantastic. Absolutely fantastic. And you know what? So am I. And now, all I have is one word left to say. A word of great power and wisdom. A consolation to the soul in times of need. A word that will help us in the next step of our lives... ALLONS-Y!

It's been a great four years of high school thanks to friends and family. Thanks Mom, Dad, and Marissa for always believing in me and helping me achieve my dreams. I wouldn't have been able to do it without you. I love you. To Lincoln and Nicole, thanks for being my best friends from the beginning. You have always been there for me, and I know you always will be. Thanks Allie, Clara, and Emily for putting up with me and the sad song phase. You girls are the best thing a guy could ask for. Ellyn and Lia, go do great things, I know you will. Amelia, thanks for the help with dance. You'll always be my Nabe. I love you all. "Because I knew you, I have been changed for good."

Congrats Class of 2012! This is the end of four amazing high school years, but more importantly, it's the beginning of the real world, and a fresh start where we can all succeed. Mom- your love and support means more to me than you will ever know. Julie- thanks for teaching me about life and laughter. Rach- couldn't of done it without you. Good luck next year vballers.

Congrats Class of 2012! It has been a wonderful four years and I couldn't have done it without some key people in my life. My family- Thank you so much for your unconditional love and support. My friends- We've had a lot of laughs and made a lot of memories. El- You have made such an impact on my life, and you always know how to make me smile. FHockey girls- You guys are the best! Keep the traditions, keep Manson happy and love every minute you have to play because it goes by too fast. Good luck guys!

GHS, in you I have found myself. Figured out who my friends are (RW, MC, BG you mah girlz) Mom, Dad, you guys rock I love you so much and I want to thank you so much for all the wisdom you have provided for me. Toddy, Abby, Linds, couldn't ask for any better. You have all given me a "strong hand" when ever I have needed it :) Josh, who knows what the future holds. All I know is that you are a person who has influenced me in so many good ways, and I love you for that.

"Put your future in good hands - your own" Thank you for all of the amazing experiences for the past four years. I'm going to miss it! Thank you Mom, Dad, Lexie, Maddie, JS, TB, DG

High school has been more of an adventure than I could have ever imagined it would be. I would like to thank my family, teachers, and every student in the class of 2012 for impacting my life in one way or another, giving me memories that will last my whole life and blessing me with many experiences, good and bad, that have helped to build such a strong foundation for my future and shape the person I am today.

It is an odd feeling to almost be out of high school. I am not sure what is to come after, but I am very excited. I have gotten to this spot in life with help from many people. Family and friends have been a huge help all through my life, I owe who I am to my loved ones and my closest friends. High school was a fun ride, it is sad to see it almost over, I can not wait to see what will become of people in the years that follow. I wish everyone the best of luck, and thanks once again to all those who have helped me through these important year of my life.

High school was a battlefield. It was a good time though. It wouldn't have been so great if it weren't for the people I've enjoyed and loved along the way. I wish the class of 2012 the best of luck in life. And I hope Kasey and Richie live it up. :)

Love you mom and dad.

Wow!! can't believe I'm a Senior. This year went by so fast but at the same time it seems it took a while to graduate. I want to thank all my teachers who helped me through the 3 years I have been here. But most of all I want to thank my loving parents for helping me through all the tough times I have been through and the good times. Thanks for being here for me even though I didn't think you guys were. Love you guys a lot! Also I am so glad to have amazing brothers, Alex and Micheal, and sisters, Brittany and Tori. Love you guys and thanks for being there when I needed you.

Coming to Gorham my senior year was not an easy decision. Many people asked me the reasons and to this day I still don't know. All I know is that I don't regret it. Thank You to all my friends that made the transition easier. To all the underclassman, don't dread high school and wish to escape as soon as possible. Andre was too lazy to send anything in so I, his sister, took over. Andre will never forget his years at GHS, or the friends he made (If he did I would hit him). I hope no one will forget the weird guy who reads a lot, plays A LOT of video games, and walks around in a leather coat and camo backpack. HE AND MRS. A-W BOTH GAVE ME PERMISSION!!! Thanks Mom and Dad for all the support over the years. Katie, thanks for being a great role model. Emma, good luck in high school. Audrey, Leanna and Michael, you guys have kept me sane over the years. Good luck to the girls soccer and lacrosse teams next year!!! <3
Goodbye GHS. Hello World!

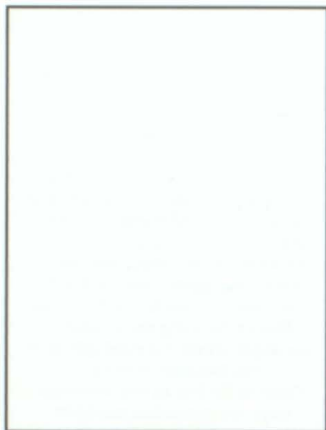

Martin Soper

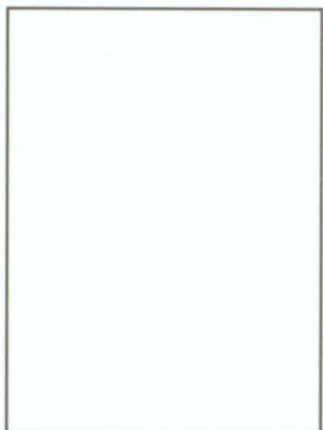

I would like to thank all my teachers that helped me through high school, to all my friends that have been there and supported me and for all the laughs we have shared, these four years went by quick. I would like to wish everyone luck with college and I also would like to thank my parents for without them too I probably would never have studied for midterms and finals as much as I did. Finally to Mr. Watts without him helping me through this college process I would have been so stressed out, you are the greatest guidance counselor ever thank you for all the help. We finally made it class of 2012!

What did we really learn in school? In math, we learned that  $1+1=2$ , always. In English, there was writing. Tons. In science, we did experiments. They did not explode... usually. In history, we learned of Napoleon. How does school affect our future? Those answers are out there waiting. That is why we say good-bye now. Gorham High has been our lives. But now we all make our own trails, Hacking away at the concealing vines. The key is to look through the mess, not at the little moments, the joys, the pains, of the heartfelt losses. Heads up, minds forward, we march. That's our goal, the looming future. When we find it, we will know it. Good luck, farewell, see you there.

Katie St. Onge

Life is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets. So love the people who treat you right, and forget about the ones who don't and believe that everything happens for a reason. If you get a chance; take it. Nobody said that it'd be easy they just promised it'd be worth it. We live for the nights we'll never forget. With the friends we'll always remember. NLJ, My best friend, my other half, I love you. LEI, You're a great person, thanks for everything. Mom + Dad, Thanks for always being there for me, I love you so much! It seems like just yesterday the terrifying ginormous seniors were chanting "sit down freshman." But here I am, thanks to those who guided me along way: To my teachers, coaches, directors, thanks for teaching me about myself, others and life and to never give up. To the Field Hockey girls, Play with heart and have no regrets It'll all be over before you know it. To the CS and Musical gang: you have been my home these past few years, enjoy everything, I love you all. To my family who has supported and loved me since day 1: Thank you. To my friends: ES CS QO ET LG LV etc. I don't know who I'd be without you. "You'll be with me, like a handprint on my heart"

Wow, I'm a senior. Thank goodness! I want to say thank you to my family You have always stood by me no matter what. Mom, Dad, you both are incredible and I know that you are both proud of me. Thank you for shaping me into the person I am today. I will never be able to thank you enough. Nick, though we don't always get along, I love you. I will always be here for you, I always have time to help. You are going to do amazing things in life. To all my friends, thank you for these past years. JR I love you girl, you're awesome! And lastly, Mason, thank you for everything. This is just the beginning, no looking back now. <3

Wow... the years just fly by when your having fun.

