Yearbook

Dear Gorham High School,

"There are no perfect men in the world; only perfect intentions." ~Azeem

I started this year with one intention, to create a yearbook that would perfectly capture the memories of 2015, something that people can hold onto forever. I believe that myself and everyone involved have succeeded. I know that our school has gone through some changes this year, but it was nothing we couldn't handle. We are rolling with the times and even with the differences within our school, we come together in a way that shows our unity.

"Certain flaws are necessary for the whole. It would seem strange if old friends lacked certain quirks." ~Goethe.

Some of you may flip through this book and discover flaws and imperfections, but to me you are finding the character that makes this book great. This yearbook was created by a group of imperfect people for a larger group of imperfect people making their way into this world.

I would like to thank the yearbook staff for all the hard work they put into this book of memories. It wouldn't be finished without them. To Ellen, our Jostens representative: thank you for understanding that it's hard to create a yearbook on snow days and for keeping us on the right path. To Mrs. AW: thank you for helping me every step of the way, for making my crazy ideas a reality and for emailing me back in my first year of high school when I was just a wide-eyed freshman wanting to help create a yearbook.

Every moment spent creating this book has been a privilege and I am pleased to share it with you all. I hope you enjoy and can still treasure this 30 years down the road.

Best of luck to next years editors and all of those in the future. Creating a yearbook takes a lot of hard work but in the end it is so worth it.

To all the graduates of Gorham High School's class of 2015; put your own mark on the world and enjoy because you all are worth it.

With respect,
Alyssa Theriault
Editor

Kim Bedrosian

The first time I ever met Mrs. Bedrosian she helped me figure out if I was going to be able to eat on the sophomore college visits. She did everything she possibly could to make sure there was a vegan option for me. She went out of her way for me. She does everything she can to help every student with anything they might possibly need whether it be college stuff or simple stuff like what to eat on a field trip. When I went into her office three times a day my junior year freaking out about random college stuff, she would assure me that it was all going to be okay. She cares about her the students as much as she cares about her own child. I think everyone in this class can attest to that. Thank you Mrs. Bedrosian for all you do for the students at Gorham High School.

Emma Christakis

Kim Bedrosian began working at Gorham High School in 2012 as our Post-Secondary Specialist. Each year, she invests a great deal of time and energy into ensuring the success of each member of the senior class. Counselors, by their very nature, put a lot of themselves into the services they provide to students, and Mrs. Bedrosian is no different. When beginning this new model of student services, we knew we'd need someone special to lead the way with post secondary planning. We have found that something special in Mrs. Bedrosian. She's extremely organized, driven and she offers just the right balance of seriousness and entertainment. The student services office at GHS represents the most forward thinking model of counseling services in the state of Maine, and as such we, the school counselors at Gorham High School, are proudly united in our work. We are thrilled that Mrs. Bedrosian is a key to making that happen.

In Memory Of... Branden Denis

Branden Denis was a silent, yet effective leader on and off the field. On the field, you knew that you could trust Branden to play smart, effective, and make the opposition fear him. In the weight room, he was always that one teammate, who wanted to help everyone around him succeed and work hard. By challenging myself and many other teammates on our team to try and out-lift what he was lifting, he always had his mind on competition. If anyone on the team was struggling through a practice, or having a rough game, Branden would always be the first teammate to go confront them, and encourage them, and motivate them to work and play hard. You could tell Branden anything, because you could trust him. He was a great teammate, and an even better man. The teammate who I, and many other players on our team looked up to, now watches down upon us and protects us. -Rob Pellerin

I will always remember you as a great friend and teammate. You were the hardest worker and I will always cherish the moments we had. "You'll always be with us." -Stephen Burns

Brandon was Cool, Calm, Collected always no matter what. Even through the toughest I could depend on his word, because with his word I got the actions. -Banza (Joe) Mutombo Words can't really describe how sad and broken I feel with you gone. You were the person I looked up to. You were one of the strongest people I've played with yet you had such a fun and relaxed personality. Everyday I think about you and it still hurts. I remember senior night, the last time I saw you. You weren't able to play because you were recovering from getting your wisdom teeth out. Minutes before the game started you came up to me and told me that this was the night. The night the entire team, the entire school had been waiting for. You kept my head on straight when I was getting frustrated. Finally, we won. The happiest moment of my life. You came up to me, hugged me, and said "I told you this was the night." At the end of the night I remember the very last thing I said to you. A simple sentence. "I'll see you Monday." Little did I know that it would be the last thing I'd ever say to you. You are Superman. I know you're up above protecting us all. One day the team will be together again, and when we are, I feel sorry for whoever gets in our way. Fly high. Rest easy Branden. You'll always be missed.

Forever your brother,
Trevor Nelson

Farewell

Ted Sharp

Superintendent Ted Sharp has ably served as the Superintendent of Gorham schools since 2004 and has now sadly decided to retire. Mr. Sharp has dedicated his entire professional life to education by serving as a teacher, assistant principal, principal, superintendent, assistant Dean at Boston University, assistant chief of staff to the national Secretary of Education, head of international schools, graduate professor at Framingham State, and of course leading our school district for the past eleven years. Mr. Sharp has united the five schools in our district behind the singular cause of preparing our students for the 21st century while also caring deeply for the affective needs of students. He guided us to make tough choices when we needed to through the recent recession; while never wavering from expecting the very best from the employees of Gorham schools. Mr. Sharp had high expectations, but at the same time he supported all of us through our own individual challenges and needs. Ted cherishes his family and we know he will continue to enjoy his grandchildren. As we consider his legacy after forty years in education, let's contemplate Ted Sharp's favorite quote from the film A Man for All Seasons:

~ Sir Thomas More: "Why not be a teacher? You'd be a fine teacher; perhaps a great one."
~ Richard Rich: "If I was, who would know it?"

~ Sir Thomas More: "You; your pupils; your friends; God. Not a bad public, that."
Superintendent Sharp, we the people of Gorham know it as well. Thank you for serving us. You will be deeply missed!!!

Robert Clark

Señor Clark has been a member of the GHS faculty for the past 28 years, first as a History/Spanish teacher, then later as a full-time Spanish teacher. He was able to share some of his time here with his beloved sons, Charlie and Will, while they were students at GHS.

When we first met, which was in his interview for a teaching position, I noticed that Señor carried with him a large tote bag. It seemed to be filled to the top with numerous cultural hispanic objects.

As he spoke with us, Señor began, one at a time, to remove the aforementioned objects from the bag. Among them were: "Paco the taco man", a serape that was with us for many years, puppets and woven items from Señor Clark's time with the Peace Corps in El Salvador.

In the years following, we came to know the "Mighty Mayan Pyramid", "Café los Pedro", and Charlton Heston as "El Cid", items produced from that magical bag.

Señor Clark led several student trips to Spain and Mexico. He also is proud to have developed a Spanish pen-pal program with Dover Foxcroft Academy. It has been an active for several years.

Outside GHS, Señor enjoys writing poetry and gardening, two activities he will surely pursue in the future, now that he will not have "Code Pink" to correct.

When I asked Señor Clark for parting words, he said

"Learn wherever you can-

It is enjoyable to look back over what you know."

Bob, as a very wise woman said to me: "We will not say goodbye, rather hasta la vista."

Vaya con Diós,
Deborah Roy

Mary Lysaght

Mary has been a wonderful part of our school for many years. Her kindness and compassion has helped many students. We will miss Mary's cheerfulness and sense of humor. Her wonderful accent and stories about Ireland made our days brighter. We will think of her each year on St. Patrick's Day. Mary, thank you for the years of service here at GHS and we wish you the best of luck in your retirement.

Fondly,
Instructional Support Services Staff

Dear Class of 2015,

I would like to begin by offering you all my sincere congratulations. It has been my absolute pleasure to serve as your advisor for the last four years. Having gotten to know most of you through class, sports, and even lunch duty, I can say that I have been in awe of your collective talent, resolve and generosity. Your accomplishments and contributions, both small and large, have left GHS a better place.

The path to graduation is not the same for every student. Many of you have overcome challenges in the classroom and in your personal lives to make it to this point. At times, graduation probably seemed a distant reality. The impressive piece is that you have all persevered, picked each other up, and forged ahead. Remember these challenges and triumphs, continue to learn from them, and the world will be yours.

Be kind, be yourself, and be engaged. Best of luck.

Mr. Welsch

In 2011, we walked into GHS nervous and unsure of what would befall us. Over the course of our four years here we have learned a great deal of content, experienced amazing things, and made lasting friendships. All of which will last beyond our school years. That is the goal of high school or any other academic institution you may attend, to develop relationships with the people around you and to learn from them, so that it will have a lasting effect on you. The effect of those relationships won't be temporary or a simple passing of a phase of some sort, but a lasting effect that will allow you to grow as an individual. Successful and accomplished individuals are not just born. They develop after substantial amounts of effort through strenuous tasks and learning from the achievements and failure of others.

