

Baxter Memorial Library
Confidentiality Policy

In compliance with Maine Revised Statutes Title 27, §121. Confidentiality of Library Records, records maintained by the Baxter Memorial Library that contain a library patron's personally identifying information, as well as any information relating to the identity of a library patron relative to the patron's use of books or other materials located at or borrowed from the library are confidential. Those records may only be released with the express written permission of the patron involved or by court order.