I can not believe that it's my senior year already. It feels like just yesterday we were incoming freshmen and now we're getting ready to graduate. There have been so many people who helped me along the way. I would like to thank my mom and dad, if it wasn't for them pushing me I probably wouldn't have done my best. I am so glad to be apart of my amazing class. Hope to see some of you in the future! Best wishes to all of you guys! Emery

These last four years have truly been the most exciting years of my life. They went by too fast if you ask me, but it was a great four years. I would like to thank my teachers, friends, and most of all my parents for all they have done for me during my high school career. I would not trade these years for anything. I wish everyone in the class of 2012 the best of luck as we exit high school and enter the world as adults. One final shout-out to Milos, Karla, and Latifa!

Ellyn Touchette

These four years have been such an amazing journey. I've grown, I've shrunk, I've laughed, I've cried, and I've met people I'll know for my whole life. Thank you to everyone who's helped me progress a little farther along down the road of my life. I wouldn't be half this far without you. To my friends, AS, QO, LG, NG, CS, LV, AB; to my mentors, Patterson, Murray, Ebersold, Caulfield; and to the family who stood behind me every step of the way. In a few short months, I'll be crossing the threshold and entering the real world. And therefore, I shall conclude my high school career with the last words of American pioneer Kit Carson: "I just wish I had time for one last bowl of chili."

I can't believe it's finally over. I couldn't have done it without my parents or my friends. Jake thanks for being there. Congratulations class of 2012 and good luck.

Jeanette Villanueva

"Follow your bliss" Joesph Campbell's famous saying. Be positive as Buddha says, "We are what we think. All that we are arises with our thoughts. With our thoughts we make the world" Give love as Mother Teresa says, "Love until it hurts. Real love is always painful and hurts: Then it is real and pure." I believe William James says it best "The great use of life is to spend it for something that will outlast it." Be present. Concentrated. And strong like the Upanishads say "Those who reach greatness on earth reach it through concentration." Thank you Mom and Dad for teaching me what life is all about
I Love You.

Allison Violette

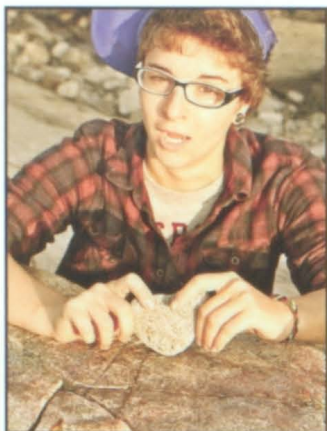

Class of 2012, our time has come. We have had good times and bad. But would like to thank my family the most. Mom and dad I couldn't do anything without you guys ly. sv & av, we fight but I still love you guys. To all my friends, thanks those who have always been there for me, through it all. SR,BE,BP my bffs, my sisters who i never had. FH girls, I love you TF, your my best friend thank you for everything you have done.
52510 I love you <3

Rachael Webster

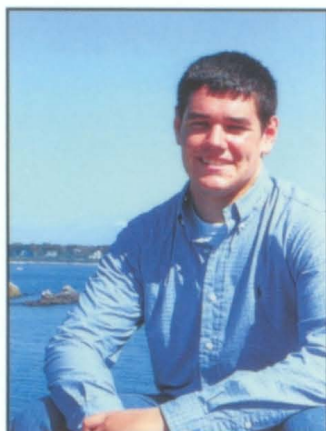

Parents, thank you for all of your love and support. You have no idea how much it means to me. Erin and Hilary, you have been the best role models I could have ever asked for. Cooper, good luck. High school flies by, so cherish every moment. Vicki and Emily, you both mean the world to me & even though we are all moving away from each other, I will always remember you for the rest of my life. Ry, I couldn't have done it without you. Emalee & Abbey, thanks for the years of laughter & smiles. Congrats class of 2012! I wish you the best of luck. Sweet dreams are made of this Who I am to disagree, I'll travel the world and the seven seas Everybody is looking for something

Congrats class of 2012! The last four years have been fun. I couldn't have done it without the support of my friends and family. Thank you dad, you've been there for me every step of the way, I couldn't have done it without you. Adriene and Ben, thank you for all the encouragement and for spending those long nights helping me edit my english papers. Jesse and Alex thank you for all of your support and advice. I would like to wish the football team good luck in their following seasons, you guys are like brothers to me. Finally I would like to thank all of my close friends, you know who you are so I'm not going to list you off. Mom I love you, you will forever be in my heart and memories. Good Luck Class of 2012

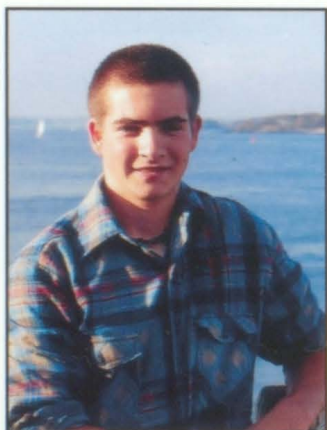

Amelia Whitten

But things just get so crazy living life gets hard to do And I would gladly hit the road get up and go if I knew That someday it would bring me back to you. Mom and Dad, thank you for all of the support throughout the years LD&LS I love you both so much Many memories and more to come. Nolemretaw forever ladies Quincy Owens, I can't count the number of times you have made me smile. You've always been there for me and I know that will never change. Love you, Nabe BT Bread and Butter Class of 2012, I wish you the best! So live for the moment and dance you life away

Savanna Wing

Well, class of 2012; we made it. There are a few people I need to thank. Mom, thank you for having faith in me. I love you to the moon and back. <3 Brett, I wouldn't have gotten this far without you pushing me. Momma Harris, thank you for everything, you're the best. Mr. Watts, thank you for all of your support. The Walker Family, you guys have really shown me what family means. Bumpy, you're not here physically, but just knowing you're looking down on me has made me try harder, rest easy, forever in my heart. <3 I love you all, and I wouldn't be here right now without you. Congratulations class of 2012! :D

"The days are long, but the years are short." I can't say that I am disappointed that it is over but it has been quite a ride. These four years have flown by. Mom and dad: thank you so much for everything you do for me. I wouldn't be where I was without you. Elizabeth and Joe: I couldn't ask for a better brother and sister. Thanks for always being there. sp.cp.mc. I don't know what I'd do without you all. Love you guys. To all my other friends, so many good memories. Thanks for making these four years swell :) xoxo bye gorham high school <3

Lisa Wong

For the three ladies that inspire me and keep me going, Abbey Dean, Sarah Doughty, and Alyssa Cormack, The reason for my laughter all these years the "Lawnmower" and Sleepovers will live forever in my heart. To my teachers who have pushed me and inspired me to chase my dreams To Ryan Watts, for putting up with all my complaints and worrying to everything and everyone who has made me who I am, I cannot thank you enough. "Do not follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail."
-Ralph Waldo Emerson
Congratulations, Class of 2012, I know we will do great things.

Camden Worrall

I remember when I started to go to GHS, I was always needing help. Now I don't need help as much anymore, I am way more independent. I will miss everyone so much I felt like we were brothers and sisters in school. I would like to thank all my teachers, they helped me get over troubles and helped me achieve my goal to graduate this year. I worked so hard to pass classes my last 2 years if I didn't put myself on the line to get out of school. I would be so sad to see my friends move on without me. I was told I was going to be a super senior because I had low grades, it scared me into asking for help to become a Grad.

Larissa Worster

These four years went by so fast! Thank you, Mom, Dad, and Jillian for helping me through all the ups and downs of high school. Jillian: good luck! Have fun in school and at home without me! To Nick: thank you for being with me through everything and for all the fun times and good memories. To all my friends: I love you! Thank you for all the fun we've had! I will miss you all so much!

"Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends." Richard Bach

Nicoletta Varzari

I just came.... and already have to say goodbye. It's sad, because all of you became so meaningful to me. I have made some of the best memories while at GHS and have learned some important life lessons. Thank you for this amazing year, for the love and kindness you have shown me. It was a very special experience which I will never forget! I promise!

"The world needs dreamers and the world needs doers. But above all, the world needs dreamers who do."

So let's do it, RAMS!