We, as the Class of 2015, have certainly shown that we are a successful class and that we are able to learn from our previous mistakes. We have also shown that we are a hard working class. An example of this is when we were faced with the task of raising sufficient funds for our graduation. We overcame this task with effort and unity.

We, as the Class of 2015, will go down in Gorham history as one of the most successful classes Gorham High School has seen. Our success can only be attributed to the efforts of our entire class.

Thank you, Class of 2015, for the unity and the effort you have shown thus far. Many of you will be very successful in your lives because you are a group of individuals who care more about the group than about petty selfish gains. I want also to thank you all for the amazing four years of high school and especially for the last two years. It was truly a pleasure.

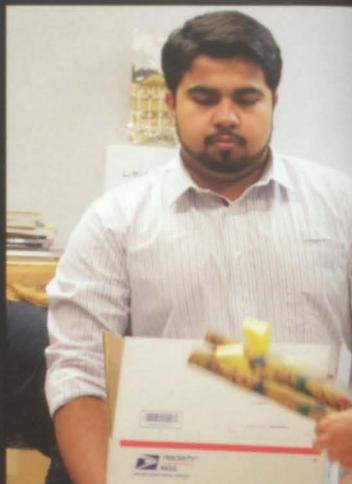

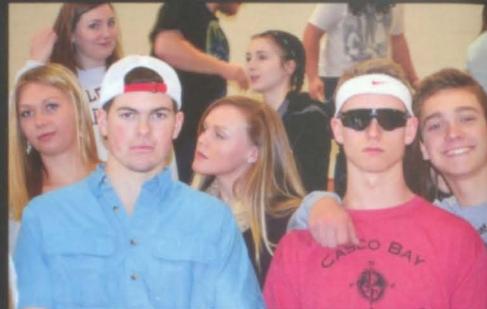

As you are about to leave high school and begin your pursuit for a career, remember all the things that allow you to be where you are today. Remember, not only your own effort, but also the effort of those around you who allowed you to reach your potential.

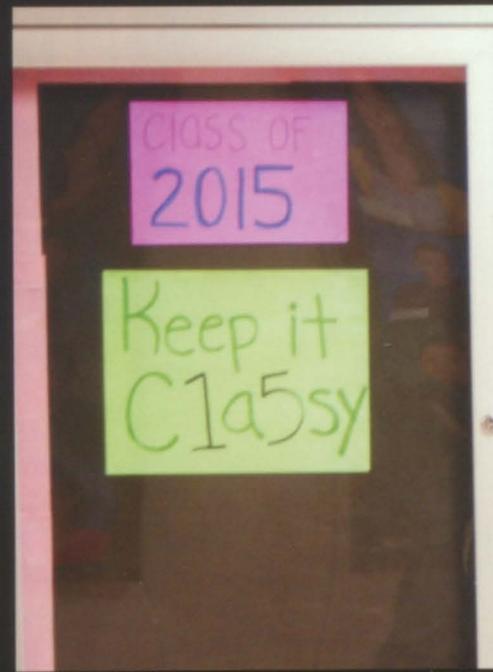

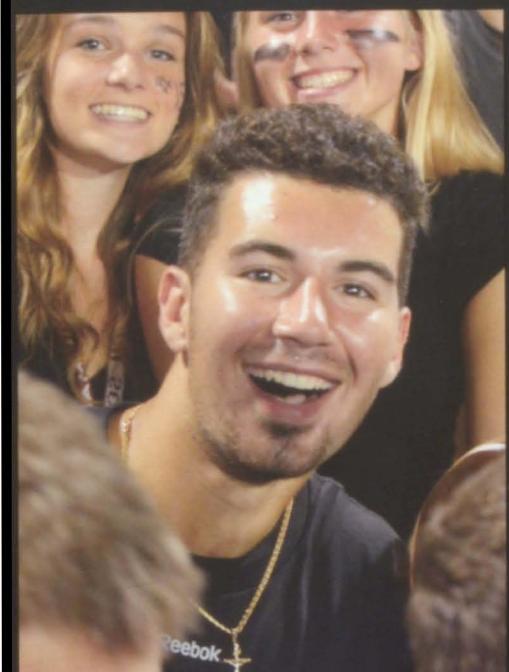

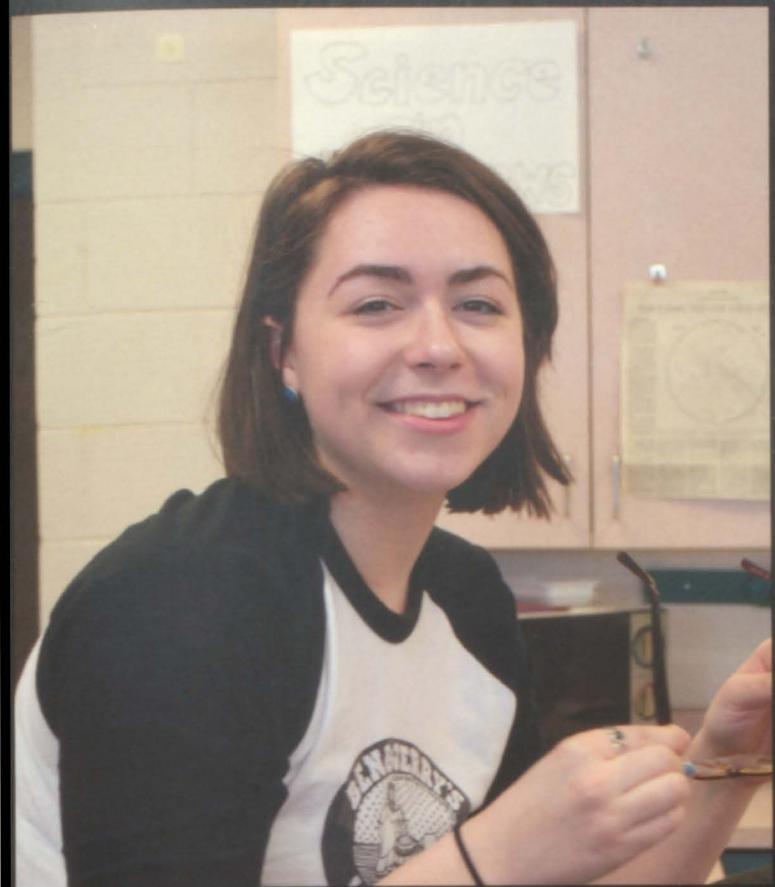

I wish you the best of luck and satisfaction in your achievements.

Thank you
Muhammad Khan

On the first day of freshman year, Mr. Record sat us down in the auditorium and told us that high school flies by fast. My friends and I all looked at each other, giggling in disbelief. To our surprise, he was right. Now here we are, applying for colleges in hope that the future is bright. Although we are all heading down different paths, I know that Gorham High School has prepared us well for anything we are faced with. Thank you to my family and friends who have supported me through this journey. I'll miss you.

Well, High School is finally over, and I can't say I'm not excited or ready. I wish my class the best of luck in whatever they decided to do after graduation. No doubt it's been a bumpy ride for all of us at times, but hopefully from here on, it will be smooth sailing from now. Also shout out to my bro Cameron! #Bestofluck

Michael Chapin

I would like to first thank my Mom and Dad for supporting me all my life, especially through my high school years and being there for me at all my games. Good luck to my sister, Emily. Enjoy these years at GHS, they go by fast. I love you all.

I would also like to thank all my friends for being a part of such great memories.

I'll miss my hockey and baseball boys - great times and great seasons. And thanks to my coaches and teachers for guiding me through these years.

Thank you to my family and friends for always being there for me. Thank you mom and dad for always being my biggest fans. I love you both so much and I can't thank you enough for everything you have ever done for me.

Colby, you're an amazing brother and I can't thank you enough for everything you have ever done for me. I wish you the best of luck with your education! I will always be here for you, I love you.

Justin, thank you for always having my back. I wish you the best of luck with your career, I love you!

To my ski team, thank you for a great four years of racing, keep a high line!

Thank you to all of my friends for the great memories we've made!

Congratulations to the class of 2015!

Thank you for the constant support from my family, friends, teachers and young life leaders. I would not be the person I am today without all of your help.

J.S, D.S, D.B, C.S- I'm so thankful for you guys. I wouldn't have wanted to take this journey with anyone else and I wish you luck with everything that comes your way. Our four years together have finally unraveled and our high school story is coming to an end, but it was a good run.

