

November Greetings from Baxter Memorial Library!

What Real Planning Looks Like Wednesday, November 5th 3pm

In this session, Kaitlyn Cunningham Morse, founder of Maine Aging Partners, shares what "Second Retirement" is really about: facing long-term care with strength, standing on your own terms, and making choices before a crisis makes them for you. You'll see how long-term care actually works in Maine – and leave with the tools and confidence to define your choices instead of being defined by the system.

Who This Is For: Anyone over 75 – or caring for someone who is.

How Populism Works: Erdogan's Path to Authoritarianism in Turkey: A Camden Conference Learning Event Online

Wednesday, November 5th 6:30pm
Virtual via Zoom
Scan QR code to register

This talk examines how Turkey's president Erdoğan's use of populist discourse and style has helped sustain an authoritarian regime through popular support.

Senem Aslan is professor of politics at Bates College. She recently completed a book manuscript on populism and the politics of emotions in Turkey.

This learning event is offered in collaboration with Camden Conference 2026 and is co-sponsored by Baxter Memorial Library, Prince Memorial Library, and Scarborough Public Library.