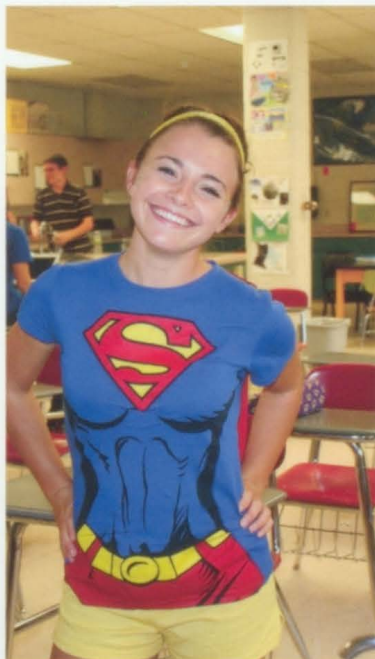

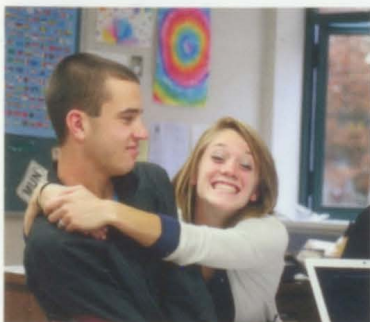

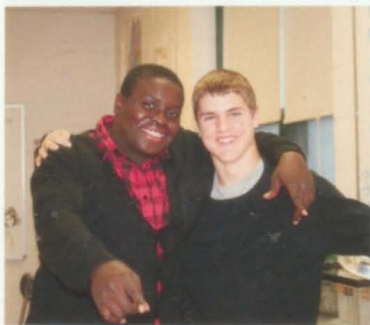

P.S: come visit Moldova!

Hello! Even though I am an exchange student, this is something great for me! New students, new school year. I loved this year! This is the biggest thing in my life. I want to congratulate other students, yeah, school is over, there is a new life waiting for everybody ahead. I want to say "Thank you" to my teachers, my friends, my host family. I'm glad that you have been with me and supported me the whole year. Also, I want to thank my parents, classmates and teachers in Kazakhstan, and the exchange program "FLEX" which gave me the opportunity to spend the year in Gorham. This year was fruitful, I grew as a person.

Abigael Dean

Abigael,
It seems completely impossible that you are already a senior, ready to leave home and create a life filled with your own hopes and dreams. For the past 17 years I have seen my hopes and dreams for you fulfilled as you have grown into the kind and beautiful young woman I wished for as a daughter and friend. I am so proud of your accomplishments but more so of the person you've become, a trusted friend to many, a kind soul to anyone in need, and a strong and confident young woman who is true to herself. The best is yet to come my sweet girl, but congratulations today on how much you've already achieved. Love, Mom

Abigael,
You possess an enthusiasm for life that is unbridled! We see that spirit in every venture you pursue. We hope that you have learned that maintaining a good sense of humor will take the edge off all of the stress in life. We wish for you the very best and that every movie you ever see will be "the best ever!"

Much love, Dad, Caitlin, Anthony, Isaac, Charlotte, Tank and Jethro

Dear Abigael,
You have been my side-kick since the day you were born. In fact I gave up smoking because of you and I thank you for that. We have become even closer as you grew older. You make me so proud to be your "Poppy". I know your future will be Bright, Bright, Sunshiny Days!
A "Hi, Poppy" always makes my day.
Hugs and Kisses, Poppy

Dear Abigael,
I cherish the memories we have made together and look forward to the new one the future brings. You make my face smile and my heart lol!
Love Ya, Nana XO XO XO

Emery Thompson

Emery,
Congratulations! We have watched you grow and find your way as you went through high school and mature into the young man you have become today. Dad and I challenged and encouraged you along the way to help you with your goals you set for yourself. We are so proud of you and will always support and be there for you! There future is yours to conquer.
Love,
Dad, Mom and Ben

Kelsey,

It is hard to believe that our baby has grown up and is about to leave us to start the next chapter of her life. Dad and I are so proud to call you our daughter. You are an incredible, thoughtful, loving, and funny person, take all of that and what you have learned add it to your dreams and make them come true! We want your future to bring everything you can imagine. Dad and I love being your parents and watching you grow. I hope we have taught you that you can do anything. Keep that amazing sense of humor it will help you get through life. We are always here to love and support you in everything you do. Have fun next year and remember we will miss you and we love you!

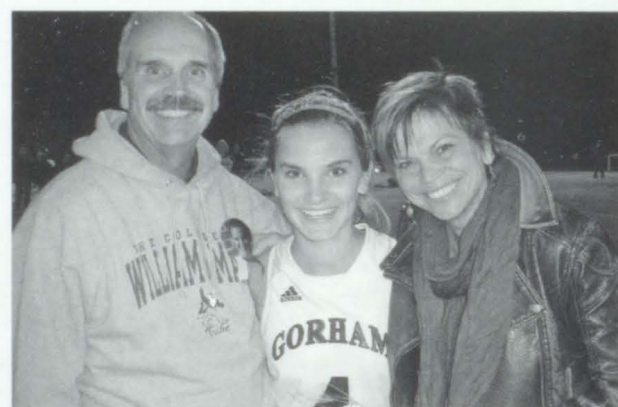

Love Mom, Dad, Whitney and Morgan

Determined, focused, resourceful...that was you from the start. You amazed us early on with your intellectual curiosity, your creative and capable ways and your motivation to make things happen once you set your mind to it. We are so proud of all that you have achieved and predict that your future accomplishments are limitless. We wish you the best and hope your dreams become reality. Continue to be exceptional!

With love always, Mom and Dad

"I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known." (unknown)

A- I'm so proud of everything you have accomplished in the past 18 years of your life. I'm really glad I was born first because I'm pretty sure I could have never lived up to everything you have done. I always enjoyed telling the teachers "Don't worry my sister is much smarter". I will always remember all the times we made fun of mom and dad; how you had to look good even if we were going to feed the calves at the barn; how you made sure the family looked acceptable when we went out in public; how you always correct my spelling errors and all of the great times we had growing up as farm kids. Thanks for all the laughs, fashion advice and the memories. Have a great time at college A, and continue to be amazing.

Love, Ashley

"I smile because you are my sister, I laugh because there is nothing you can do about it!"

Ryan-
We are all so proud of you!

We know your creativity, integrity, individuality, imagination and talent will lead to wonderful opportunities and experiences.

You have always been a joy.

Love from Dad, Mom and all your family.

Josh Rowe

Your Dad, your Mom, and Gram are very proud of you.

Katie Flanders

Dear Katie,
We are so proud of the person you are. You've grown into an amazing young woman. Your responsibility, hard work, and dedication are an inspiration. You are a wonderful daughter and sister.

Live your dreams. Your family will always be your roots and your wings.

We love you so much,
Mom, Dad, Sarah, Eli and Esther.

Matt Dahms

Matthew, you have been one of our greatest blessings. It is an honor to be your parents and to have watched you grow over the past 18 years. We are incredibly proud of you. You have worked harder than most for the past twelve years of school and overcame every challenge you faced. You are one of the kindest, most sensitive, caring and generous individuals I know and those qualities have made you the honorable young man you are today. Always be that person. Your charm and sense of humor define you. Never stop believing in yourself and live your life to the fullest. You have exceeded every expectation we had for you and more; be proud of your accomplishments and the person you've become. As you graduate from high school and put this major milestone behind you, look forward to the journey ahead and always remember how very much we love you! Love, Mom and Dad.

Matt, I remember the day you were born and I was legitimately angry that all I got was a set of matchbox cars. Years later...after moving to college and until I didn't have to put up with you every single day, I realized I was actually pretty lucky to have you as a brother. You and I have been through a lot, probably more than most brothers, and we've certainly given Mom and Dad plenty of reasons to grow gray hair, but they haven't kicked us out yet so we must be doing something right. All jokes aside, I am proud to call you my brother. You always find a way to see the positive in every obstacle that comes your way and you're a great kid with an even greater heart. Keep being the guy you've turned out to be and you'll do just fine. Follow in my footsteps and you'll do even better. Stand up for what you believe in and don't ever let anybody tell you that you can't do something. Make the most of each and every opportunity you're given in life and work as hard as you possibly can, because I'll tell you right now, it all goes by way too fast. I'm proud of you for making it as far as you have buddy and I know you'll continue to go further with whatever you choose to do. Thanks for everything. Love, Jon.