Congratulations 2015 graduates, we made it!

If there's anything I've learned here at GHS, it's that you can't go through life just trying to succeed. You have to dive in and just do it. In the words of the oh-so wise Yoda: "There is no try, there is do or do not." Jumping into the theatre department is the best idea I ever had, and I never could have done it with a hesitant attempt. I had to just dive in, and that's my advice to all incoming students, just dive in, just do it.

These last 4 years have been crazy and unforgettable. I couldn't have gotten through them without the help of my family & friends. To mom & dad, thank you for the love and support you've given me through the year and for guiding me down the right path. Carissa, Kasey & Meredith, I couldn't ask for better sisters. You three mean the world to me. A.A, S.C, K.B, A.W, K.F, F.O, Thanks for being there for me through everything. High school sure has been a fun adventure, but I'm excited to see what the future holds. Congratulations and good luck to the class of 2015!

There are many people that I would like to thank for standing by me when I made it tough for them to do so. Just to name a few, my grandparents, my Nim, Travis, my counselor Bear, my friends SH, LT, AM, WB, CR, GB, and IVI, and lastly Mrs. Slipp, Mrs. Soverel, Mr. Tryder and Mrs. Bedrosian for each of them playing a huge part in getting me to where I am today. I am so grateful for each and every one of you.

Big thanks to my family and friends, whom I leaned on so much during these four years.

Grateful to my teachers, since they all made the decision to spend their lives imparting their endless knowledge and experience on kids like me.

Special thanks to my only two high school coaches, Rick Altham and Pooch, who taught me how to win, how to lose, how to recover, how to have fun, and how to succeed.

Many thanks to Beware of Pedestrians for four great years of music, to Kiana for always encouraging the best in me, to Ben and Noah for being like brothers to me, to JD for inspiring my continued interest in music, to my extended family for always giving me a summer to look forward to, to my sister for treating her little brother like a human being, and to my parents, who have always urged me to challenge myself and without whom I never could have succeeded. Thank you and good luck to all of my classmates; I hope to see you again.

High school is quite the experience. It seems like last year I was just a freshman, and now I'm a senior. I'd like to say I've noticed myself maturing in the past four years but I haven't.

Looking back, I had so much fun with my buddies at the dances and at practice. I wish high school wouldn't end but at the same time I can't wait to get out. It's an odd feeling but you don't know until you're in that situation yourself.

As much as I loved and enjoyed the good times, it's the hard and stressful times that made me who I am today. Me being the youngest is actually pretty great because my brothers and sisters suffered so I could have it easy. Thanks, Katie, Jon, Becca, and Manda for suffering for me. Thanks mom and dad for the moral support.

These past four years at Gorham High School has taught me to love who you are and do what you want to do, because after high school popularity means nothing. Soccer Girls- We are such a great group of people. I couldn't have asked for a better group of girls to have played soccer with for so many years. I wish you all the best of luck! Tennis Girls- I had only started playing my Freshman year, but you guys were so awesome! Captain for 2 years in a row and setting a school record with my girl J-cow. I love you all. Kiss my ace. Family/friends- Who made me who I am to this day, thank you for all the support and love. I could never repay you for all of the things you have done for me.

I wouldn't have made it through the last four crazy years without the support and love from friends and family. Mom and dad, thank you for always supporting me and leading me down the right path. I wouldn't be half the person I am without you guys. Ash, thanks for being my role model and never letting me down. You've kept me going when I needed it most. Kayli, thanks for all the crazy times. I can always count on you for a laugh. You've been my shoulder to lean on and I know college won't change that. Renee, enjoy your last year, it really does go by fast, always here for you. MC MB EN SR thanks for the memories, and for always having my back. "We laid a lot of memories down, like tattoos on this town."

I never thought I would see this day. The past few years have been interesting. I want to thank my mom, dad and sister for all the help they've given me. Thank you to all of the teachers that have helped me these past four years. I also want to give a shout out to a few friends who made senior year an awesome year, KP, JG, RJ, AM, KB, DR and AP. Working for the Fire Department the past two years has been an awesome experience, I've learned a lot from guys while working there and made new friends while working there, I'm looking forward to enlisting into the United States Marine Corps after graduation. I'd like to thank my family, closest friends and countless others who have supported me throughout my life, not just high school. I'd like to give a humongous-big thanks to my parents who have put in endless hours throughout high school to make sure that I was everywhere I need to be academically, physically and mentally. In the four years that I've been at GHS, I've learned a lot about myself, about others and have gained many memories that will not be forgotten. I'm glad that I could also meet some great personalities (you know who you are). These years have been my roughest as well as my greatest, and I wouldn't want it any other way. Lastly, I'd like to cap it off and say, LET'S GO RANGERS!

I wouldn't have made it through this year without my family thank you all so much, and to Joe for helping me with whatever he possibly could and always being there for me when I needed it most, and going out of his way to make sure I was happy.

Congratulations class of 2015, good luck!

Anna Grant

I would like to thank my parents for supporting me no matter what & always going to my sports games. I would especially like to thank my Nana, you've taught me so much & helped me through the many struggles of high school. Also, even though we don't get along as much as we should, thank you Jon for always pushing my buttons & making me laugh. I'd like to give a s/o to my amazing best friend on & off the field hockey field, Andrea Stemm thank you for ALWAYS being that back pass& having a positive vibe. S/o to my field hockey team, thank you all for an unforgettable senior year & getting to do it one last time. M.D thank you for being my mom in high school & this year coming back to support me on the field. A big s/o to my idol Hannah Prince, for being an amazing field hockey player & following her dreams, hope to see you in the 2016 Olympics. Good luck to the class of 2015.

GHS was real. Thank you everyone who helped me pull through. Mom and Dad, you guys are amazing and thank you for guidance. Leeanna I love you too and good luck sis! Thanks to all my friends who were by my side all the time. Good luck to everyone else. 2015 we went hard.

Leeanna Gray

I would like to start to thank the most important people in my life my parents. Thanks mom and dad for all the support that you have given me. I love you. Without you, I would be nowhere. I would like to thank Mr. Caterina. Thanks for being there for me when I needed someone and pushing me beyond what I think my limits are, which are now endless. Thank you Mr. Ebersold for inspiring me to be a teacher. I will miss you, your analogies and support. Thank you Mr. Tangay for believing in me when I didn't believe in myself. I thank you. To the XC and T&F team. You guys are like my family. I will never forget you! GO RACE WALKERS! To my best friends, Jaymie, Spencer, Ben, River, and Drew. I love you guys. PB. <3

What an amazing journey the past seventeen years have been. Thank you to my friends who has helped me along the way, you know who you are. Mom and Dad: thank you for the amount of sacrifices you have made for me through the years. I can't begin to explain how thankful I am for such amazing people and role models. I owe everything to you. I love you guys tons. Jacqui: You're an amazing kid. You are so smart and talented and one of the most caring people I know. You can do whatever you put your mind to. And last but not least, Coach Clement. Always a second dad, he has taught me some of life's most important lessons. I can't wait to see what the years ahead hold for me! See ya GHS, its been a solid 4 years.

Morgan Hamilton-Butts

First I'd like to thank my boyfriend Taylor, you have been my motivation since sophomore year. You've been my best friend & smile when all I wanted to do was frown, I love you! I also wanted to thank my dad, you are the best dad I could have ever asked for. No matter how old I am I'll always be your little girl I love you daddy! I also wanted to thank my mom, we've had some ups & downs but you have made sure I've gotten done this year so thank you, I love you! And thank you Missy for not walking out when anyone else would I love you! Lastly thank you to my sisters Anna and Madison, best friends come and go but sisters are forever. You 2 are my best friends<3 Also thank you to B.J. and N.L I love you guys to!!

I will always remember the amazing friends and memories I have made here at GHS. The day that we would all part ways seemed like it would never come, and now it has arrived, too soon and yet not soon enough. It is a bittersweet realization that I will no longer see the familiar faces of those I grew up with at school everyday. Most of all, I will miss the amazing life-long friends I have made at GHS, thank you all for always being there for me and never failing to make me laugh until it hurts. I cannot wait to see where life takes each and every one of you. Congrats class of 2015, we did it.

Brandie Harmon

I would like to thank Mrs. Gaudette and Mr. Chittuck for helping me through high school because without them I wouldn't have been able to get through Freshman year without them. I would also like to thank my Mom and sister Breanna, they were always there for me when I needed them the most and will always stay by my side even after High School. I would lastly like to thank Daniel Couture, he has been there for me my whole senior year and he always knows what to say to cheer me up.

"Make it last" they said. "The time will go by so fast" they said. Well, "they" ended up being right. I always brushed off the thought of me actually moving on from school; I have a few more years, right? Time flies when you're having fun. I thank my family, my friends and all who helped me grow into who I am now. I want to thank all, and I do mean all, of the teachers and staff at GHS, because you put up with us day after day for four years and I couldn't ask for anything more. Being a balanced person is the most beneficial advice I can give someone. My advice is to never be extreme in your approach to new ideas and new situations. By being a balanced person you will be able to look at more than one perspective in life. You will be able to go beyond culture, society, religion, and political ideologies. Go beyond these limitations... and be balanced in your thinking to allow you to approach new things. These ideas will change you, some for the better, some for the worse, but at the end of the day you will have set out of your comfort zone and seen the world around you. Be a balanced person and transcend the norms around you. Lastly always remember..... YES WE KHAN!!

Mom and Dad, thank you both for being so supportive and doing so many great things to make my high school experience memorable for me and my friends.
Jesse, thanks for being the best brother! I hope you know, I'll always have your back.
Gram, you are my idol. I'm so lucky to have the coolest Gram around. I am so blessed to have you and Papa in my life.
Papa, I can always rely on you to give me the best hugs, and to send me daily text messages. Thank you for teaching me to always work hard.
Julia, you are a true best friend! Can't wait to see what new memories we will make.
To my Field Hockey sisters, thank you all! We sure did have a great senior season and I'll always remember it.

Brooke Leeman

Over these past four years, I've learned a lot. I've learned to appreciate what I have in my life, to be proud of who I am, to try my best, and to dream big. I want to give a huge thanks to my family and friends. They have been my biggest supporters and don't know what I would do without them. Every road I go down and every challenge I face, I know I will always have them by my side. Whatever road you choose in life, make sure it's the one that will make you the happiest. "Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened." - Dr. Seuss
I decided to go with a stereotypical sappy quote to start off. The past 4 years have certainly been a roller coaster, but I learned a lot and I'm grateful for that. I couldn't have done it without my amazing and supportive family and my even more amazing second family at 317. I'd like to especially thank my parents, my grandmother and Marie, you're my rocks and I couldn't be more grateful for all of you. We did it, seniors. Here's to the next chapter, and the one after that, and the one after that. I wish all of you the best of luck and I'm so proud of all that we've accomplished these past 4 years. Keep it c1as5y!

Jennifer Loubier

The past 4 years at GHS have taught me so much.
I've made many great memories with great people. I definitely wouldn't have gotten through it without my parents, teachers, and coaches to help every step of the way.
Huge thank you to Erika, Kayleigh, Gabby, and Sage for being there for me all 4 years whenever I needed them.
Mom and Dad, thanks for all your support and help throughout the years. Love you!
Trevor, good luck in high school buddy!
Class of 2015, thanks for being like a second family and for truly making h15tory.
Congratulations and good luck!

I would like to thank all my teachers, friends and my family for all their help over these past four years of high school, without them I probably would not be the student I am today. I will miss all of you when we are gone, but I wish you all the best of luck, wherever you go have fun.

Travis Mansir

I still remember walking through the high schools doors for the first time 4 years ago thinking that the next four years will be the slowest years of my life. The thing is that it was the fastest 4 years of my life. I wanna say thank you to all the teachers and students and staff that has helped me through the past four years. Thank you to my parents who have always been by my side through the good the bad and the ugly. Good luck to all the future hockey players at GHS #gsquad love you boys and will never forget you guys! You are my boys and my family, Western Champs 2014!

I'd like to thank all my friends, family and all my teachers that stuck with me through this adventure called high school. I'm going to miss playing basketball, football and running track. I'd also like to thank all my coaches that were there for me during these sports. It all went by so fast and I'm proud to say that I was a student at GHS and ready to make that next big step towards life. GO RAMS!

We've come a long way, guys. We all have our guiding stars that helped us get to where we are. My brother, max, was always the guiding North Star in my life. My dad the Big Dipper, and my mom Orion's belt, because she has a great fashion sense. Without these constellations, I would just be another poor soul, lost in the forest.

Brendan Mercier

I cannot believe it is all over. My advice is to enjoy high school while it is here. Go to all the games, plays, and school events. Study hard in the classroom and better yourself every day in all aspects of your life. Make the right choices that will lead you down the best path for your future. Gavin – have a blast in high school, but get your work done and challenge yourself. Becky – I could not have asked for a better older sibling. Mom and Dad – thank you for your guidance, support, and love. You guys mean the world to me. A huge thank you to my family who has always supported me. I am lucky to have such a wonderful and loving family. I would also like to thank all my teachers at Gorham High School and to my teachers at Westbrook Vocational School as well. You guys have taught me more than what was on the lesson plan or in the book. Lastly, thank you to my amazing friends who have always been by my side. You guys have made my high school years so terrific with all the laughs and great memories. Good luck to everyone.

Well class of 2015 it's been a good run. It's time for all of us to venture out from the shelter of jolly GHS and to tackle the real world, and to see what the future has in hold for us. There are so many people I need to thank that have helped me get to this point. my parents; you guys have been my anchor. My step parents for treating me like one of their own, and my siblings although we fight and may annoy one another, for always being there for me. To the squad and all my friends I says thank you for all the good times we've had, and to everyone else good luck to you guys on your future endeavors.

Michael Susi

Like many others, I have no idea what to write in this limited amount of space, so I am going to write exactly about that. In life you may be given only a little bit, whether it be time, criteria, etc. It is what you make of that little bit that defines who you are. You can either stick to the given norms and stay within parameters we often set for ourselves, or make that little bit into so much more that is unseen to others. What category this write-up falls under I do not know, but I do know I will always shoot to be the one that reaches outside of those norms and set myself apart from others. Thanks to my family, my coaches, my boys, and everyone that got me where I am today.

Thomas Susi

First I want to thank my family. Thank you Mom for trying to have a family meal every night, to Dad for trying to make it to all of my matches. Mom and Dad, thank you for everything you've done for me and supporting me no matter what. Thanks to my sisters for always putting up with me. Michael, it's been 17 years of constant competition between us. We've been through it all and it's been a great ride. Now to my friends, my second family, the Ruda squad, the Latin scholars, the Euro study groups. I'll never forget the intense 2k and FIFA games, the late night talks, the Euro movies, or intense games of pool ball. I wish everyone the best of luck. Thank you to my parents and teachers for all your support, being patient and working hard with me.
Thank you Aric for being a great friend and brother. Good luck to you next year!
Thanks to my friends for all the memories and good times, we had fun!
Good luck class of 2015

Andrew York

"That's the fun of it, Chuckie; you never know what you're going to get until you get it." -
Tommy Pickles

To my brother and father, thank you for always being there for me.

To my mother, you're the reason I have thrived these past years. I will never stop living for you.

To my fellow thespians, I love our little dysfunctional family. Hail to the late nights at Friendly's.

To my runners, you always know how to bring me up when I'm down. You were the first people to make me feel accepted.

To my Bebes, you have been with me through thick and thin. You're my favorite person.

Zoe Young

Live life to find your happiness.

 Congradulations

Our dearest Alyssa,
It's hardly possible that it's been 18 years since you came into this world. Here you stand today, an intelligent, beautiful young lady with her whole life ahead. Every smile, laugh and tear has helped make you into the person you are today. We are proud beyond words and wish you nothing but the very best of what this wonderful life has to offer. Live with purpose and passion and always know that your family is right here beside you.
Congratulations baby girl.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad and Anthony

Your are so lucky to have me in your life.
ILOVE YOU
Auntie Nennie

Matthew Hooker

Congrats Matt,
Thanks for being such a great brother. I appreciate all your help with soccer and hockey and teaching me how to take a snap shot. I'm going to miss you, good luck at college.
Rachel

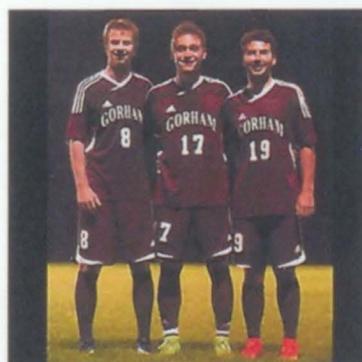

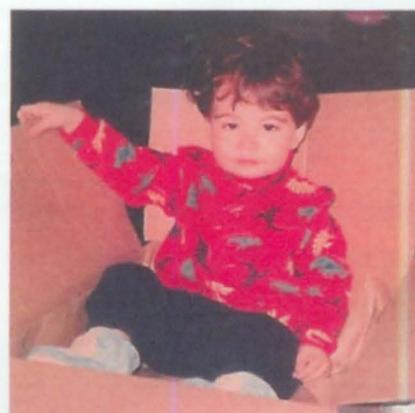

Congratulations Matt.
Good luck in college and your future plans. We're so proud of you. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. We loved spending time with you in Italy and Florida. It was a joy to watch you play sports and fishing with you. You're a fantastic grandson and wish you the best in the future.