Ashley Gaudette

Dear Ashley-

It is hard to believe that it is time for you to graduate from high school. We aren't really certain where the time has gone. It seems like just yesterday that you were our little girl. We are very proud of the young woman that you have become. We can always count on you to be a thoughtful, caring person. You have an infectious personality and you are certainly a girl that likes to have a good time with her friends.

While we don't know what the future holds for you, please take advantage of every opportunity and make the best of your future. You are a bright, beautiful, fun loving girl and we wish you nothing but the absolute best in everything that you attempt in life.

We are always here for you and will help and encourage you in any way that we can. We love you more than words can describe. Thank you for being a great daughter! Best of luck with all your future plans!!

Love Mom and Dad

Thank you for always being there for me and bringing me where ever I needed to go. I couldn't ask for a better big sister. I love you! Have fun in college! Love, Julia.

Ash- We have been through a lot of stuff together and we have a ton of amazing memories! You are more than just a cousin to me, you are more like a sister. I hope you enjoyed your high school years! Love you!! -Melon

Ashley- You've become a big part of my life. You do so much for me and I will always look up to you. I wish you nothing but the best! Love you, Kayli.

Mitchell Sawyer

Mitchell,

We cannot believe it is time for you to graduate! You have been inquisitive since you were born. Exploring and playing with Eric and Amanda you've always loved new things. Being the third child wasn't always easy, but you made sure you got your share (even if it took a rolling pin to get it!) It is exciting for us all to see you leave high school and we can't wait to watch you explore bigger things and exciting places!

We all agree that there is no one kinder than you. You have such empathy for everyone - your family, your friends, everyone around you. We know you're going to go and make the world a better place. We're so proud to be your family, and thankful for all that you bring to us.

We love you and will always be behind you always!

Mom, Dad, Eric & Amanda

Alexandra Sturgis

To our wonderful Allie... we can't believe all of these years have flown by so quickly. Where did they go? From that teeny little baby we called our "Peanut", to a confident, wonderful young woman, ready to take on the world! So many great memories... camping at Kidney Pond, the Schoodic Lake cabin, hiking in Gulf Hagas and NH, StoryLand, Santa's Village, DisneyWorld, Indian Point, biking around town, piano lessons, singing, singing, singing, skiing all over, swimming all summer long, ice skating on our backyard rink, driving to Schoolhouse last summer, and many family trips like San Diego, Yellowstone, and Wolfcreek.

You have proven yourself to be the most self-motivated person we know, wanting to do everything possible to fill your days. We have had the time of our lives watching you grow up; wowing the audience in Music Man, scoring goals in field hockey, and sitting on your bed and hearing all about your day. We are so proud of you, and we can't wait to see what you do with your life! We love you, Allie... and boy will miss you! Love, Mommers & Daddy

We've had some pretty good times over the years like skiing together and lots of trips. Hope you have a good time in college! Love, Colby

Larissa Worster

From the moment God blessed us with you, you have been a blessing to us. You add a joy to our home each day, just by being you.

It has been a privilege to watch you grow and share in those moments that are life - holding your hand when you needed, and letting it go when you were ready - anxiously watching at first, then beaming proudly as you conquered another milestone.

Another moment has come, and as you begin your adult life we will let go again, knowing you are ready to make your way and will reach all the milestones you set for yourself.

We love you and are so proud of you, and may God continue to bless you Larissa

With all our love,

Mom, Dad, and Julian

Dear Rissa,

It's been 17 years and 7 months since you were born its been 11 years and 7 months that I have known you. 11 years isn't that much time compared to other numbers. But now time has passed and you're graduating from high school (lucky), and you now have to leave me with Mom and Dad (thanks) alone so you better turn out to be a great Doctor. Remember your life's plan I made for you (get rich+ hire a maid+ cook) I hope you enjoy whatever college you go to and enjoy your brand new path you're starting in your life. Make sure you make the right turns on your life's path but knowing you, you'll make a few mistakes on the road ahead. P.S. GOOD LUCK!!

Cortlandt Dunn

Dear Cortlandt,

It has been great being your brother. I want to congratulate you in your academic success and for all of the other feats you have accomplished. With each day that passes, I realize more and more that you are going to college next year. I want to let you know that I am going to miss you when you go to college. Best of luck!

Connor

Cortlandt

Over the years you have become such a wonderful young man and it has been amazing to be part of that journey. We are so proud to be your parents. Now a new chapter begins, so dream big and continue to be the best you can be, you won't be disappointed! A bright future awaits you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Emalee Esty

We can't believe the time has come to sit and reflect on the last 18 years. It is unbelievable how quickly time has flown. It has been a joy to watch you grow and become the young woman that you are today. We have laughed, we have cried, we have shared so many wonderful memories. We look forward to watching you continue to fulfill your dreams and do all that you have your heart and mind set on. We are always here for you and will continue to support you on the amazing journey you have ahead of you. We know you will continue to make us proud!

Nate,
It seemed like only yesterday that you were learning to walk. Now you are graduating from high school and are off to college. You have some great memories of high school to take with you especially of your soccer and track events. Go, learn and experience new adventures. We are so proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Adam, and Travis

Nick Chabot

Nick-
Kudos on achieving this milestone in your journey of life! We are incredibly proud of your tenacity in hurdling the obstacles that you have been presented. We know that you will soar even higher in years to come. Share your passion of health and wellness to all that welcome it! Don't be afraid to take risks and challenge yourself outside of your comfort zone. And always remember, we will be there for you!

Love--Mom, Dad, Zack, and Riley!!

Carter Bowers

Carter,
It seems like yesterday that your school journey began, and here you are at graduation!

You have always had a genuine joie de vie, and your big personality has amazed, entertained, inspired, and yes, frustrated us, but it has always been a great source of pride and wonder for us as well.

It has been such a pleasure to watch you grow, cheer you on, and follow you in your many passions. But most of all, it is a gift to simply be your family. You have a magnetic personality, a wonderful sense of humor, a winning smile, and a huge heart. You also have much to offer the world, and we can't wait to support you as you take your place in it. Please know that we are your biggest fans and are here to support you, guide you, catch you, and celebrate with you as you reach toward your many goals.

We love you "this big" and are excited for the next phase of your journey!

With all our love,
Mom, Dad, and MacKenzie

Jesse Tyler Orach.....
Our pride and joy,

You have reached yet another milestone in life. Over the past 18 years you have brought so much joy to our lives as we watched you grow. Each step along the way, all those "firsts" were not only for you....but for us too!!! Our firstborn was teaching us....how to be parents. First as an infant then as a toddler, came many sleepless nights. You learned to walk and talk. Your baby teeth came and they went...leaving priceless smiles. Next that little boy was in school. You learned to read, ride a bike, and discovered the world of sports...that became a passion you took seriously. As you grew and reached those teenage years there came more responsibility and with that came times of tough decisions. Those middle school years were stepping stone to where you are today.

Over your four years of high school you managed to maintain a balance of academics, sports, family, friendships, and work. Faced sometimes with tough decisions you always seem to make the right choice and because of your commitment, you have had great success without ever having to be "pushed". We are so proud of your maturity and your determination to do your best.

As a "big" brother you have paved the way for Ethan to grow. Your excellent values will be what he will unknowingly take from you and for that we thank you. He will miss having his big brother around, not at first, but will later realize what brothers are....family, thus the reason we continued to remind you both that you are brothers forever so....get along!!! One day you both will treasure those years together and you both will understand what that "get along" and "brother thing" was all about.