Have fun, Love Nana and Papa

Congratulations Matt,
You have grown up so fast it's hard to believe you're going off to college. We're so proud of all your accomplishments. You've been a great student, role model, athlete and son. You've always worked hard and played hard and made good decisions. Good luck in college, continue to make us proud.

We love you, Mom and Dad

Susie:

Wasn't it yesterday that you were a baby in my arms? I looked at your precious face and wondered where life would take you.

Today, I look at the person you've become... strong, kind, thoughtful, caring and optimistic...and I realize that the dreams I held in my heart for you are coming true.

I am so proud of you, We sure do share some very special times together. I look forward to them and I wouldn't trade them for the world. I love you with all my heart, and I am so lucky to have you as my daughter!

Tootie Boot Fruit:

I can't believe your Graduation day is almost here. I knew this day would come and I knew that you would make me proud! As a little girl, you could go from being a beautiful princess, all dressed up , to playing near the pond collecting frogs with your brother. You were always up for adventure, always looking for the biggest mud puddle to drive the 4wheeler through, wanting to learn how to drive the loader and watching you hit those jumps with the snowmobile and then of course hitting me up for cash to go get your nails done. There is no doubt in my mind that you will achieve your dreams and goals. I love you Kayli!

XOXOXO
Dad

Kayy Kayy:

With us just being 11 months apart we sure did have some fun times growing up. You have said and done some crazy things that leaves me shaking my head, but I wouldn't change anything about you! Just do me a favor, when the "check engine" light comes on in your car again, remember it's not just a "pretty light" to look at. I'll always be here for you.

Love

Tootie:

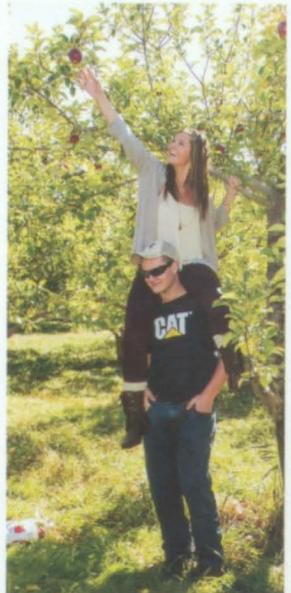

December 20th 1996 was a wonderful day. I was so fortunate to be there the day you were born. I felt an instant bond with you and my life is so much better because you are in it. You will always be my "Tootie" I love you to the moon and back.

Kate Hopkins

Dear Kate,

It doesn't seem possible that you are graduating from high school, teetering on the brink of adulthood and about to make your mark on the world. The past 18 years have flown by far too quickly – just as everyone warned us. Although, we are not quite ready to watch our youngest child leave the nest, at the same time, we are eager to see what the next chapter holds in store for you. You cannot possibly know how much joy you have brought to our family and how proud we are of all of your accomplishments, whether in the classroom or on the playing field. We have watched your evolution from a shy, clingy toddler to Daddy's little princess, to a snarky adolescent, and finally to the self-assured, independent young woman that you are now. You will continue to grow & change over the next decade or so, but we hope that you never lose your sense of purpose, your wit, or your kindness and compassion, as these are the traits that will serve you best in life. As we reflect back on the past 18 years, we are flooded with so many cherished memories of time spent with family and dear friends, years of fun, adventure, and always laughter – the annual camping trips to Acadia, family vacations at Beaver Cove, Hilton Head, the ski mountains; and of course, the countless soccer trips all over the country. All of these memories and experiences have helped shape the person you are today. The next few years – the college years, in particular -- will be some of the most fun, exciting times of your life, but there are bound to be challenges along the way. Know that you always have a safety net.

Kate, you have such a bright future ahead of you. Enjoy every step of the journey and remember that falling down is part of life. Getting back up is living.

Congratulations sweet girl!

We love you to the moon & back ~

Katherine Stoddard

Katie,

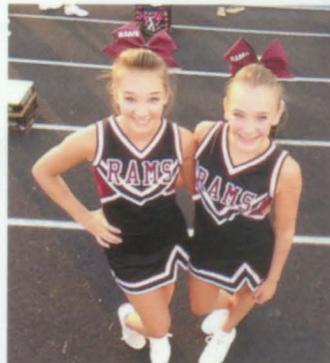

We are so very proud of the loving, caring, talented and honorable young woman you have become. You have such an amazing spirit and it shows in everything that you do. With your kind and gentle nature you have a very bright future ahead of you!

You have accomplished so much in just 18 years. You have excelled with singing, acting, running, soccer, swimming, cheerleading, skiing, surfing, gymnastics, modeling, and pageantry. Each new thing you have tried, you have amazed us with how seemingly easily it came for you -- never stop challenging yourself to try new things, and to sharpen the old things! It will keep you young at heart, and you possess the ability. Always be true to yourself Katie. Work hard, play hard, and enjoy life. Never let anyone dull your sparkle.

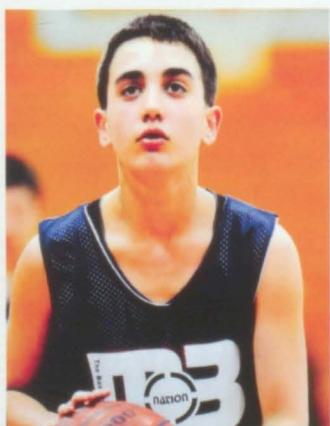

We love you Katie Rose!

Love,

Mom, Dad, Krissy, and Kimmy

Spencer Ruda

Congrats Spence on everything you have accomplished. We are so proud of you. You have worked so hard in so many ways and brought such joy to our family and friends. We have loved all the excitement you have brought to our life with End of School parties and Summer Gatherings with all of your friends. Mostly our treasured memories of Celtics games (Game 7, Dad will never forget), NYC visits, Jimmy Fallon live, hours in basketball gyms, family birthday parties, cruise vacations, family trips, the living room hoop and of course Pook! This truly has been a fun journey through the years. You are off to bigger and better things and we can't wait for your next chapter. You have an amazing spirit and we are so proud of the person you have become. It has been a joy watching you grow up and being there every step of the way. We are your biggest fans and will always support you. We hope your passion for basketball never ends. As we look back through the years we are reminded it has been very easy being your parents. Good luck and Have Fun, the Best is yet to come!

Michael,
When we decided to start a family, we had no idea what to expect. Then you came into our lives and all of our plans made sense. What we've learned from this journey is no matter how uncertain the future may be, if you follow your heart and make decisions for good reasons, it will eventually all make sense. All of our love, Mom and Dad

Meghan Hanley

Meg-
I am so proud of everything you have accomplished. I have watched all your hard work, your navigation of the "bumps in the road", and your development into the young lady you have become. So many opportunities and adventures await you. Take advantage of them all!
Don't be afraid to follow your heart and the path that feels right to you. You will always end up exactly where you are meant to be.

Love , Mom

In a blink of an eye, you have grown from an adorable, sweet, bright, happy, and determined baby into a poised,
compassionate, funny, insightful, talented, and truly remarkable young lady. Meghan, we couldn't be more proud of the person you are now, the values you hold, and the goals you are working toward. Congratulations on this first of many milestones to come.

Jeffrey McNally

Jeffrey,

We have watched you grow from a quiet and shy boy to a confident young man. You have made us so proud with your many accomplishments. You are a shining star not only when you are on stage but with your personality and your ability to make people smile. Your sense of humor will be missed while you are away at college. Reach for the stars as you go through life and always know your family loves you very much!

Love, Mom and Dad

Jeffrey,

It has been a pleasure watching you grow into the man you have become. I am very proud to call you my brother and am excited to watch you continue to excel.

Love, Max

Nate Roberts

Dear Nathan,

Whoosh...and you are graduating high school! Can we ask for a replay? What an experience watching you grow and now on to a new adventure in your life.

Thank you for being a wonderful part of our family. We have learned much from one another...yet we still have much to learn from each other. We look forward to that. Your quiet caring for your sister, your consistent support of your teammates, and your loyalty to friends make you a true leader in our eyes and heart.

Now on to your future...it will be influenced by:
All the accomplishments you have achieved... use them as a source of confidence,
The choices you make going forward...they will define who you become,

The people you inspire...they will inspire you back, and
Your determination to succeed...it will define the value you add to the world.

Just know that in the stands will be Marissa, Mom and Dad cheering wildly for you, well may be Dad louder than everyone else.

We love you Nathan...remember...no regrets...Mom, Dad & Marissa.

Julia Gaudette

Dear Julia:

Mom and I are trying to figure out where the time has gone. It's so hard to believe that you are a senior and graduating and heading off to college in the fall. Whether you like it or not, you are our baby girl!

We are very proud of the fine young lady that you've become! We've watched you through travel basketball, Gorham Youth soccer and through Babe Ruth softball and onto varsity softball for the school team as their pitcher. You've grown, matured and always been a daughter that we've been proud of.

You are quiet and sometimes shy, but also a girl that loves to have fun with her friends and family. You are very caring, thoughtful and creative. You've known for a while that you want to go into nursing. We have no doubt that you will make a great nurse and people will be lucky to have you take care of them!

Best of luck Julia in all of your future plans! We love you to the moon and back! Love Mom, Dad, Ashley and Max

Jules,

I can't believe your graduating and going off to college. I couldn't be more Proud of you and everything you've accomplished. Keep dreaming big and you'll go far. You've always got me to fall back on

Love you Beeda
Ash

We can't believe "Smilie" is graduating, time has gone by too fast! Congratulations and best of luck. Love Aunt Sharen and Uncle Terry.

Sarah Plourde

Eighteen years ago you joined our family, a special delivery courtesy the milk man. You were a vivacious toddler both by nature and hair color! Watching our little monkey girl grow into a mature, confident, resilient young lady has brought us so much joy. We are proud of the decisions you have made and the accomplishments you have achieved. As you close this chapter of your life and begin the next, remember - "Don't worry about failures, worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try." - Jack Canfield
Congrats, Sarah!!! We LOVE you! Mom & Dad

Sarah, If you are as persistent, as determined, and ignore people who try to limit you or tell you "NO" half as well as that little redhead who always found a way to destroy my Lego and Lincoln Log creations, you will accomplish anything you set your mind to!
Love - Eric

Matt Gaudette

Matt,
Where do we begin, it seems so impossible that you are graduating and beginning a new journey. We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments, your smile, laughter and wicked sense of humor! Your love of life has brought us so much joy over the years. As you go out into the world, remember we will always be here for you and support you in all that you do. You will make a fine Marine and excellent Police Officer. Go out and make a difference in this crazy world!

Love you to the moon and back, Mom, Dad & Kaitlin

Brooke Leeman

Brooke, I am so proud of you and the woman you've grown up to be. You will do great things in the future. You are compassionate, loving, smart, strong, caring, beautiful and amazing. The list continues, as does the love and support for you. Be yourself, do what makes you happy. No matter what you do or where you go, all roads lead home. You are my sunshine, my only sunshine, you make me happy, when skies are gray. You'll never know dear, how much I love you, please don't take my sunshine away. Can't wait to see where your journey takes you.

I love you!
Love mom XO

Side by side or miles apart, we are always connected by the heart. Such a strong, beautiful, young woman! I'm expecting to hear big things happening in this new chapter of your life! I love you!

Love, your favorite cousin ever, Cheyenne

Brooke Elizabeth Leeman a.k.a Baby Girl. Where do I start, you were a little 5lb peanut when you were born and you've grown into a beautiful person inside and out. I can't wait to see what life has planned for you. Follow your dreams and dream big. Great things will happen for you. Always remember to do what makes you happy! I'm so proud of you.

Love Auntie

Brooke, Congratulations on your graduation. We wish you all the best in your road ahead. You are very loved and we are so proud of you. Keep being that loving and caring person that you are.

Best of everything, Meme & Pa

Brooke, through the years we have watched you blossom into the beautiful person you are, inside and out. We are so proud of you, remember when you dream, dream big!

Lots of love, Peep & Tilly, P.S here's a big hug & kiss for you

Who is Brooke? Brooke is an amazingly caring and thoughtful person, she always puts other people's feelings ahead of her own. She strives to make others happy and cares about the feelings of both people and animals. She is a loyal friend and always has time for a hug, a smile, or an encouraging word. She is older than he years and is an "old soul." I have no doubt that she will go far in her journey called "life"; and when hard times come-as they always do-she will have the love and care of those who stood by her and that helped her along the way. Anyone blessed by her love should not take it lightly-her love is one of a kind-true, loyal, innocent and as strong as steel. Love like that doesn't come along everyday. I am proud she chose me to be her "Auntie Dayle" and I will always try to stand up to that honor. We aren't related by blood but by something even stronger-by heart.

She is my princess, my tomboy, and my friend. I will always hold a very special place in my heart for her. I believe everything happens for a reason, she thinks she gained another Aunt, I think I gained the entire world. I get excited when I think of watching her blossom into this life and can't wait to be there for every step of the way.

I love you hun, forever & always

Brooke we met when you were three and I know at first you didn't know what to think of me, but we've become a nice family us three. I hope we've prepared you for the way the world can be. I want you to know you've grown into the wonderful young lady that I knew you would be, and I always want you to remember that you are the greatest thing that's ever happened to me. Always here for you, love Dom

"Nothing! Grapes don't talk!"

The little boy with the chocolate brown eyes and a big cheesy grin...

Who talked to his stuffed animals as if they were real....
Who always had a smile or friendly word to everyone....

And always laughed and laughed at the same jokes over and over...

Drew,

We've watch your sense of fairness and justice move you to action.

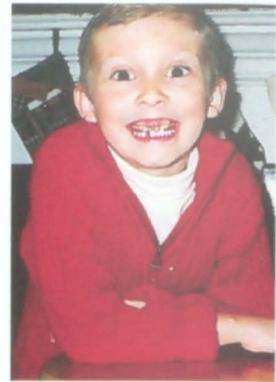

Your integrity as you have tackled through some tough issues.

We couldn't be more proud of the amazing young man you have grown into.

You've got one life to make a difference....make the most of it!

Ben Thompson

Ben,

Seems like it was yesterday your dad and I watched as you got on the bus for your first day of kindergarten. I cried the whole afternoon and dad was very proud of you. Today, you've grown into a respectful and caring young man as you graduate from high school. Always know that dad and I support you in helping you achieve your future goals and ambitions for the next chapter of your life. Always be true to yourself. Congratulations Ben!

Love,

Jessica Labrecque

Jessica,

We are so proud of you! It's hard to believe that our little girl is graduating High School, it seems like yesterday you were starting kindergarten. We are very excited for you to begin your next chapter in life and know that you will accomplish great things. Stay focused and most of all be Happy!

Love, Mom & Dad

Patrick Lynch

Congratulations! Senior year has come far faster than we would have liked. Go out into the world strong and proud. You can do anything you put your mind to! We are very proud of you! Love, Mom, Dad, Jake and Joe

Jordan Ward

Jordan, for the past 18 years we have watched you grow into a handsome, intelligent and caring young man. We have enjoyed every experience, from your academic success to your sports success.

We have faith that your strength and character will help create a life of adventure and success in any area you choose. The pages of your life are just beginning to fill, enjoy the experience.

Love, Mom and Dad

Julia Smith

Dear Julia,

It is hard to believe the time is almost here for you to head to college and a life away from us. We know you are well prepared for what lies ahead. It has been such a joy raising you and we are so very proud of the beautiful young lady you have become. You will always be our "kitten" and "little Katherine". Your family and close friends will always remember a thoughtful, inquisitive and sweet girl who once allowed herself to have lots of curls. Please never change, except bring back the curls some day.

Always remember your roots, family, good friends, and good values. That's what makes you so special as we couldn't dream of a better daughter, sister or friend. You are truly unique and you own all of your personality traits. So Katherine, go make something special out of college and know you will always be our little girl. Love you to the moon and back! Mom, Dad, Erin and Caroline

Dear Julia, you have grown from the cutest, little, curly headed tot who used to parade around with her pink tutu and nothing else, to a beautiful young lady who is smart, thoughtful and caring. We are so proud of you. Lots of love, Grandma and Grandpa Curley

Dear Julia, our pretty granddaughter with the beautiful hair. Congratulations on your graduation and our best wishes as you look forward to beginning your college education. We're very proud of you! Love Grammy and Grampa Smith

Kiana Plumer

Congratulations Kiana from your very proud grandparents. From the time you were little we have had fun keeping up with you. Your favorite question "what will we do today?" often led to activities like shopping with Gram, looking for moose with Gramps, soccer games, ski meets, and trips to the animal shelter. You have become a beautiful young woman filled with so much enthusiasm. We wish you much happiness, success, and lots of love in your future. –

Grandma & Grandpa Pribble.

'Congrats on surviving High School. Ur old.
Luv ya, Darice

I would like to praise my very special granddaughter for her academic and sports success, and wish her a happy and healthy college career. Nana loves you tons.