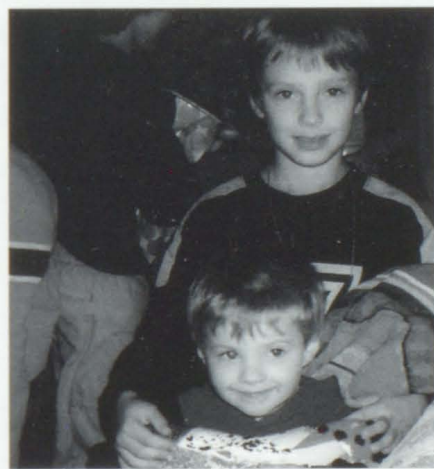

Now as you prepare for the next milestone in your life, we know you will continue to have great success. Keep making good choices and continue with your values and commitment to do a good job. These are all fine traits and they will take you many places in life, While on this journey you will flourish and you will shine in whatever you pursue. Godspeed.

"Wherever you go, go with all your heart."

Confucius

We are so proud of you and we wish you all the best in life.
With all our love,

Mom, Dad, and Ethan

Mark Anthony Ridgeway II

Mark Anthony,
WOW - Look at you!!! I can't believe my little boy is all grown up. It seems like just yesterday you were playing with you Dragon Ball Z figures and match box cars. I am so incredibly proud of the person that you have become. I am so lucky to be your mom. You continue to amaze me with you kind and caring heart. You have always been there to brighten my everyday. I smile just thinking of the things you are going to accomplish in life, so go forth and attack life, I know you will do great things. I Love you!

Mom

Congratulations, Play Ball. Love, Rob

Son,

I hope you know how proud and honored I am to be your dad. You've blessed my life in more ways than I could have imagined. It seems like yesterday I was coaching your rec league soccer team and building pine wood derby cars; now you drive your own! You've become a strong and caring young man that any dad would be proud of. As you travel the rest of your days, I want you to remember to always be confident, love unconditionally, and conduct your life with the utmost integrity; these things will always take you where you need to be. Congratulations Mark Anthony Ridgeway II

I love you,

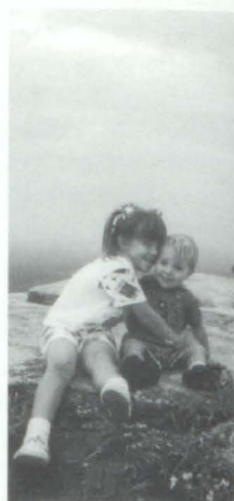

Dad

Mark Anthony Ridgeway II,

I cannot believe my baby brother is graduating. You grew up so quick. Although you may be my baby brother you have always been my protector from all of life's ordeals and I wouldn't have it any other way. I know that no matter what you choose to do in life, you will do spectacular. Have fun and enjoy your life after high school. Sissy would be so proud of who her baby brother has become as am I. I love you Mark!, Kait

Mark, Congrats on graduating. If anybody knows how hard it is to get to this point, it's me. High school isn't easy, but you were successful and will be in whatever you choose to do. When we were kids and Kait and Cass were mean to us, we always had each other. I'll always have your back, bro. Love Ya, Jas

Mark, AKA Farkus, Mark Anthony RidgewayII, Mark Anthony Ridgeway Kenneth, or Mark Ridgeway Sniper: I can't believe you are already graduating and becoming an adult. It doesn't seem possible! I'm so glad that I only had one brother and it was you. You definitely held true to the "love-hate brother-sister" relationship, but I wouldn't have had it any other way. Congratualtions! You've worked hard and you deserve it. Love always, Cassie

Hunter Wing

Hunter,

It seems like yesterday that your father and I were heading down the road to the hospital on Father's Day to have you and now you're graduating.

You have grown from a little boy that liked to play with his tonka trucks to a wonderful, caring, dependable, loyal, amazing young man.

Your father and I are very proud of the man you have become and feel very blessed.

Congratulations!

Love always and forever

Mom, Dad, and Shayla

Sierra Peters

Congratulations Sierra (aka Sisil, Si, Sis)
12 years of school; what great memories you have had made. It has been an absolute joy watching you grow into such an independent young lady over these years. You continue to teach us how simple life can be. Your direct, quiet (often blunt) sense of humor continues to make us laugh. Your cute shyness we still adore. Selfishly, we are glad you have been somewhat of a home body and less of a social butterfly. It has given us a chance to spend more time with you. We will carry with us fond memories of you playing soccer, boot camps, shopping, pedicures, watching Survivor, and just chilling! And, of course, you putting your clothes out for the entire school week on Sunday nights! I will remember your parent teacher conferences, year after year, teachers saying "we'd like her to participate more in class." Dad and I would look at each other and say "that will never happen" :) I don't think it ever did. As we reflect on your school years we are reminded that it has been very easy to be your parents. Thank You! Your needs are simple and minimal. You have good judgement, you are honest and open, and you have learned from your mistakes. Your independence continues to grow and shine and it will soon be an even greater asset to you. We look forward to what your college years have in store for you and know that you will be successful at whatever you chose to do. You are very strong willed and when you set your mind to something the world had better watch out! We are so very proud of you Sierra. We love you. (period)
Mom and Dad

Dear Sissy,

I can't believe that you are graduating! I am so lucky to have you as a sister. You have taught me a lot about life and never hesitate to tell me what you think and how you feel. Though at the time I may not have liked to hear some things, in the end you are the one that has had the courage to be completely honest and it's that honesty that has helped me to become a better person. Thank you for always trying to keep me organized and on time, even if it doesn't always happen. :) You are the best sister in the whole world. I will always be here for you wherever your life might take you. I hope you always follow your dreams, don't let anything get in your way. I have no doubt you will do well in college and beyond. You are very independent, honest, organized, direct and keep things real; with these traits you will be successful in life! I might be the "big" sister, but I certainly look up to you! You're not only my sister, but you're also my best friend, and will always be.

Love,

Your Favorite Sister

Lindsey Anne Smith

We can't believe that we have reached this point in your life already Lindsey where you are graduating and ready to head to college. Looking at these pictures, your dad and I can hardly believe that it is time for you to leave us and make your way out in the world. You have been an incredible daughter, and we know that being the middle sister was not always easiest for you. You met it head on, and rose above and beyond what we expected of you, and you have done that consistently your whole life. You are a true friend to your sisters, and you are an amazing role model for both of them. As parents, your dad and I are your biggest fans. We are awed by your intellect, your humor, your athletic ability, your compassion, your humility, your undying loyalty to your friends and family, and your unbridled passion to always want to know more. As your pediatrician once told us, "Don't break this child's spirit, just firmly mold it, and you'll be amazed at what she'll accomplish." Truer words were never spoken. You are a God Send to us. Please always remember what the best part of an Oreo cookie is. We love you with all our hearts. Mom, Dad, Katie, and Emma.

Lia Van de Krol

You have grown up to be such a sweet, faithful, beautiful, young woman. You have so many talents and have already been successful in so many ways. We have thoroughly enjoyed your music, dancing and acting. It has been a tremendous blessing having you for a daughter and sister! We know that you will continue to excel in college and we wish you much happiness as you begin the next chapter in your life. We are so proud of you and we love you very much! Love Mom, Juliana, Peter and Luke.

Leanna Dalfonso

Leanna,
Since we first held you in our arms, you have brought us such tremendous joy. We have watched you grow into a lovely, talented, and capable young woman. As you embark on this new chapter in your life, know that we could not be more proud of you. We know your future is bright and beautiful. We love you!

Martin Soper

It seems like just yesterday that we were picking you up at daycare and singing the song we made up with you. Remember the "Marty Boo Boo Bear" song? Now you are off to college. We are so proud of the man you have become. Open you wings and fly. Follow those dreams you have and never lose the fun side that makes you who you are.

We love you,

Mom, Dad and Travis

Nate Holloran

Nate,

We are so proud of the young man you have become and we look forward to your future, where we are sure you will excel. We are thankful you have gathered all the good qualities together that make you who you are. It is from those of affection, joy of life, thoughtfulness and caring of others as well as wholesomeness, intelligence and an awesome sense of self that will help guide you and ensure your success.

We have enjoyed watching you grow from wearing the yellow pj's and skipping down the big white house steps to the living room at Christmas time - yelling Basketball - to the graduation of pre-school, to moving to Gorham and settling in, to learning to play all those sports. You have brought us so much pleasure sharing in these times. We always remember driving you to all the travel hockey games and tournaments. Remember the trip when the housekeeper came in while the whole team was crammed in one room watching Borat? She didn't know what to do! And remember how it was always snowing on the way to Sukee Arena! We also loved camping and hiking with you. Building a backyard ice rink was a true test of family love and support!!