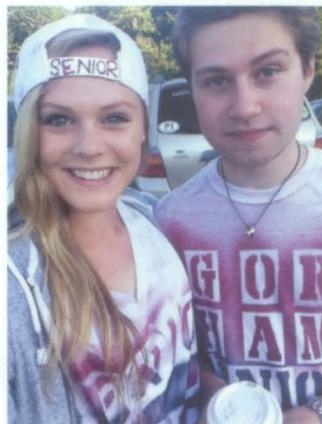

Congratulations and Good Luck! I miss you-
Scotty

Kiana,

It hardly seems possible that you are old enough to graduate and leave home. We'd love to keep you here forever, but know it is your time to head off and experience the world. We have tried to raise you with the lessons, morals, and most of all, love to make you happy and successful in your future. We have loved being your parents and being a part of your life so far and look forward to many more years with our baby girl.

We are so proud of all that you have accomplished and the woman you have become.

Love, Mom and Dad

Brandie Harmon

Brandie,
A little over 17 years ago I was holding my little bundle of joy, now you're graduating. I'm so proud of the woman you've become. Now a new adventure awaits you to explore. You and I have had our ups and our downs but you know
I'll always be their for you, good or bad.
This is only the beginning to your new future; college, getting a job, and being with someone by your side who supports everything you do.

Emily Peterson

Emily-
Not sure if it's even possible but I hope you're as proud of yourself as I am of you. It's amazing and inspiring how you've navigated each phase of your life so far; learning, growing and most importantly, being true to yourself.

Knowing yourself, being comfortable with the person you are and the path you're on, and understanding that these can and will change as you grow can be a great challenge, especially at this point in your life. So far, Em, you've done a remarkable job with this. The Emily you show the world is the true Emily, the caring, giving, loving, silly, carefree, compassionate, bright, driven, beautiful, funny person I am blessed to have as my daughter. What will we do without our goofy girl when you're away?

I love you, Sweetie! XOXOXO Mom

Em-

Out of all of my nicknames for you kids, "Beauty Brain" seems to be the most appropriate. Your positivity is infectious. You are a light that will shine on whatever endeavor in which you choose to undertake. Continue to aim high and know that I could not be any prouder of you as you move on to the exciting next chapter of your amazing life.

I love you! Dad

Hey Emily,

I can't believe you are off to college! I mean, now who is going to give me rides and lame advice on school? Really, though, it won't be the same not having you around and I'll miss you! Except for your sneezing, just kidding!
Have fun!

Sincerely, Your Little Brother Adam

I love you, Sissy! I love you, Sissy! Thank you, Sissy, for sharing toys with me and making me laugh. You are the best Sissy ever! I won't eat peanut butter and kiss you. Love, Nora

Ashley Aceto

Ashley,

It is hard to believe the time has come for you to graduate from High School. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished over the last 12 years of school. Can't wait to see what your future holds.
Just remember to follow your dreams, but remember where your home is! If you can dream it, you can do it but remember it all started with a Mouse! Love you more than words can describe, Mom,
Dad, Nick, Katie, Mike, Matt
and Markie.

Joshua Turner

We are so very proud of the young man you have become.

It's a true honor to call you our son.

Your determination to accomplish this journey "not always easy" proves that you can be whoever or whatever you choose to be.

Never give up! Dream Big!

We love you and will always be there for you!!

Mom, Dad, Haleigh and Riley

Caitlyn Hawxwell

You've done it!! You have shown your strength, determination and character over the last four years and it is admirable. We couldn't be prouder of the young lady you have proven yourself to be. We love you and can't wait to see what the future holds for you.

"Out of difficulties grow miracles."

~Jean de la Bruyere

Julie Pike

Congratulations Julie
- Mom and Dad are very proud of you!

Krista Boylen

Krista,

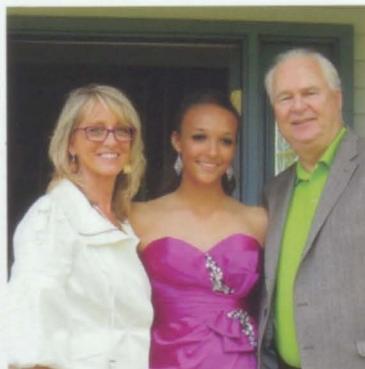

How is it possible that in a few short months you will be heading off to college and beginning the next chapter in your life? It seems like yesterday that Dad and I watched you walk through the double doors at Riverton Elementary School for the first time. We had tears in our eyes as we waved goodbye, but you had a huge smile on your face and were so eager to start Kindergarten. I smile when I think of you running to your dad and dancing in his arms every time you heard the song "Butterfly Kisses" or how excited you would get to jump on our bed when the song "Double Dutch Bus" was played. You have given us such joy as we have watched you grow into the strong, self-confident and intelligent young woman that you are today. We will miss your quirky sense of humor, the random rapping of outrageous songs, and your "wicked" wrestling moves when you leave for college. We will also miss the quiet moments where you have shared your ideas on how you plan to make a difference in our world. Your passion runs deep for many things – use it to grow as a person and make a mark in life. We love you to infinity! Mom and Dad XO

"Life is a song-sing it. Life is a game-play it. Life is a challenge-meet it. Life is a dream-realize it. Life is a sacrifice-offer it. Life is love-enjoy it."

~Sai Baba

Gabrielle Burke

Congratulations on this great milestone, Gabby! We are so proud of you for your achievement and your confidence. Your smile, your love, your life has been a beautiful blessing from God to our family. Always remember that you are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem and smarter than you think!

We love you to the moon!

"So many of our dreams at first seem impossible, then they seem improbable, and then, when we summon the will, they soon become inevitable." – Christopher Reeve

Katie,

You are all grown up, in just a blink of an eye, and here we are at your graduation. Some birthday candles, a few shed tears and many smiles later, and you are heading off to college to begin your exciting journey. We could not be more proud of the strong, courageous person you have become and your many accomplishments. We were supposed to teach you all about life, and instead you taught us how to live life with grace. We are very excited to see where your adventures lead you. One thing is sure --- your future is bright!

We love you always and forever,

Dad & Mel

Katie-loo, being your Mom has brought me such great joy! You have filled my life with laughter, love and (of course) lots of loud music. I am so incredibly proud of you. Not only for your accomplishments, but also for being the kind and compassionate person you are. I will miss you when you are away, but I know we will always be close in heart.

And no matter the distance I will always be right there, cheering you on to the beautiful life that is waiting for you.

Lots of love, Mom

Katie, Congratulations on graduating! I have watched you grow through good times and some sad times and I couldn't be prouder of my sister. I know that you'll continue to show your beautiful spirit as you travel on life's many adventures. Great times await, but remember to celebrate what you are accomplishing right now and remember how much I love you. Morgan

Courage, grace and beauty with a voice like an angel – this is who you are Katie, standing on the brink of a beautiful future. I am so proud of the person you are and the person you will become. Your life will be amazing, just like you.

Love Always, Nana

Jamie Lane

JBoy! We can't believe the time is already here! It's been lots of fun and we couldn't be prouder of the young man you've become! Now you're off on your next big adventure but know we'll always be here for you!

Love you! Mama Bear, Dad, Eric and Penny

MacKenzie Bowers

MacKenzie,

As cliche as it sounds, it really doesn't seem possible that you will be graduating and leaving home for the next grand adventure. It feels like time has been on fast forward and things have moved too quickly, but we've loved watching you grow and take life on with your signature gusto. We love your fun and easy nature and your ability to laugh at any and all things that come your way. The house will seem pretty quiet without that infectious laugh!

We can't wait to cheer you on as you tackle life's next adventure in college and hope that you continue to bring laughter and joy to all who know you. You have a rare gift for making people happy!

Always know that we are your biggest fans and can't wait to cheer you on in all that you aspire to do as you take your place in this world. We know that you will continue to amaze, entertain and inspire us. You make us proud...and "we love you...more!"

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Carter

Tyler Bernaiche

Tyler

Congratulations on a job well done!
You have brought us joy, happiness and laughter.

Your wit and intelligence are matched by your kindness and compassion. Stay light-hearted and strong-spirited.

We are extremely proud of you and all your accomplishments.

Love Mom, Dad, Danny, Bailey, Keenan

Isaac Salpietra

Isaac,

You have been an interesting child from day one. We wish you well, and are actually pretty excited to know that very soon you will have to leave your room and embark on the next phase of your life. I promise you that it only gets better from here. If you question your path in life, just ask "What would Scooby do?". We think you are amazing and love you so very much--- Mom, Kevin and the rest of "the family"

Alicia Robinson

Ally,

We are so incredibly proud of you! You have grown into a smart, hard working, and caring young woman, who is beautiful both inside and out. Your zest for life and your sense of humor brightens our days.