Learning lacrosse with you was really fun - amazing to see you in goal there too. But most of all we are proud of your decision to go to college for engineering. You have such an awesome need to search the "how's if things." We cannot wait to see how your future plans out!

We love you lots, Mom and Dad

Natey,

I really do not even know where to begin this... You are my little brother and always will be but more than that you are one of my best friends. Growing up and having a tag along who was 3 years younger used to drive me crazy. Now I would not change that for anything. I am glad that you and I have such a great brother/sister bond. I love that when you have a day off from school and I am home you will spend time with me just because. I hope that you going off to college does not change that bond, I never want to loose this friendship that we have. I will never forget those afternoons playing 1 on 1 on the backyard rink. Having you help me with my hockey skills and sharing that love has been the best. I can't believe it is already time for you to graduate high school. It seems like just yesterday I was driving you to school as a freshman. You have grown so much and you have matured into an amazing young man. I am so proud to call you my little brother. Good luck in college. I love you!

Nanna

P.S. Make sure to still call me just to tell me random facts I know I act like it drives me crazy but getting a phone call from you just to tell me something about the Honda makes my day!

Bri Custeau

To our Daughter Bri: From the moment you began to walk at the early age of seven months, we knew you would be more than ready for life's challenges. As we reflect back through the 18 years of being so fortunate to have you as our daughter, we recall so many memories.

YOUR HABITS: Pacing around the kitchen island to the living room and back, Biting your nails, Having to have the T.V. on to fall asleep.

INJURIES: Spilt your head open while wrestling with Eric, Broke your nose during softball practice.

SCARY EXPERIENCES: Being driven in a car as a baby, Wandering over to the neighbors at the age of 2 while Nana, Dad and Mom searched everywhere for you, Terrified at the age of 4 at Universal Studios real life introduction to "Twister", Going for your drivers license.

VACATIONS: Cruises: Pirate Parade, Shirley Temple drink, maraschino cherries, "Pretty girl want a braid?" and sharing a cabin with Nana. Florida- Medieval Times, Sea World, Epcot, Universal Studios. Jamaica- Beaches Resort, Rick's Cafe.

Thanksgiving at Anthony and Jess's in New York. Camping- "Twin Rivers, Two oceans, Oh yeah "Two Lakes" :) Cathedral Pines, Biking to Pines Market, Eustis Ridge, walking to the beach at night, Moose searching, playing knockout, volleyball, & badminton, "Get Useless in Eustis!"

UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS: You and your brother going in the closet to hide then realizing the door was locked from the outside so you both pounded on the door to get out, :) Making up your own words to a song like; "I Want to Live Like "Cannonballs", Careless and Free Like "Cannonballs", "I don't like the "Oke" of the egg", Neighborhood Easter egg hunts, Winning the Kids Fun Run races, Father & Daughter dances, Your Dad coaching your sport teams for soccer, basketball and softball (Cal Ripken Champs), 16th Birthday Party with great friends -- Beach house, Limo ride, bowling, eating at Jimmy the Greeks, swimming and walking around OOB, staying up all night, Christmas of 2010 -- The "Unstoppable Flu", The Induction to the National Honor Society, Throwing Grapes and Cocoa Puffs at each other in the house, Growing up with Meggie and Toby, "I'm going to fail my quiz/test!", Having Nana live with us to help raise you into an honest, giving, humorous, intelligent, special, confident, family oriented individual.

Here are a few words of wisdom and encouragement as you venture out to future endeavors: Always be true to yourself, continue to keep family and friends an important part of your life, make financially sound decisions and believe that the goals you strive to set today are attainable with dedication. We are proud of the person you have become Bri, we will always be here for you and we love you so very much!

Drew Hopkins

We knew these years would fly right by, but it seems like only yesterday that we were bringing you home from the hospital (driving 15 mph), holding our breath as you took your first steps, cheering as our 3 year-old rode a two-wheeler for the first time, and watching through clouded vision as you climbed onto that big, yellow school bus for your first day of school. Now, here we are, facing down the final months as you prepare to embark on an exciting new chapter in your life, one without our constant presence.

There are too many precious memories to list, but these are some of our most cherished: lots and lots of books - Curious George, Harry Potter & the author Roald Dahl got us through many long car rides (especially the BFG and "whiz popping"); the millions of soccer road trips; Beaver Cove boating & snowmobiling with Nana & Grandpa; summer-time sailing & exploring the islands of Maine; Acadia and our 15 years of camping on Somes Sound; Hilton Head vacations with Grammie & Bion; counting silos on that endless road trip to Niagara Falls with your cousins; cheering for the Gorham Rams (oh, how we will miss it!!); the year Santa delivered Eli to us (and the many hilarious doggy capers that ensued!); amazing ski vacations & so many wonderful times shared with our dear family and friends; and who could forget the infamous Root Beer episode on our trip to D.C.?

Drew, we are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments, and you have brought us more joy than you will ever know. Thank you for the years of laughter, for keeping us on our toes, and for being the best son & big brother that we could have hoped for. We cannot wait to see what the future holds in store for you. Dream big, pursue your passions, and learn from your mistakes.

We love you to the moon and back, and we will always be here when you need us (and even when you don't). Now, go set the world on fire!

Love,
Mom, Dad & Kate

Alyssa Cormack

Alyssa,

Since the day you were born, I knew you were destined to do great things. As a cute infant, you were pleasant and cooed more than cried. As a silly toddler, you were more determined than helpless. As a pretty school girl, you were focused and courageous. As a beautiful young woman, embarking on an adventurous future, you do an always will make me proud to be your mother.

I know that whatever you choose to do in life, you will do it with grace, charm, intelligence, vigor, and spunk. You are beautiful inside and out. My wish for you is that you never forget to always live for today. Don't look back now, the world awaits you.

Go out and enjoy what life has to offer, and remember that your family will always be there for you when you need a break.

You are one of my two greatest creations. I love you very much.

Congratulations Alyssa!!! Love, Mom

Sissy,

I've watched you grow from a little girl to a stunning young woman. You've worked extremely hard your whole life and this is your moment to shine and celebrate. I couldn't be more proud of you. Not only are you the smartest person I've ever met, but the most genuine and beautiful inside and out. You have changed my life in a way that nobody will ever understand. You are my role model and my best friend. We've laughed together and we've cried together, but mostly we laughed. Those are the moments I'm going to miss the most about you always being around. Go on and change people's lives the way you've done for me because the truth is anybody who gets to meet you is truly privileged. You're amazing, and I love you so much!

Audrey Adkison

Audrey,

I wrote this when I was in Africa, but the power went off before I could send it and so I think now will be as good as ever a time to give it to you. It was initially about your play off game in soccer, but I think it may be able to be useful for whatever happens in your life.

"Aud I love you and miss you so much! Ahhh you're going to completely win playoffs! Aud this is your passion- be excellent in everything you do baby sister, even though I already know you do that anyway (something that has always inspired me to be a better person)! But when you are in that game and your blood is pumping and your heart is beating hard and you feel like you're doing what you were made to do, just know that the God of the universe did create you for that moment. You were created for that moment when you hit the ball at just the right spot, just the right amount of power and it just sails to the place where you wanted to go, and God rejoices with you. But you weren't just created for that moment. The moment when you are alone in your room and reading the Bible, He rejoices with you. You were created for the moment when you play with kids at the root cellar. You were created for such a beautiful purpose, so never lose the joy of a moment. I love you more that I can express sister, know that we are connected not just by blood, but also by the beautiful Spirit of God. Oh and Johnny, Mom and Dad love you too : P

Your Sis,

Haleigh Turner

We cannot believe this day has come, it was just like yesterday you were a curly haired little girl running around, we blinked and you were all grown up. We are so very proud of the beautiful young lady you have become and all that you have accomplished. You have a bright future ahead of you and we know that with the good head on your shoulders and your determination that you show us all your dreams will come true... This is your beginning to a bright and fulfilling future!

Congratulations Baby Girl!!

Taryn Kaczmarek

Taryn, your compassion reveals a kind heart, your love of animals is a direction to your future, strength has been who you are from the beginning, your sense of fun is endearing (although Molly does not enjoy having her face puffed on and I'm sure that Skittles does not enjoy those slaps you say he likes!) I'm so very proud of you: the person you are, the way you navigate your life's desires, your honesty and compassion, how you handle the frustrations in your life, and how open you are to hear another's words and to take advice. To be part of your growing has been my most amazing experience. I wish for you many more laughs, a love that is a match made solely for you, children to enrich your life, and always, always, listen to and follow your heart! Shine On! Looovvveee you!!

Jeanette Villanueva

Jeanette,

We are so very proud of you; you are an amazing young lady and we admire the person you are becoming-you're strong, you're beautiful, you're smart, and you have a big, kind heart and you will always have our support and encouragement in whatever you choose to do and you have us believing you can do what you want to do!! We love you forever and we wish you all the love in the world!!!! This is your time go for it!!! Love always!!

Mom&Dad

Jeanette,

I'm going to miss you so much when you leave, but I know all I have to do is call or text you and you'll be at my side. We've been through so much together, like if I needed advice with something or if we just wanted to talk! I'm so glad that we became so close. It's so funny how eventually your dad just gave up and started calling me his second daughter, even though we were calling each other our sister way before that! I'm going to miss you like crazy! It's not going to be the same without you, but I know we'll call each other all the time! Anyway, I just wanted to say that your my advice giver, my best friend but most importantly my sister! Love you! - Carly

Samantha Grant

Congratulations on a job well done and another step forward in your journey thru life! We are so very proud of you and who you have become. We have watched you grow from being the little girl who wanted to wear dresses and tights but still play in the mud to the beautiful young woman that you are today. We have enjoyed watching your competitiveness in the show ring whether it be with your cows, sheep, or pigs and on the ice playing hockey. We appreciate all of your help here on the farm and especially the fact you could see what needed to be done and would do it without being asked. Those traits will take you far in life. Always be true to yourself.

And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home And when you finally fly away (we'll) be hoping that (we) served you well but what ever road you choose (we're) right behind you, win or lose. (Adapted from a song by Bob Dylan and Rod Stewart)

Taylor Hansen

Taylor,
 Congratulations! We are very proud of you!
 You have grown into a beautiful, compassionate, hard-working young woman. It's hard to believe that you are the same little girl we watched get on the bus for her first day of kindergarten (as I cried my way to work that day).
 We have so many great memories. One of our favorites includes a James Taylor CD played at maximum volume! Others were watching you in your pageant, the Jr. Grizzlies mascot days, cheering, softball, volleyball and many years of dance competitions :)

You are extremely talented and we know you'll succeed at whatever you do in life. We'll be right here to cheer you on in your journey.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ryan and Joey

In my daughter's eyes, I can see the future,
 A reflection of who I am and what will be,
 And though she'll grow and someday leave,
 Maybe raise a family, When I'm gone I hope you can see,

How happy she made me, For I'll be there, In my daughter's eyes

Becca Becca,

I am so grateful to be so very blessed being your mom. My sweet baby girl, time has gone by way too fast. I want to be a part of everything you experience so please share even though I am not in the same room. Call or text me! You have so much to offer the world I look forward to see what your choices will be. You are absolutely amazing and only bring a new level of greatness to the world. Journal your dreams! The world is a playground -swing high! And please as you go and face all these new adventures remember to... take chances! Word hard! Play hard! Squeak your shoes! Keep your eyes wide open! Laugh out loud! Love large! Cry! Scream! Dance! Sing! Trust yourself! Look- See! Be crazy! And I love you Always! You are NEVER alone! Mom

Becca,

Oh boy.. what to say.. Well hey, how are you? You think your cool graduating high school huh? Well I hope you know its been a pleasure being a part of your life so far. It's been fun harassing you at home and spending time with you and the rest of the family. You should know your kindness and compassion towards everything will lead you far in college and with the rest of your life and I can't wait to hear about your success. I would say your my favorite sister but I don't like you that much.. sorry! Love you Becca, congrats on the four years in high school and I'm very proud of you.

Jon

Becca Boo, I can't believe you are graduating from High School. It seems just like yesterday you were pretending to sleep while Mom was brushing your teeth. I'm proud of you. Stay true to yourself and you will be amazing. Keep your nose in the books. I love you.

Dad

Becca, I can't believe time has gone so fast that now you're graduating. I remember when we were looking for the pink Barbie shoe in the green house. I'm starting off by saying you are the bestest friend a person could ever ask for. I trust you so much and I love that about you. I know I can always look up to you, because your're the best role model a person can have. I know we have had our differences, but we make up in two seconds to be best friends again. Also you made the best roommate possible. I love always sharing the same room, you always comfort me when I am scared. I hope you never lose the good positive attitude you have because that's what I admire most. You can always handle Jon's jokes better than I will ever be able to do. This type of attitude will most definitely take you far. Although I won't like college taking you away from me, I know you should probably go. I hope it treats you well, if not it won't go so smoothly with me. I love you more than words can describe.

Love your Frech twin (French Irish)

Amanda!

Becca, I've had such a great time, growing up, going to the movie's, going anywhere really, it couldn't be any better then it ever was. I don't think I could live without a sister like you. I remember the time you, Manda and I (I think) were standing outside at the end of the driveway, waiting for the bus and you were in first grade (maybe). I always say to my friends now I'm going to tell you "Great times, make great memories." Now there been so many great times, and the memories have been building to the point where I can't remember when. I have forgotten so many good memories, but other good times reminded me of memories, memories I'm honored to share with you. I love you so much, and I hope you have a wonderful time in college.

Your great brother

Ben.

Becca, Where do I even begin? Words can't even describe how incredibly lucky I am to have such a amazing, beautiful sister. You are and always have been the most sincere and kind person I know. You inspire me every day. You see the good in everything and that is more valuable than anything you could possibly learn at school. I am so happy to have you not only as my sister, but as my best friend. You are truly amazing and I am so excited to see what life has to bring you. I love you so much little sister!

Kellen Adolf

Since the day you were born, you have been fiercely true to yourself. Whether bucking trends or moving with them, you have done everything your own way and in your own time. It has been wonderful watching you become such an interesting, complex person. We can't wait to see how you will answer the question, "Would you rather be...." You have made us happy every day since you were born

Our Sammy, Bam Cunningham, Sam I Am, or just simply Sam!

How the time has flown by since you started as a freshman and uncertain about what high school was all about! You have continued to amaze us with your beautiful artistic ability and we know one day you will be the shining star that Disney has been waiting for!! The way you can find beauty in everything you touch and do is simply a gift given to you! We are so proud of the responsible young woman you have become and hope you continue to work towards your goals that make you happy in life! We know you will do great things, can't seem possible otherwise!! We have had the pleasure of watching you through the years with playing field hockey and softball, school plays, cheerleading and competitive cheering, and ultimately becoming a GHS Football Cheering Spirit Captain this year!! You have such a beautiful, bright spirit and we hope you continue to shine that light on others in all the areas of your life!!! There aren't enough words Sammy for us to tell you how we feel, but we think you already know!!!! We are so happy for you to start this new venture in your life and always know we will be there to help guide and support you no matter what the future holds! Congratulations Sammy on a job well done and for being "THE FIRST DAHLBORG CHILD OF GORHAM TO GRADUATE" as said by Dad every single event (see Polar Express)!

We love you, Mom and Dad and Gabriel

Sammy you have always been an inspiration to me. You always wear the best clothes, you have the best advice, and you are someone that cares about your little sister. Everyday you always do something cool to my hair. It shocks everybody that sees it. Then I get to brag to my friends and tell them my big sister did it! We have been room-mates forever. Soon it's going to be weird knowing you are going to be gone. I love you Sammy, and I know that amazing things are going to happen to you in your future. Just don't forget to bring your little sister along!

From, Your favorite little sister in the whole world, Haylee!