We admire how you stand up for your beliefs and dare to not follow the crowd. You work hard towards your goal and rise to challenges. We know that you can achieve anything you set your mind to as you set off on the next adventure in your life. Keep on shining and don't ever let anyone dull your sparkle!

All our love,
Mom and Dad

"Promise me you'll always remember: You're braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think you are." -A.A Milne

I can't believe this time has come, here I am leaving college and you're just starting it. I am so proud of the woman you have grown to be, even though I see you as my little sister still. You inspire me to be a better and creative person, who is never ashamed of whom they are. I know that you are going to be absolutely amazing in whatever you choose to do, because you have this drive in you to be your absolute best. Love you mucho little one. Discover. Dream. Explore.

Always sisters, forever friends,
Sarah

Brooke Caron

Dear Brooke,
Words can't describe how proud we are of you & how much we love you! You have grown into a beautiful young lady with an amazing journey which lies ahead! Never give up on your dreams & stay courageous! All of our love, Mom, Dad & Cam~Jeremiah 29:11

Megan and Madison Bennett

Megan and Madison,

Your true character is revealed by the clarity of your convictions, the choices you make and the promises you keep. Hold strongly to your principles and refuse to follow the currents of convenience. What you do defines who you are, and who you are, you are forever.

Always be yourself, don't alter to fit the mold others have of you. Take chances. Be willing to risk bumps and bruises to go after the things that you really want. When fear is holding you back, and you need an extra dose of courage, know that I will always be there cheering you on, and I will always give you a soft place to land. Stand up. Speak out. Try. Fail. Try again. Always remember who you are and where you came from. Love. Live and don't forget to Dance.

Love you all the way to the stars and moon and back.

Mom and Andy

Emma Christakis

Emma,

It seems impossible that is has been 18 years since you arrived in our lives fast and furious, loudly proclaiming; "Here I come, ready or not!" It has been a joy to watch that strong will become ingrained in your character in a way that strengthens you and helps you to strengthen others. I have cherished the opportunity to be a part of your journey as you have grown into a smart, determined, hard-working and thoughtful young woman who shines with beauty, both inside and out. Many times I have been in awe of your passion, conviction and drive and I am certain these traits will help you to find the many great things that are waiting for you out in the world! Your journey will include, as everyone's does, moments of ease and struggle, confusion and enlightenment, bliss and sorrow. I hope you always carry with you in your heart the faith in yourself and your abilities to face these things and know that we will always be here for you to offer you guidance and love! My wish for you as you embark on this next chapter is that you continue to strive for and achieve self-awareness that will allow you to find and follow the path that leads you to become the person you believe you were meant to be and that your life is full of a continued expansion of happiness and the ongoing realization of worthy goals. I love you more than words can say and I can't wait to see what your promising future holds!

PS. "I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always, as long as I'm living my baby you'll be" Robert Munsch

I nearly fainted the moment you were born...the whole thing was just so overwhelming...The angry policeman reaching for his gun, the doctor barely making it into the room, nothing went according to my plan. You arrived so quickly, with determination.

I forgot to ask if you were a boy or a girl at first. I finally composed myself, found out that you were Emma, not Ethan (your boy name), and I counted your fingers and toes. You were healthy and, oh boy were you spirited.

You have carried this determination and spirit with you, and it has served you well. That world out there can be cruel and wonderful. I used to worry; am I doing enough to prepare you for life, prepare you to overcome adversity, prepare you for success and happiness. You have owned your education and preparation for college and beyond. You have a work ethic and a desire for success that can't be taught. You have demonstrated time and again that you will thrive. I don't worry much anymore.

Rocking you to sleep; pushing you on a swing; riding bikes around long island; searching the beach for sea glass; hiking Beehive, the Precipice, and Katahdin; skiing at Sugarloaf and Sunday River...These are the memories that make me smile (and if I'm honest, tear-up a little).

You're growing into the well-adjusted, smart, healthy, beautiful young lady that you are...These are the things that make me proud.

I miss you already. Please promise that you will take a break once in a while and have a hike or ski with your Daddy.

Megan Walls

Megan,
You have come a long way. You have made us proud, and shown great determination. Even though you have grown, you have made us look back and the years went by quick. These pictures are how we think of you, our little Megan.

Sarah Logan

Congratulations on finishing this chapter of your life!! We all love you very much and are so proud of you!! I can't wait to see what the future has in store for you!! Love Always, Mom

Kersten Martin-Brinckley

Kersten,
We are all so proud of you. You have turned into a wonderful young woman. You got into the school you wanted to go to and are going to do great things in life.

It is so hard to believe that you are graduating from high school; it seems like just yesterday I was sending you to preschool. I know it's been a crazy journey but it has been a great one. Can not wait to see what comes next.

Love always, mom, dad, and your brothers and sisters

Whitney Emerson

Whitney,

My heart became whole when you and your brother came into my life. It is so hard to believe how fast the years have flown by! It seems like just yesterday you were my little bumblebee on Halloween, and now you are about to go out into the world to make a life for yourself as an adult. This is both exciting and a little scary for both of us, but no matter where you life takes you, I will always be here for you. I have no doubt that if you are true to yourself and follow your heart you are going to do wonderful things that will have a positive impact on your community and the world around us. There is no limit to things you can do!

You are my thoughtful, kind, soulful, artistic, witty, smart, caring, cat loving, brown eyed girl. You have endured many of life's storms over these past four years at Gorham High School. You have won so many battles, and I am so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. If only you could see yourself as I see you!! Never give in. Never give up. Never stop following your dreams and your heart. Never stop being you, because you are amazing just the way you are.

I have loved you for a thousand years, and I will love you for a thousand more!

You are my sunshine. Always. And now, my beautiful butterfly, it is time to spread your wings and fly! Be brave. Be strong. Be safe. Be yourself in all that you do.

I love you!

Mom (aka Nim)

Delaney Shiers

Thank you for filling our life with joy. We are so proud of the beautiful young lady that you have become. One who has a heart full of kindness and compassion and a real gift for lighting up a room and filling it with laughter. Your passion and zest for life will carry you far. Now it's time for you to go out into the world and follow your dreams. Take risks and be bold and know that you are held in a safety net of family and friends who will always have your back. If you need us, we'll be here cheering you on.

Love, Mom, Dad, Jordan, Cole and Hallie

Ashley Woodbury

Congratulations Ashley! I can't believe that my little girl, who used to smile so big for pictures that her eyes were closed in most of them, is graduating and heading off to college. I am very proud of you and all you've accomplished. But more than that, I am proud of the compassionate and loving young woman you've become. Enjoy this new phase of your life and keep working hard in the classroom and on the basketball court.

I love you so much, Mom

Dearest daughter Ashley, 2015 seemed so far off when I first banged your head into the top of the door frame while tossing you. Not sure what you might have accomplished if I hadn't done that, but you've done alright despite my bad aim. Your journey to graduation has been a lot of things, but never boring. Somehow you've managed to overcome all those parenting mistakes and unfair rules to achieve this milestone.

Although you are moving on, remember always, wherever you are, you will always be at home in my heart. I'm so proud of you. I had high hopes for you when I held you in my arms those many years ago, and you've exceeded them all.

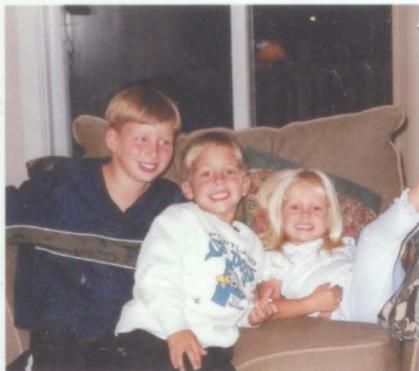

Love, Dad

Ashley,

It's crazy to think that 10 years ago we were playing dress up and with our stuffed animals. And now you're going off to college. I can't imagine what it'll be like not seeing you everyday. But I'm so happy and proud that you're moving on to bigger and better things. I love you to the moon and back a million times and I'll miss you so much.

Love Your Favorite Sister, Heather

Charlotte Smith

You have brought much happiness to our family Charli Checkerberry! We are blessed to have been gifted such a special daughter. We have been amazed as you joined with your friends to raise funds for "Team Tom". We've been so pleased to see you take responsibility of your life as a student, a team member and captain, and a true friend. We have loved watching you play field hockey, ice hockey and yes, even tennis.

You are a natural leader, a lovely young women inside and out and you are mostly a compassionate, charming kind, friend, sister daughter and person.

We are proud of you, and happy for you as you end your high school career. We look forward to see you shape the next chapter in your life. The Sky is the limit. Chase your dreams. We love you with all our hearts!