Sammy!!

I love you soooo much. For the most part you are a pretty good role model ;) and you help me all the time, whether it's Spanish or Spotify! You're a great athlete, awesome dancer, great cheerleader. Personally I think you should have played softball longer, but that's just me;). You are a beautiful person inside and out, and you bring so much love to our already loving family. Thanks for being a great role model for me, and I will certainly use what you have taught me from the past!

Kiersten Turner

Kiersten Morison Turner....

Our Beautiful, Little Ghoul. My how the time has flown! Born on a snowy Halloween night, what a proud moment for your father and I! it seems like yesterday, that we were hanging out in Westport, NY with Jane and Shaw and now, 18 years and 8 months later, you are graduating from Gorham High School.

We want you to know that we have enjoyed spending every minute of our time with you... from soccer, to basketball, to track... from an aggressive, little girl to the likeable leader who both teammates and friends can rely on... from the grinding dances to winter carnival to prom... from very first date to the absolute love of your life.... from an anxiety ridden sophomore with shingles to a very confident senior with a strong sense of self... We've seen it all from you Kiersten and we consider it a privilege to have been included in ever single second of your life.

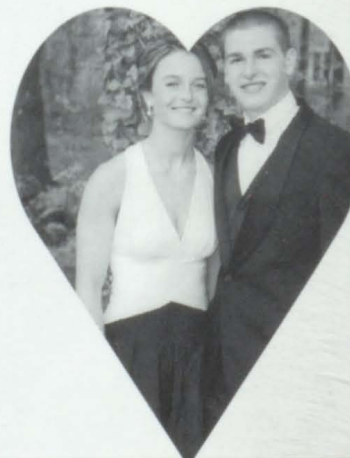

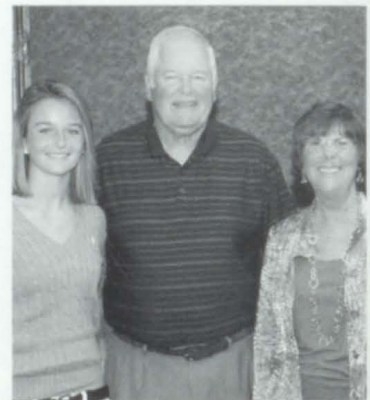

GHS has produced COUNTLESS memories with friendships that you will treasure forever. Understand this, you've got a lifetime of memories in front of you. Our advice to you is this: Set Your Sights High, Have Fun, and GO GET IT KID... with your work ethic and drive, you can achieve anything.

As you move forward, we wish you the very best that life has to offer. Stay true to your word, it is your most valuable possession. Keep your passion for success alive. As observers, it has been an HONOR to witness your love fro the game (of life) in action. THANK YOU for including us along the way. Please know that we are here for you always. We love you and are very proud of the individual that Kiersten Morison Turner has become.

Love Always,
Mom & Dad
Kiersten,

You are an amazing sister! You're a great athlete and always do well in school. I want to be just like you and work as hard as you do to achieve my goals just as you have. Although we have gotten into our little fights over silly things, we always get over them and forgive each other. I am sure you will do great things in college, whether it's in sports or academics! I am going to miss you Kiersten and I hope that you have a great time on your own!

Love,
Dylan

Steve Albanese

Steve,

Congratulations! We are so proud of you! You have matured into fine young man who is smart, caring, bright, witty, perceptive, fun and more. You've done well in school and have kept busy doing many activities. Not only lacrosse, hockey, baseball and track but also drumming, skiing, surfing, boating, scuba diving, biking, rock climbing, mixed martial arts - to name a few. We've enjoyed family outings with you - from apple picking to white-water rafting, etc.

Soccer has been a big part of your life - years of practice, travel, and games. We've seen you develop as an athlete - from Rec soccer to a strong GHS Varsity player. It's been fun watching you throughout the years!

Your calm, steady nature is wonderful. I have enjoyed our (your) talks so much. You have a lot to say - from philosophy and human nature to the universe and beyond. The depth of your thinking makes me pause on a busy day and....think!

Steve - your smile lights up a room, so smile often. Believe in yourself. Stay positive. Be happy. Be open to a lifetime of opportunities. We wish you the best in all you do!!!

We love you-

Mom and Dad

P.S. Call!!

Steven,

You inspiring words like "I am dumb" and "You'd be surprised" and the imitations, etc. have really helped me pull through over the years. Have a good time wherever you go, I'll miss those words and you.

Love, Diana (your SISTER)

Congratulations Steve! Go share yourself with the world and let the world inspire you and help you grow.

Love, Chrissy

Kevin Lubelczyk

Kevin: You are a son and brother whose ceaselessly up-beat personality and unrelenting zest for life have enriched us beyond measure. As we look back on your first phase of life and the joy-ful filled times we have spent together, you have many core qualities that come to mind.

-Healthy appetite: Can that child possibly want another bottle? BAAAA!!!

A man with his own style: A crown, a Wizard of Oz soundtrack CD, a half-dozen stuffed cats and a boisterous crowd of cousins make for an unforgettable 4th birthday party.

-Cultured: Piano lessons with Mrs. Pearl: a maestro in the making..... oh, well. Maybe we best remember your brilliant debut..... and final performance, in Stone Soup.

-Athletic: Basketball at Narragansett: Who needs a front tooth anyway? Endless fun and success in GYSA. Will GSB ever will the championship?

-Well-read: A rainy day at Manomet with nothing to do but read until..... 6 hours later, we knew that sirius was on our side.

-Fun-loving: Roof diving in St. Lucia, nearly losing Mikey in a blizzard at snowbird, endless poolside, dry daiquiris at Barcelo Maya (thank goodness for maid service)..... February vacations will never be the same without you!

-Competitive: Directing a frustated stag to the scoreboard after a freshman play-off triumph for the Rams. Traveling the eastern seaboard with the Odyssey and Phoenix teams. mastering the back flip at Sunday River; now that that is done, could we please agree never to do that again?

-Leadership: Senior Rec at Belknap and not a dry eye in the fire circle.

-Congenial: Befriending the neighborhood(s) while rip-sticking with Mia.

-Spirited: Four friends clad totally in orange after college weekend at SU. "Let's go back to THE FRAT!" Cheering on Colin and the fords before meeting the Haverford student body.

-Young-at-heart: Rediscovering a life-long love of crazy bones with your "little bro."

-Loyal: So many life-long friendships forged from your earliest days in Gorham

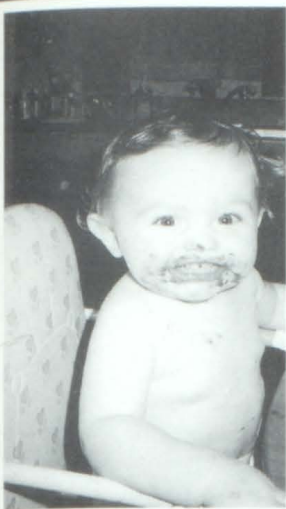

We are so proud of the fine man you have become. Congratulations on your graduation and know that we eagerly look forward to sharing each and every chapter of your life.

With love and best wishes,

Mom, Dad, Colin and Mikey

Connor Linehan

Connor,

I realize it is hard to believe, that me of all people would find it difficult, if not impossible to find the words that can adequately describe the respect, admiration and love I have for you.

Through the years, you have filled my life with a good deal of laughter, pride and as you well know, a tremendous sense of accomplishment based on all the trials and tribulations our family of three faced.....

As you fly out into the world to begin your next journey as a young man, I will always be here for you; to cheer you on, or to be a shoulder to lean on. It is important to remember to maintain your values, stay true to yourself and while you are reminiscing.... never lose sight of the man in the mirror.

Please remember to reflect on all your various accomplishments. You are a gifted young man with so many talents. You have an uncanny ability to balance your school work, Jukado (5 days out of 7 and sometimes 6 days out of 7) and still have some free time. You never cease to amaze me on so many levels and I am so proud to be your Mom.

As you proceed down the path you have chosen, no matter where that path leads, you will forever have my support.

With all my pride and love,
Mom
